Is it Discrimination?

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

With your permission, we would like, in this public way, to ask the proper ones whether there is an intentional discrimination against certain places in the use of the chain gang? With the light in possession of the writer, there appears to be, though just reasons may be given to convince him to the contrary. If such be the case, this is written simply to find out these reasons, as in every case, he has failed to do so in any other way. We have hesitated long, since the inquiry might be construed as a criticism of our public officials. Such is not the case. We think well of them and want to continue so to do, but the best feeling can be maintained by the information desired. From White Rock to the Spring Hill road is a stretch of road, only about a mile long, that needs the chain gang as badly as any we know of in the Fork. It is through woods, and is low and marshy. The road bed is low, and the soil easily cuts. Heavy cross-tie and wood wagons constantly travel the road. As a consequence in winter it is at times about past traveling. People going to and from churches are put to much inconvenience. The road hands work it about as well as any of the roads in our community. We have petitioned the proper authorities to have the chain gang put the road in good repair. Our request has not been granted. The gang recently passed right by this road. They have worked a road in the Summerville community, which is used only for settlement purposes, and comparatively little at that. They have worked a road to a neighboring community twice. We are glad of this, but do not think it right that ours is not worked at all. We ask, as we did at first, is there intentional discrimination against us?

White Rock, S. C., Jan. 6, 1902.

People Believe In It.

It has been cynically said that anything can be sold by advertising now-a-days. This is not so. Many liniments have been advertised but only one—Perry Davis' Painkiller—has stood the test of sixty year use. Today its popularity is greater than ever and is based not upon what anybody says but upon what the remedy does. There is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis'.

P. C. I. Notes.

The students of Palmetto Collegiate Institute have returned from vacation and are now hard down at their studies again.

Now is a good time for parents who intend sending their children to the Institute this session to place them in as the middle term is about to close when new classes will be formed.

Mr. J. B. Nunnamaker, of Columbia, but formerly of Swansea, has decided to move to Lexington to engage in saw milling. He has come to send his children to the Institute. He will occupy the cottage of Mr. James E. Rawl on Main street.

Rev. W. E. Barre, the Methodist minister assigned to this circuit, has moved into the parsonage and is zealously engaged in the Master's cause. He has entered his daughter, Edna, and his son, Olin, in the Institute.

It is gratifying to all in Lexington to see so many students from abroad coming to the Institute.

Information that Miss Lillian Rawl, of Fairfield, intends coming to the Institute has been received and that her sister will follow some time later.

Mr. John Gregory, of New Brookland, is preparing to send his daughter to the Institute.

The mid-term examinations of the Institute will be held on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week. January 6, 1902. P.

News from Selma.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

The health of the community is very good at present with the exception of one or two cases of sickness. Mr. Alex Daily, one of our oldest citizens, is very feeble. We are glad to know that Miss Estelle Fulmer is improving.

Mr. Gatlin Ellisor spent a few days last week with his mother, Mrs. N. L. Ellisor.

Miss Mattie Eleazer and Miss Brown, of Columbia, spent the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Eleazer.

Mr. J. Wm. Haltiwanger, vice-principal of the Rowland High School, Rowland, N. C., was home for a few days last week.

Miss Mammie Haltiwanger is spending some time at Edgefield with her brother, Mr. E. G. Haltiwanger.

Mrs. Ellen Ellisor and daughter, Miss Fannie, were the guests of Mrs. H. E. Amick last Wednesday afternoon.

The severe cold weather has seriously injured the oat crop.

Death of Frank Hyler.

Frank Hyler, a faithful servant in the Hyler family, died on December 9th, 1901, after a long and honorable life. By his industry and frugality he was successful in his business undertakings and was enabled to lay by quite a competency to maintain him when old age and the rainy days came. He was born April 16, 1808 and was the father of seven children, four of whom survive him. He enjoyed the respect of his white acquaintances as well as that of his colored friends. Now he rests in peace.

Marriage at Swansea.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

The marriage epidemic has struck Swansea, too.

On Thursday Dec. 26, Mr. Bryant Myers and Miss Annie Lauria Poston, youngest daughter of Rev. F. H. Poston, the beloved pastor of Swansea Baptist church, were married in the Baptist church by the bride's father.

The church was beautifully decorated with evergreens and pot plants. Mrs. F. M. Hodge presided at the organ.

The bride is popular among her many friends and we all hate to see her leave. She was dressed in a beautiful grey traveling suit.

The groom is a salesman for the Atlantic Coast Lumber Company, of Georgetown. The happy couple left for their home on the 9:15 evening train via Columbia and on their way to Georgetown they stopped several days at the home of the groom's parents at Kingstree. J. R. L. Jan 6, 1902.

Thor Dots.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

Mr. C. Q. Spire lost his infant daughter a few days ago. The trouble being membranous croup. Our Dr. Kneese, who attended it, pronounced the case a hopeless one from the start, though with his skill gave all the aid that was possible. The God, who gave it, says, "suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not for such is the kingdom of heaven," so kind parents, weep not for your loss is her gain. Remind yourself of the patience of Job, the Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away, blessed be the name of the Lord.

Well, the people of our community passed the holidays in a quiet way this year. The lambs and lions lay down in peace.

Mr. Editor, the people have about got used to the cry of hard times and are giving thought for the next crop.

Candidates are looming up. I expect Gen. Green and the candidates will give us trouble this year again, all asking the sympathy of the horny handed farmer.

So So.

Mad Dogs Roaming.

Mad dogs are said to be running amuck in the neighborhood of Mr. Quincy Berley. Chickens and other poultry have been destroyed in large numbers by the ravages of these wild quadrupeds, but we have heard of only one person who has been bitten by one of these alleged mad dogs. One morning Mrs. Ban B. Swygert, hearing an unusual noise in her fowl house, went out to investigate and found a dog in it. The dog, in making its escape, bit Mrs. Swygert on the ankle. The next day she was taken by her husband to a specialist, who applied the usual remedies and she is now doing as well as could be expected from the bite and the shock to her nervous system. There has been a wholesale slaughter of dogs in that neighborhood.
