A Home Wedding.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

The residence of Mr. J. Archie Wolfe, in Lexington county, was the scene on December 5th, 1901, of a pretty home wedding, Mr. Herbert L. Geiger, of Orangeburg county, and Miss Leola Bell Wolfe, of Lexington county, being the contracting parties.

The weather was not ideal, threatening clouds darkening the sky, and appearing in marked contrast to the happy event which had occasioned the assembling on that day of many relatives and friends.

To the strains of Mendelssobn's Wedding March, rendered by Mrs. W. W. Hawes, the happy couple walked into the beautifully decorated parlor, where Rev. S W. Henry, assisted by Rev. R. E. Livingstone, pronounced the simple words that made them one for life.

The bride was beautifully attired in white organdie, elaborately trimmed with satin ribbon; and carrying a bridal bouquet of white carnations and ferns she presented an appearance of equisite loveliness and beauty.

After the bride and groom had received the congratulations and good wishes of those who were present, all were invited out to a dinner befitting in every way the splendid occasion.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Archie Wolfe, and is deservedly popular. By her accomplishments, kindly spirit and pleasing manner she has gathered about her a circle of friends who will felicitate Mr. Geiger on his good fortune.

The groom is a son of Dr. and Mrs. Frank J. Geiger, of Orangeburg county, and is one of the county's most energetic and enterprising young farmers.

The numerous handsome presents received attest the high esteem in which "these twain" are held. May heaven's blessings attend them.

SENATORS WILL RESIGN.

Gaffney Incident Repeated on the Floor of the Senate.

After the usual preliminary busi ness in the Senate on Mondy of last week, which included the presentation of inumerous petitions, memo rials, bills an | joint resolutions, Mr. Gallinger, of New Hampshire, asked for a reprint of the document relating to ecclesiastical holdings in the Philippines. He said there was a great public demand for this publication. The reprint was ordered.

Mr. Hoar, of Massachusetts, presented a joint resolution authorizing the President to open negotiations with civilize nations for the purpose of confining persons of attempting the lives of Chief Magistrates.

A resolution appropriating $75,000 for transporting and the installation of a government exhibit at the Charleston exhibition was passed.

Mr. McLaurin, of South Carolina, made a speech in the Senate defining his position in South Carolina and discussing the campaign in that State, as well as his position regarding Federal patronage in South Carolina and his relationship with it. He said the campaign against him had been one of culumny, vituperation and misrepresention. As to the appointments in the State he sought to have Democrats appointed, and where this could not be accomplished he tried to have such Republicans selected as would give satisfaction to the people. He did not want the crime of burning a postmaster repeated in his State.

Mr. McLaurin said the movement against him in the Democratic party was to keep alive sectionalism. Speaking of his views on the tariff, he said that Samuel J. Randall was a protectionist; Hancock said the tariff was a local issue, and David B. Hill opposed the income tax, but none of them had been read out of the Democratic party.

Mr. Jones, of Arkansas, denied some of the statements made by Mr. McLaurin, especially so far as they indicated that he (Jones) had any ulterior motives in the action he took regarding Mr. McLiurin's connection with the Democratic party.

Mr. Tillman replied to Mr. Mc-Laurin, denying there was a conspiracy against him. Mr. Tillman referred to the resignations of the Senators of South Carolina and their subsequent withdrawals.

Mr. Hoar referred to this fact and said he did not understand how resignations could be withdrawn.

Mr. Tillman said he would be glad to have the judiciary committee investigate the matter and the Senate declare both seats from Soth Carolina vacant "so that we could wash our dirty linen elsewhere."

Mr. Tillman immediately offered to sign with Mr. McLaurin a resignation and send it to "that man," pointing to President Pro Tem. Frye, "and that would settle it." Mr. Tillman said he did not want the vote of South Carolina divided and would be willing to go before the people with McLaurin on his "new fangled

Mr. Hoar again asserted that upon the statement of the Senators from South Carolina he did not believe that either of them were entitled to seats on the floor.

Mr. Tillman said he was glad to find his own opinion backed up by the distinguished chairman of the judiciary committee. He did not believe the Governor had anything to do with the matter and could not rethought the committee on privileges and elections should inquire into the whole case.

At this point Mr. Lodge, of Massachusetts, secured recognition and said: "While these resignations are preparing I move the Senate to proceed to the consideration of executive business," and the motion was carried amidst of a laugh at the expense of the South Carolina Senators.

Wise and Otherwise.

A Good Cough Medicine.

From the Gazette, Toowoomba, Australia. I find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is an excellent medicine. I have been suffering from a severe cough for the last two months, and it has effected a cure. I have great pleasure in recommending it .- W. C. Wockner. This is the opinion of one of our oldest and most respected residents, and has been voluntarily given in good faith that others may try the remedy and be benefited, as was Mr. Wockner. This remedy is sold by J. E. Kaufmann.

The Truth.

A hundred things happen every week that the newspaper man never sees. He does the best he can, keeps his eyes and ears open, but he is only a human being and neither cmniscent nor omnipresent. You often wonder why this or that was not published; and maybe you say news papers have their favorites. A local newspaper does its best to give all news and will gladly publish any item of general interest. But before you censure be certain that you have done your part. Either send the news to the office or invite a reporter to come where the news is.

"Hard Times."

Laurens Advertiser.

Nobody can explain this periodical cry. Now and then things tighten the purse strings tighten, and money is alleged to be scarce, and yet nobody can explain or tell the reason why. The usual remedy-economynecessarily enhances the difficulty, and makes matters worse. When nobody buys and nobody lends of course there is paralysis, and business is stagnant. When times get better and easier and confidence is restored the reason is still hard to find, the solution difficult. This seems to be the situation at the South at this juncture with no particular reason to be assigned. There is one way however to partially relieve conditions. It may not always be convenient to pay large debts or to pay all small debts. But things can be kept alive and moving by every man paying as far as he can. A merchant having a hundred claims of a hundred dollars each if he is receiving daily ten, twenty five and fifty per cent. of them, can keep up his bank credit, keep his business alive, and accommodate his customers with credit. And so with every line of business. When the cry of hard times comes then let every man who can, help to relieve the situation -it is no time to retreat to the cellar when the cry of fire fills the air.

One Minute Cough Cure affords immediate relief for coughs, colds and bles. For croup it is unequalled. Absolutely safe. Very pleasant to ite with the children. They like it. J. E. Kaufmann.

Serjeant Jasper's Flag.

An effort is being made by the South Carolina Daughters of the Revolution to have the flag of Sergeant Jasper, which is now in the Tower of London, returned to the State. This is not the flag that made him famous at Fort Moultrie, but was one given the Second South Carolina by Miss Elliott, which he lost his life in defending at Savannah, Ga., in 1779.
