Mrs. Harriet Seay, who resided with her son-in-law, Mr. Vastine Wessinger, some distance from town, died Sunday morning. She had been a great sufferer for years with a malady that the best medical skill of the country could not eradicate. She is said to have borne her long and excruciating suffering with remarkable Christian fortitude and patience and the end found her fully prepared to enter upon that life where sickness and sorrow are unknown and decay and death never enter. Her neighbors and friends are living witnesses of her kindness of heart and hand her child like faith in the promises of her Lord. She leaves numerous near relatives and a host of friends to weep over her death.

She was in her 73rd year of her age. Her remains were entered in the cemetery at White church on Monday.

Do not forget to come around and have us to take your measure for a nice spring suit. H. L. Oswald.

The cold snap of last Saturday caught many people without wood. They were like the ten foolish virgins in some respects in that they did not have their fires bright and burning.

Our people were astonished Saturday to awake and find that while they slept the beautiful snow had stolen a march on them, and the house tops and mother earth were covered with feathery whiteness.

The qualified electors of the town should bear in mind that the election for interdent and four wardens will be held in the town hall next Tuesday. It is the duty of every citizen of the town who has registered to turn out and vote in this election.

Surveyors have resumed the work of surveying the route of the spur which is proposed to leave the Southern railway near the residence of Mr. Simon Wingard and end at some point in town yet definitely decided upon.

Prof. Hicks predicte's terrible weather for the month of March in which thunder and lightning, winds and blizzards, tornadoes and cyclones, volcanic and seismic disturbances, snow, sleet and rain, will be the prominent perturbations. Watch and see.

Mr. Henry Harman, proprietor of the Southern Tobacco Journal, paid a short visit to the parental roof in this county last week.

There is no question about the prices of Leaphart & Drafts on clothing, furnishings, hats and shoes being as low as Columbia prices on the same class of goods. These young men are determined not to be under sold by any one, hence it will be to the advantage of those who are in need of a suit of clothes, a pair of shoes, a hat or any article in the gent's furnishing line to give them a call. They will treat you right.

Mr. H. J. Rawl, after teaching a successful session at Pleasant school house in Richland county has returned to his home in this county. The closing exercises of his school were very fine and were greatly enjoyed by the large audience present. Henry is a favorite with the people who were satisfied with his work. He will hereafter pull the bell cord over a mule's back.

The Loan and Exchange Bank, of Columbia, is one of the leading financial institutions in the State and is officered by well known business men of that city. Under a special provision of its charter it exercises the office of executor, administrator, trustee or guardian of estates and solicits business in this line as well as that in its other departments.

Prof. Frank N. Nannamaker, of Irmo, has one of the most valuable and interesting collections of Flora and Fauna in the State, also geological specimens of great value, mostly from Cuba. Mr. Nannamaker has been collecting these specimens since early boyhood. It evidences a carefully trained scientific mind, and will become more valuable as the years pass on. The entire collection has been secured by Professor Gee, of the Columbia Female College.

The saddest mistake a parent can make is to neglect the education of his children. Many a boy and girl of our county are hungry for mental training, but are denied it because their parents do not see how really valuable it is. Right here at home in our own county we have excellent educational advantage that our people ought to appreciate. Our schools are well patronized it is true, but still many of our youth are coming to young manhood and womanhood without the educational training the twentieth century demands.

W. F. Furtick, the big dry goods man of Columbia, has moved into his handsome new store, with a large and elegant stock of new goods, suitable for the spring trade. The arrangements of his different departments are complete in every detail, and the handling of the large crowd of purchasers is done without friction or delay. Customers are pleased with the treatment and bargains received there.

On Sunday, the 17th inst., a number of friends and neighbors attended the 70th birthday dinner of Mrs. Catherine Younginer, at her home, about twelve miles south of this place. Gathered on this happy occasion, among other guests, were five sons and one daughter and thirty-three grand children. It was indeed a joyful occasion and happiness prevailed throughout the day. Many wishes for the continued health, happiness and prosperity of this venerable old lady were given.

Bates & Walker are doing a big dry goods and clothing business in their store on the postoffice block, in Columbia. They are live people and propose to take the lead in the dry goods business in that city. When you go to Columbia, go to see them and you will find them clever people to deal with. The immense crowds of people handled by this popular house for the past two weeks is a splendid testimony of the bargains offered by them. Goods and pieces all new.

Teachers, parents and pupils should keep in mind the fact that a full line of the school books recently adopted by the State Board of Education are kept in stock at the Bazaar, also a full line of school supplies. Teachers should adapt themselves to the change in the text books, by using them in their schools so that the machinery will move off smoothly without any friction and while old books can be exchanged for new ones. Lead and slate pencils, pads, writing paper, pens, inks, etc., of the finest quality and the lowest prices, are always in stock.

Court of Common Pleas.

The Court of Common Pleas convened at the usual time on Monday morning with the heaviest docket for several terms, as about twenty-seven cases were announced for trial, out of about fifty-two on the jury docket.

The petit jurors were ampaneled with Q. E. Caughman, Foreman of No. 1, and C. B. Dreber, Foreman of No. 2.

The first trial was the case of Sue A. Shull against Julia A. Bradford, Mr. J. A. Muller for the plaintiff and Mr. Andrew Crawford for defendant. This was an action to recover a lot of land in town here, commonly known as the Dr. Caughman place, and the case has been pending for several years, having already been tried here and appealed to the Supreme Court.

The verdict was in favor of the plaintiff.

The next case, commenced yesterday about noon, was M. W. Wright against Southern Railway Company, a suit for $1,995 damages for personal injury, Messrs. Graham and Nelson for the plaintiff and Messrs. E. M. Thomson and W. H. Sharpe for the defendant. It will be recalled that Mr. Wright was injured about June 9th, last year, at our depot, in a collision. The testimony was closed yesterday, and today the arguments are being made, and the case will go to the jury shortly after noon.

The next case set is Mrs. Martha E. Shealy vs. New York Life Insurance Co., brought by Col. J. Brooks Wingard, on a $2,000 policy issued to her husband. On Friday will come up a case of John Campbell Bryce vs. R. W. G. Cayce and James Cayce, involving several hundred acres of land in and around Cayce.

We note the following attorneys in attendance upon court: Col. J. T. Sloan, John T. Seibles, W. H. Lyles, J. S. Muller, E. M. Thomson and Judge Andrew Crawford, of Columbia, C. L. Jones, of Charlotte, Messrs. Asbill and Strother and Messrs. Sharpe of this county.

The constables are John A. Frey, T. S. Harman, Thomas Calk and Henry Dooley and ticket boy Julius Edmond Sharpe.

Another Land Mark Removed.

In the course of human events we are called upon to chronicle with sadness the departure hence to the spirit land of some one of our friends and neighbors with whom we have been associated in one capacity or another for a long number of years.

Such an occasion is present with us at this writing. The familiar form of Mrs. Malinda Seay, relict of Mr. Levi Seay, will no longer be seen on earth, she having breathed her last at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. C. A. Gaiger, on Depot street, Monday, in the 78th year of her age. Although bowed down by the weight of years, up to the time of her last illness she was remarkably sprightly and active. She was the daughter of the late Michael Hendrix, who was one among the earliest settlers of the county, and was a resident of this county all her life, with the exception, perhaps, of a few short intervals after her marriage.

By her death a land mark of Lexington has been removed and a link which connected the old town with the new has been broken and we are left to mourn her departure.

She was interred in St. Stephen's cemetery yesterday afternoon and her remains now rest beside those of her husband.

To the Public.

We have engaged the Ogarta & Hatfield Company to appear in Roof's Hall next Tuesday and Wednesday nights, (March 5th and 6th), giving them a fixed price, whether the house is full or not. We have a written guarantee from the manager wherein he forfeits all claim upon us if the entertainment is not first class in every particular, and entirely satisfactory to us and those who attend. Upon this we offer the people the guarantee. The entertainment will be refined and free from horse play and vulgarity—in fact just a little higher class than anything Lexington has had.

S. J. Leaphart, S. P. Roof.

A Fatal Accident.

A fatal accident occurred week before last in the Edisto section of this county, of which we have just been informed. Our information is that the little son of Mr. W. Q. Jackson went home from school to spend the night with his little friend, the son of Mr. Bea Red. Mr. Red, on returning home, laid his rifle, a sixteen shooter, on a bench. The boys picked up the rifle and began to play with it, and in some way the rifle discharged while in the hands of young Red, the ball entering the body of little Jackson. The little fellow died the second day after receiving the wound. The boys were between seven and nine years of age. The stricken parents of both have the sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement over this sad tragedy.

The Death of Mr. J. G. Zenker.

Mr. John Gabriel Zenker died at his home in this county on February 20th, 1901, in the 87th year of his age, and was buried in the family burying ground at his home. He was a native of Germany, but settled in this county many years ago, where he has since resided, making an useful, frugal and industrious citizen greatly beloved and esteemed for his many sterling qualities of head and heart, and his death is lamented by a host of relatives and friends, who sincerely mourn his departure. He leaves a wife and several children, among them being Mr. John G. Zenker, who resides a few miles from this place.

Mrs. Serena Black, widow of Mr. David Black, and the oldest sister of Mrs. Malinda Seay, who was buried at this place yesterday, died at her home in this county last Thursday, in the 81st year of her age, and was buried in the family burying ground on Friday. She had the reputation of being an estimable lady and her long life was spent in useful employment. She was a consistent Christian and lived faithfully up to the ordinances of the church with which she connected herself. In the belief of a glorious resurrection and a life beyond the dark shadows of the grave she lived and in that faith she died. Peace be to her ashes.

Notice to Music Students.

I am now ready to instruct students in vocal music and those churches in need of my services will please organize their singing classes as early as possible, as I will not teach longer than July 1st, as the weather will be too hot.

A New Post Office

A post office has been established at Adair, in this county, with Mr. R. A. Burr as postmaster. The mail for this office is distributed from Lewisdale Mondays and Tuesdays.

An effort is being made to have an office on this route established at Shiloh church. This office will be a great convenience to the people of that section for as it is now they are almost entirely without mail facilities. We trust that the effort will be successful and the people will be given that for what they have asked of the post office authorities.
