LEXINGTON, S. C., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1901.

Rejoinder.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

Nearly one hundred and twenty years have passed since Emily Geiger's famous ride, and to write the story at this late day with absolute accuracy would be difficult if not impossible.

That Sumter was on the Broad—'not east' of it—five miles below Lyle's Ford and near the present Lexington line, on the 25th of June, does not effect the question at issue.

Whether or not the body of Greene's army was east of the Broad on the 29th of June is not material. The sketch shows that on the morning of July 2nd (when Emily started on her mission), Greene was in doubt as to the locality of Sumter.

Again, Sumter wrote to Greene on July 2nd, "I thought it necessary to take a turn through the upper Regiments of my Brigade"—This evidently without Greene's knowledge, or the explanation would have been superfluous.

It ought not to be assumed that Sumter took with him his forces with which he had been operating between the Broad and Saluda rivers while taking his "turn" all the way to the Waxhaws on the N. C. line and thence by way of Hanging Rock to Camden.

When he wrote on the 4th of July of "near Hanging Rock" he was manifestly moving southward—

Now Hanging Rock is perhaps eighteen miles from Camden, (not twenty five), and as he was "near" it he may have been even nearer the end of his journey.

At any rate he would easily ride to the Wateree by three P. M., the hour at which Emily reached his camp—Sumter in his letter of the 2nd of July announced his purpose to go to the Waxhaws. Greene did not know that morning that Sumter was "in Lancaster county above him."

The substance of the story is that Emily rode part of three days; was arrested and searched the second day; and delivered her message on the 4th of July the fifth anniversary of the Declaration of American Independence.

by carpeting the floor and making some other improvements.

"Capt." Bob Eleazer has joined one of the K. of P. societies of Columbia. We wish him much success in his Christian society.

The road leading to White Rock from Lever's is in a very bad condition. If it gets much worse it will be impassable.

Mr. J. P. Richardson, a well known gentleman of the Fork, has been appointed by the Governor Magistrate for the three districts in the Fork, and we, knowing him to be well qualified for the office, wish him much success.

The wedding bells have about ceased to ring now, but if we are any judge some of our young men will cause them to peal again soon.

Mr. R. B. Hiller, one of Hilton's most successful merchants, has already purchased twenty six (26) car loads of fertilizers, and his customers are hauling it as fast as he gets it in.

Hurrah! for the farmers who are sowing more grain and not planting so much cotton, for they are the ones who have brought the price where it is. If all we farmers of the Southern States would do this we could live much better.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

Rain plenty. The health of our town is excellent. Mr. D. D. D. Mitchell was buried at the Shady Grove burying ground last Sunday. Mr. Mitchell was the oldest citizen of our community. He was for many years Intendant; he also served the county as Commissioner and Trial Justice.

The demand for houses has been such that there is not a vacant one in our town. Several new houses are nearing completion and two or three more will be commenced soon.

Mr. George Smith is adding much to the beauty as well as the convenience of his house in the shape of a dining room and cook room.

Parties who purchased the Fort Estate lands are going to work on them and ere long this will be one of the prettiest portions of the town.

February 4, 1901.

Dr. D. M. Crossen has been appointed by Hon. J. C. Wilborn, President of the South Carolina Cotton Growers' Protective Association, as executive committeeman to represent this State at the Interstates Cotton Growers' Convention that will convene in Atlanta, Ga., on February 14, 1901.

The Doctor is recognized as one of the largest and most successful planters of the State, and always takes great interest in all matters pertaining to the welfare of the farmers.

Pity and Beauty

The most beautiful thing in the world is the baby, all dimples and joy. The most pitiful thing is that same baby, thin and in pain. And the mother does not know that a little fat makes all the difference.

Dimples and joy have gone, and left hollows and fear; the fat, that was comfort and color and curve—all but pity and love—is gone.

The little one gets no fat from her food. There is something wrong; it is either her food or food-milk. She has had no fat for weeks; is living on what she had stored in that plump little body of hers; and that is gone. She is starving for fat; it is death, be quick!

Spring Hill Sparks.

To the Editor of the Dispatch: The health of our community is very good with the exception of a few but not serious cases of grippe. The members of the church at this place have greatly improved the looks of their churchyard by hauling rock off of the ground and clearing up the shrubbery. The ladies helped the look of the church edifice also

General Assembly.

The bill to reduce the rate of interest was taken up, discussed and had its cringing words stricken out.

When the house met Saturday there were not more than 85 or 90 members present. During the day a great many others went to their homes.

Only third reading bills and bills which did not provoke debate were considered.

The appropriation bill was introduced by the chairman of the ways and means committee and the house adjourned.

In the senate a great deal of work was transacted.

Senator Marshall's child labor bill was made the special order for this week at the request of the author.

An effort was made to defeat the bill ceding certain marsh lands belonging to the State, to the United States.

The following were among the bills, which passed a third reading: A bill to make cotton mill stocks taxable as realty passed its third reading in the senate and was sent to the house.

A bill to provide for a State bacteriologist.

A bill to require all courts of this State to take judicial notice of the laws and ordinances of any town or city in this State when the same shall be certified to by the Clerk or other officer of the town or city, under the seal of the municipal corporation wherein such laws are ordinances are or were of force.

At 1 o'clock memorial services were held in honor of the late Senator Maulding, of Hampton, after which the senate adjourned.

The house Monday by an overwhelming majority passed a bill increasing the pensions from $100,000 to $200,000. The vote on this measure was 94 to 21.

In discussing state insurance the house decided to exclude the insurance of state colleges by the sinking fund commission, as other public institutions are insured.

Mr. John P. Thomas' bill to abolish the income tax law was killed.

In the senate the naval station bill passed its third reading without opposition or further amendment.

Senator Graydon's bill to domesticate foreign railroad corporations passed.

Mr. Brantley's bill allowing punitive as well as compensatory damages when one is killed by the careless act of a corporation passed.

Monday being salesday and several of the Senators were not present there was no business of importance transacted in the senate.

Irmo Locals.

To the Editor of the Dispatch: When people don't know what else to talk about, they generally speak of the weather and their health, and when we attempt to get up a few locals for a newspaper, these are about the first items that present themselves to our minds.

So we will say first that the weather has been quite changeable for some days past, and yesterday was one of those rainy days. Umbrellas were in demand all day with those who attempted to stir out doors.

The health of our town and community is about as good as usual. Mrs. Annie Oul is very sick at her father's, Mr. G. D. Booknight, Willie Shely, son of Mr. G. W. P. Shealy, who has been very sick is much improved. We learn also that Mr. W. A. Smith, colored, is seriously sick.

Our town is still growing. Messrs. James P. Shely and L. S. Mathias have each about completed a building on Lexington Avenue. Mr. Willie Oul is erecting a nice cottage on Railroad Avenue. Henry W. and Irvin C. Nunnamaker are the builders. Frank Lorick, colored, has about finished replacing his dwelling, which was burned some time back.

Two young men from Columbia were here a few days ago looking around and making inquiries with a view to opening a store and lunch room.

Dr. F. R. Geiger, who purchased the S. K. Beuknight place some time ago, has had it worked over and painted and the rooms nicely papered by Mr. O. W. Lowry, who is a skillful paper hanger and artist. It don't favor its former self by one hundred per cent.

Several days ago the school here suddenly closed itself by the report of a suspected case of smallpox. It failed to develop and we expect school to be resumed today.

At the last town election L. S. Mathias was elected Intendant and E. F. Metzger, Dr. F. R. Geiger, D. E. Barnett and C. P. Robinson wardens to serve for this year.

Mr. Hall and family have moved to our town and now occupy the Sam Metzger house.

Rev. J. S. Abercrombie has been sick for a couple of days, but is out again.

Your scribe has at last moved into his new dwelling, and now, that he has not quite so much to look after, will have more time to catch up locals.
