

The Lexington Dispatch
G. M. HARMAN, Editor and Publisher.
LEXINGTON, S. C.
WEDNESDAY, MARCH 6, 1901.

Hon. Abraham Geiger.
To the Editor of the Dispatch:

The subject of this sketch who was born about the close of the Revolutionary War was among the more prominent and influential members of the distinguished Geiger family.

His father, John Geiger, was a gallant soldier in the Continental army, and his mother, the accomplished Miss Mary Ann Murph, a daughter of a Swiss gentleman of that name, and a sister of Emily Murph who was the mother of the heroine Emily Geiger.

It is told of this venerable lady that at eighty-one she would mount her horse and ride with the grace and elegance of a young girl. A true story of the life of Abraham Geiger involves that of one of the most noted and charming ladies who has ever lived in Lexington.

Dorothy ("Dolly") Kinsler was the daughter of Hon. Johannes Kinsler, a distinguished American officer, who was killed from ambush, by a noted Tory, while at home on furlough, suffering from a wound received at Fish Dam Ford, on November 12th, 1780.

He held an infant in his arms when he was shot and fell. Whether or not this was "Dolly" is not told, but it is not impossible as she was living seventy-seven years after this occurrence and must have been very young at that time.

Mrs. Kinsler subsequently married Capt. Gabriel Friday who was distinguished for his gallantry as an American officer; and she lived, died and is buried at the old homestead at Nellie's springs, near the old Saluda Factory.

Here Dolly grew to womanhood and was remarkable for her beauty, grace and elegance, and above all for her amiable and lovable disposition, which characterized her throughout her subsequent life.

Major Jacob Herman Geiger who was also a brave officer in the army, married first Miss Caroline Beard, and after her death near the close of the century, won the heart and hand of Miss Dolly, and on December the 25th, (Christmas day) 1799, they were united in marriage.

Major Geiger died some two years later and on the 24th day of October, 1802, his widow was married to Mr. Abraham Geiger, the subject of this paper.

Mrs. Geiger lived until 1857, loved and honored by a large circle of relatives and friends. There are those now living who remember well her loveliness of character, her benevolence and charitableness to those who were poor at deserving.

The venerable Mrs. Zunker, now nearly fourscore, lived near her here for many years and speaks still with enthusiasm of her splendid munificence, and her untiring care for the distressed and sorrowing. She died in Columbia, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Neuffer, and was buried beside her second husband, in the family cemetery, near Savannah Hunt, in Lexington.

Abraham Geiger had suffered from a virulent attack of smallpox in his childhood, and had lost one of the bones of his forearm which rendered him a cripple, and for this reason he received special care and training and was well equipped for life.

He was for a time a useful and influential member of the House of Representatives and also had the honor of founding the celebrated Platt Springs Academy, which was for many years one of the finest schools in the State, at which many of the more prominent citizens were trained and educated.

He was a fluent writer and furnished the press with many valuable papers on Agriculture, Horticulture, Sheep Husbandry and Kindred Subjects. He was one of the largest land holders and cotton planters of his day, and it is believed that he operated the first cotton gin and old style screw cotton compress ever constructed in Lexington county, on his Dry Fork farm near Gaston, now owned by Mr. W. B. Fallaw.

Mr. Geiger owned large herds of cattle and sheep and wrote to Germany and brought over Mr. Gottlieb Zunker, a trained shepherd, with blooded sheppard dogs, to care for his extensive interests. He had previously moved to his place Charles Norman, an honest industrious German Immigrant, who died in a year or two after he came; and his widow received as a gift from Mr. Geiger, the home at which she lived here.

If the Baby is Cutting Teeth Be sure and use that old and well tried remedy, Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle. It is the best of all.

became so enamored with the bride's young sister that he asked and obtained consent to an immediate union and there was a double wedding. Both couples were happy and prosperous and their descendants are among our best citizens.

Among those who purchased homes on easy terms from Mr. Geiger were the elder Bughman's, Sphaler's and Richter's, who are still represented here by descendants who are reflecting credit on an honorable ancestry.

Among the pioneers in cotton planting Mr. Geiger engaged extensively, also in grape culture, and at his old home "Poor Hope," some three miles west of Gaston, in addition to a comfortable dwelling, he constructed a stone building with subterranean apartments in which he stored his wines, which he produced in large quantities of fine flavors.

It was in the cellars of this building (part of which remains) that his daughter Caroline, conducted her silk raising enterprises with some success. Among his large possessions was the tract of land on which Swansea is now built, and which was inherited by his son Alexander, and was afterwards purchased (1849) by Rev. William Brooker.

Mr. Geiger was a man of strong religious convictions and habits. He constructed a house of worship on his own land and gathered his neighbors together on the Sabbath days and instructed them in the Bible. This was probably the first Sabbath school organized in Lexington.

Three sons and two daughters were born to Mr. and Mrs. Geiger. John probably died young. Henry Jacob married Miss Charlotte Kaigler, daughter of John Kaigler, of Sandy Run. John A. Geiger and Mrs. J. A. Wolfe were among his children, as was Mrs. Isabelle Patrick, of Bamberg, who survives.

Alexander never married. He moved to Alabama in 1850, carrying his slaves with him, and died there after the close of the Civil War. Elizabeth married a Mr. Weston and moved west, where her descendants still live.

Caroline married Mr. Neuffer, of Columbia, and left no children. Mr. Geiger died at his home in Platt Springs about three miles west of where Gaston now is. He was the victim of a diseased heart and was attended in his last illness by Dr. Hearth, who resided on Cedar creek. Among the family relics is the King's seal, which was attached to his father's last grant and also an old style pair of nippers, which were used for pruning trees.

But the heritage of which his family descendants are proudest is found in the memory of his spotless life and his deeds of charity and benevolence. He was one of the land marks of a glorious past and his honored name and splendid achievements ought not to be forgotten. W. T. B.

POSTSCRIPT. While waiting for delayed material for the promised sketch of Mr. Meetz, I have written the story of the life of one of our more prominent men of the earlier half of the last century.

I hope to be able to preserve the name and labors of many of our useful men and women of the past. Other papers will follow from time to time as the facts are learned and arranged. W. T. Brooker. Swansea, S. C., February 22, 1901.

Remarkable Cures of Rheumatism. From the Vindicator, Rutherfordton, N. C. The editor of the Vindicator has had occasion to test the efficacy of Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice with the most remarkable results in each case.

First, with rheumatism in the shoulder from which he suffered excruciating pain for ten days, which was relieved with two applications of Pain Balm, rubbing the parts afflicted and realizing instant benefit and entire relief in a very short time.

Second, in rheumatism in thigh joint, almost prostrating him with severe pain, which was relieved by two applications, with the liniment on retiring at night, and getting up free from pain. For sale by J. E. Kaufmann.

Killed by Whitecaps. Burroughs, Ga., Feb. 28.—Last night John Moody, colored, was shot and hanged until he was dead by whitecaps in the country near here. At the same time another negro, whose name cannot be learned, was beaten severely with buggy traces and sticks. He may die. So far as can be learned the trouble arose from the fact that the negroes had run away from contract labor after having got into debt.

White Man Lynched. Scranton, Miss., Feb. 27.—The body of John Knox, white, is hanging from a tree here today. He was lynched by the murder of Bon Davis, by a mob of a hundred men fully armed, who caught and bound the sheriff and battered open the jail door.

Our Legation to be Reduced. Washington, March 1.—Carrying out the policy inaugurated by the State department when it changed its military force in China into a legation guard, the war department has sent orders to Gen. Chaffee to still further reduce his force. The general has now under his command about 1,800 men composed of troops I. K. L. and M. Sixth United States cavalry, Battery F Fifth artillery, and the Ninth infantry.

Considerable discretion was left to Gen. Chaffee in the election of the troops to remain and it is assumed at the department that the Pekin dispatches announcing that these consist of two companies of the Ninth infantry under Maj. Robertson, is correct. If the other powers represented at Pekin can be induced to follow this policy, it is hoped that a long step will have been effected toward the restoration of normal conditions at Pekin.

It is believed at the war department that the troops cannot be brought away from Pekin before the ice is cleared out of the Pei river which is usually late in March. The troops are to go to Manila, to replace volunteers.

It is understood that the war department that Gen. Chaffee who will leave Pekin with these troops is to relieve Gen. MacArthur of the supreme command in the Philippines.

A Good Cough Medicine for Children. "I have no hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says F. P. Moran, a well known and popular baker, of Petersburg, Va. "We have given it to our children when troubled with bad coughs, also whooping cough, and it has always given perfect satisfaction. It was recommended to me by a druggist as the best cough medicine for children as it contained no opium or other harmful drug." Sold by J. E. Kaufmann.

Separate Towels for Children. Two or more children should not be permitted to use the same towel. Each child should have a separate one and be taught to regard it as personal property. Towels may be bought with initials woven in them, which makes it easy for the owner to distinguish his own. Diseases of the eye and skin diseases are easily communicated by the indiscriminate use of the same towel by different persons. If carefulness in this matter be inculcated in childhood, it may save much suffering.

To Cure a Cold in One Day. Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c. Soap as a Germ Killer. It has been shown by Koch and others that soap is a microbicide, or germ killer, and, according to Professor Serafini, soda or potash soap is quite a good disinfectant, not only because of the alkali, but the combination itself.

Heating the water favors the effect. Resinous soaps are not the best disinfectants. Mercapic soap is very good. A solution of 3 or 4 per cent kills the most resisting microbes. The Best Prescription for Malaria, Chills and Fever is a bottle of Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure—no pay. Price 50 cents.

Never Impatient. About this time there came a small-pox scare in the land of Uz, and the physicians were sent around to vaccinate the people. In due course of time they came to the house of Job.

Now Job was the most patient man in the settlement, and instead of pleading that he had troubles of his own—as indeed he had at the time—he gave orders that they be admitted. "Job," they said, stepping up to his bedside, "we have come to vaccinate you."

"Go ahead, gentlemen," he said, "if you can find a place." Thousands Sent Into Exile. Every year a large number of poor sufferers whose lungs are sore and racked with coughs are urged to go to another climate. But this is costly and not always sure.

Don't be an exile when Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption will cure you at home. It's the most infallible medicine for Coughs, Colds, and all Throat and Lung diseases on earth. The first dose brings relief. Astounding cures result from persistent use. Trial bottles free at J. E. Kaufmann's. Price 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

GERMAN KALI WORKS, 67 Nassau St., New York. He'd Sooner Walk.

At a funeral sometime ago two old men, after a long discussion on the good qualities of the deceased, turned their conversation to the dilapidated appearance of the hearse which bore the remains of "poor Con Can-way" to their last resting place.

"Well, now, Mickey," said one to the other earnestly, "I wonder greatly at Bobby to put her husband in that old hearse." "Aye, troth, you're right there, Pat," answered his companion, absent-mindedly. "Sure, I'd sooner walk than be seen going to my grave in that old yoke."

Obituary. Uzel Lee departed this transitory life on the 19th day of Jan. 1901, in the 66th year of his age, he having been born September 11th, 1836. He was married to Miss Carrie E. R. Hare on October 20, 1859. A few years ago he connected himself with the Baptist church and lived a consistent Godly life and entered into rest in the full hope of an immortal life beyond the confines of the grave. He was a good man and faithfully discharged all of his duties.

Food Changed To Poison. Purifying food in the intestines produces effects like those of arsenic, but Dr. King's New Life Pills expel the poisons from clogged bowels, gently, easily but surely, curing Constipation, Biliousness, Sick headache, Fevers, all Liver, Kidney and Bowel troubles. Only 25c. at J. E. Kaufmann's.

His Horse Fell on Him. Mr. Samuel Harman, quite an old man, was riding along the public road near Paedlet, S. C., on Feb. 26, riding an old family horse, when the horse fell throwing the rider in a gully and falling on top of him, mashing and smothering him to death before aid could reach him. Mr. Harman was near eighty years old and the horse about thirty.

Stops the Cough and Works off the Cold. Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No Cure, No Pay. Price 25 cents.

Will Sue for Damages. Property owners along the Seaboard Air Line railroad cut on Lincoln street in Columbia, will enter suit against the road on account of alleged injury done to their property by reason of the cut. It is said that about twenty-five suits will be entered against the company for various amounts.
