JOHNSTONE FOR THE SENATE.

Conceded By All That He Will Be In Second Race.

He Has Steadily Gained in the Campaign Now About to Close—Something of the Life of this Remarkable Man, Who, by Ability of Highest Order, Has Forged so Rapidly to the Front.

The purpose of our Democratic primary is to give the people an opportunity to judge for themselves of the character, ability and fitness of those aspiring to position, so that the voter may be able to cast his ballot intelligently.

In the convass now about to close in the State for the United States Senatorship, there are practically no difference in platform. The question to be decided by the people is that of personal fitness. Who of the six, aspiring to this position, is most capable of representing South Carolina in the United States Senate with credit to himself and honor to his State?

There is no doubt that since the canvass began, George Johnstone, of Newberry, has gained remarkable strength and made most favorable impressions on the voters. In fact it is conceded that all of the candidates, he has gained most, this being admitted on all hands.

It may be well to inquire into the record and to study something of the life of this man, who, by sheer force of character and ability of the highest order, has forged so rapidly to the front.

George Johnstone is a son of the late Chancellor Job Johnstone, whose opinions rank in literary ability and legal erudition with those of the greatest chancellors and judges the State has ever produced. The son has inherited in great measure the intellect of the father and that intellect has had the advantage of thorough training in the best schools of this country and Europe.

In 1877 he was elected to the Legislature, in which body he served for eight successive years, retiring voluntarily.

In 1890 he was elected to congress from the Third District. He was chairman of the committee on Privileges and Elections, from which Mr. Crisp was elected speaker, and Mr. Johnstone was one to whom Mr. Crisp looked constantly for assistance.

No man can show a cleaner record. Few can show a more remarkable record. No man has sought more to do what he could in the interest of and for the welfare of his people. In times like these there is a demand for men, not time servers; statesmen, not politicians. There are momentous questions to be settled, and above all do we need men who are able to grapple with these questions in the National Congress, and to do so intelligently and with a wisdom and foresight born of the statesman. The people of the State are now in the enjoyment of heir sober judgment, they are not torn by party strife and factional feeling. The appeal is made to this sober judgment in the selection they will be called upon to make for the highest office in their gift. It is their duty to measure up the candidates by the standard which every true Caroliaion should set for such a position; character, fitness, intellect, ability to stand up shoulder to shoulder, arm to arm, hand to hand, intellect to intellect, with any member of that body.

The friends of Col. Johnstone have never considered him a politician, and do not now press his claims on that ground, but rather as a broadminded statesman who is able to grapple with the questions of the day and meet the issues and solve them intelligently; one who has always stood for the people's interests and those principles he believed to be right and just, though for the time they may not have been popular.

In his old congressional district (Third) he received an ovation at each

In the beginning of this article, it the State begun, George Johnstone has gained much more rapidly than any of his competitors, and it is absolutely certain that he will be in the second race with one of them, and that he will lead in the first primary

The following are only a few of the many opinions which have been expressed by the newspapers of the State, and are confirmation of what is said above:

"The man who made the most votes by this trip was Col. George Johnstone of Newberry. Every one fell in love with him, and he made many friends here."-Georgetown Times.

"The self-reliant political faith of Johnstone, clean cut and true to Democratic principles, without fancy trimmings or demagogic catches and withal the conviction that here is a man who would represent South Caro lina according to the dictates of his own conscience, rather than the understudy of another, have made strong impression on the people among whom he has appeared. He is in the front rank of Senatorial possibilities, and there is only bright promise to South Carolina in such a prospect."—Charleston Evening Post.

"Col. George Johnstone from all reports has made a splendid record. His speeches are clear, logical, to the point and easily understood by the people generally."-From the Press.

"The newapapers seem to agree that of all the Senatorial candidates Col. George Johnstone is making the best headway at the meetings. And this is true. Col. Johnstone's speeches are bound to make a fine impression on all who hear them, as they are the utterances of a statesman—one who has gone to the bottom of public questions."-Sumter Herald.

"Not only the newspapers, but the other Seratorial candidiates, say that of all their competitors, Col. George Johnstone has made the most headway, and that he is the man that they have individually to best. In other vords, each candidate figures it out that the race lies between himself and Col. Johnstone. This condition can be explained in but one way. It has been brought about by the sheer ability of the man. Wherever he has appeared he has won distinction. His speeches in some cases have wrung approbation from those who otherwise would have gone over bag and baggage to some other fellow without thinking. Col Johnstone, as the Herald says, is statesman-one who has gone to the bottom of public questions. He knows things and if elected to the United States Senate, he would be able at once to take rank with the men in the socalied 'inner circle' of the Senate, composed of such men as Spooner, Platt of Connecticut, Allison and a few others from the Republicans, and welcomed into fellowship by Democrats like Morgan of Alabama, Bacon of Georgia and others. He is able to place his beloved State, for he does love SouthCarolina, in the position she has occupied in public life. South Carolina should send statesmen, not politicians, to the United States Senate. Col. Johnstone is a statesmen, and an able one at that."—Greenwood Index.

Women and Jewels.

Jewels, candy, flowers, man-that is the order of a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insiduous consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get this reliable remedy at Kaufmann's drug store. Get Green's Special Almanac.

A Simple Change.

The little daughter of the house watched the minister who was making a visit very closely and finally sat down beside him and began to draw or her slate.

"What are you doing?" asked the clergyman.

"I'm making your picture," said the child.

The minister sat very still, and the child worked away earnestly. Then she stopped and compared her work with the original and shook her head.

"I don't like it much," she said. "'Tain't a great deal like you. I think I'll put a tail to it and call it a

To My Friends.

It is with joy I tell you what Kodol did for me. I was troubled with my stomach for several months. Upon being advised to use Kodol, I did so, and words cannot tell the good it has done me. A neighbor had dyspepsia so that he had tried most everything. I told him to use Kodol. Words of gratitude have come to me from him because I recommended it.—George W. Frye, Viola, Iowa. Health and strength, of mind and body, depend on the stomach, and normal activity of the digestive organs. Kodol, the great reconstructive tonic, cures all stomach and bowel troubles, indigestion, dyspepsia. Kodol digests any good food you eat. Take a dose after meals. J. E. Kaufmann.

A Boy Who Did His Duty.

A gentleman went into a fancy shop one day to buy something. It was early, and the shopkeeper's little boy and he were alone in the house. The shopkeeper had to go upstairs to get his cash box in order to procure some change, but before doing so he went into the little room next to the shop and whispered to the boy: "Watch the gentleman that he doesn't steal anything," and, bringing him out, sat him on the counter.

As soon as the shopkeeper returned the child sang out: "Pa, he didn't steal anything. I watched him."-London Tit-Bits.

Both were killed. The chauffeur became insane as a consequence of the shock.

Eczema, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum, Tetter and Acne

Belong to that class of inflammatory and disfiguring skin eruptions that cause more genuine bodily discomfort and worry than all other known diseases. The impurities or sediments which collect in the system because of poor digestion, inactive Kidneys and other organs of elimination are taken up by the blood, saturating the system with acid poisons and fluids that ooze out through the glands and pores of the skin, producing an inde-
