

Crocker for Schley.

Richard Crocker, the Tammany Boss, is of the opinion that Schley is all right, and that the sympathies of the American people are with the Hero of Santiago. This seems to be the unanimous opinion of all classes of people except the clique dominated by Crownshield, Sampson & Co., and its devotees. The time will yet come when these men will be unmasked by the light of truth and outraged justice will be swift to overtake them.

How's This?

The Shoe Pinches.

The six Democratic Congressmen from Louisiana have declared their intention to vote for the Philippine tariff bill, a Republican measure. It is now in order for the disgruntled Democrats of that State to raise the doleful tune of "Republicanism," but they won't do it for Louisiana is pretty solid for it because her sugar interest is threatened. In politics, as in everything else, it does matter after all those shoe pinches.

Saved His Life.

"I wish to say that I feel I owe my life to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure," writes H. C. Chrestenson, of Hayfield, Minn. "For three years I was troubled with dyspepsia so that I could hold nothing on my stomach. Many times I would be unable to retain a morsel of food. Finally I was confined to my bed. Doctors said I could not live. I read one of your advertisements on Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and thought it fit my case and commenced its use. I began to improve from the first bottle. Now I am cured and recommend it to all." Digests your food. Cures all stomach troubles. J. E. Kaufmann.

"I Yam."

It is now proper for a young man to call his sweetheart a potato instead of a peach. Although the potato has not the creamy skin of the peach, it is dearer by far, and is improved by mashing. If you want to make a killing remark ask her if she is your sweet potato, and as she deposits the silky tresses on your manly bosom, you will hear the softest, sweetest voice answer, "I yam."

Of Benefit to You.

D. S. Mitchell, Fulford, Md.: "During a long illness I was troubled with bed sores, was advised to try DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve and did so with wonderful results. I was perfectly cured. It is the best salve on the market." Sure cure for piles, sores, burns. Beware of counterfeits. J. E. Kaufmann.

The Just View.

Columbia Evening Record. Every United States Senator is entitled to assignment to duty upon one or more of the committees of the Senate. These assignments are practically dictated by the majority party in that body, as the committees are elected, and the majority has the power to elect such committees as it pleases. The custom is for the majority at the beginning of each session to make a pro rata division of the committee places, informing the minority party, or parties, what places are at its, or their, disposal. This was done at the beginning of this session by the Republicans, as they were in a majority in the Senate. They informed the Democrats what committee places they would be permitted to divide among themselves. For facilitating this division, and other purposes, the Democratic Senators organize a caucus, which is a voluntary association without party authority. Those who dominate this caucus do not like Senator McLaurin's independent determination to vote for whatever he considers best for the country, regardless of whether it be labeled Democratic or Republican. They intimated that they did not wish to assign him to committee places given them by the Republicans. The result is that the Republican majority gave Senator McLaurin his committee places direct, instead of through the Democratic caucus. It is true that McLaurin got his committee places from the Republican majority, but so did all the other Democratic senators. Papers opposed to him, however, refuse to let their constituents see this just and true view of the matter and persist in trying to make their readers believe McLaurin is a Republican because he is too big to bow to caucus bossism.

An Evangelist's Story.

"I suffered for years with a bronchial or lung trouble and tried various remedies but did not obtain permanent relief until I commenced using One Minute Cough Cure," writes Rev. James Kirkland, evangelist, of Belle River, Ill. "I have no hesitation in recommending it to all sufferers from maladies of this kind." One Minute Cough Cure affords immediate relief for coughs, colds and all kinds of throat and lung troubles. For croup it is unequalled. Absolutely safe. Very pleasant to take, never fails and is really a favorite with the children. They like it. J. E. Kaufmann.

Will Not Get a Pardon.

The case of William Thompson, a convict, has been mentioned in connection with a pardon. Though the Governor was favorable to granting the pardon on the showing made by the applicant for the pardon, yet further investigation show that there are so many warrants on the same charge against the prisoner that the pardon will not be granted.

Sometimes a man is judged by his appearance and sometimes by his disappearance.

Respectability may be contagious, but folk can't always catch it when they want it.

HOUSEWORK

Too much housework wrecks women's nerves. And the constant care of children, day and night, is often too trying for even a strong woman. A haggard face tells the story of the overworked housewife and mother. Deranged menses, leucorrhoea and falling of the womb result from overwork. Every housewife needs a remedy to regulate her menses and to keep her sensitive female organs in perfect condition.

WINE OF CARDUI

is doing this for thousands of American women to-day. It cured Mrs. Jones and that is why she writes this frank letter:

Glendale, Ky., Feb. 10, 1901. I am so glad that your Wine of Cardui is helping me. I had feeling better than I have felt for years. I am doing my own work without any help, and I washed last week and was not one bit tired. That shows that the Wine is doing me good. I am getting fresher than I ever was before, and sleep good and hearty. Before I began taking Wine of Cardui, I used to have to lay down five or six times every day, but now I do not think of lying down through the day.
