Masonic.

Last night marked a red letter meeting of Lexington Lodge, No. 152, A. F. M., in point of attendance and the work accomplished. The work was in the Master Mason degree and the occasion was the elevation of a candidate from Fellow Craftsman to a Master Mason. District Deputy Grand Master Giles, of Graniteville, being present rendered valuable assistance in the initiation ceremonies which made them impressive and sublime. Orlando Sheppard, Past Grand Master, was present and his lecture to the candidate was impressive, full of wisdom and very instructive. There were quite a large number of visiting brethren present whose presence were greatly appreciated by the lodge. Judge Buchanan made a few timely remarks under the head of the "good of the order," which were very encouraging and interesting.
