School Time Is Here.

The Bazaar has in stock all of the school books adopted by the State Board for use in the public schools, which are sold at the very lowest prices. You can also find at the Bazaar a full and complete line of school supplies and stationery of all kinds, such as pencils, pens, inks, tablets, and many other articles too numerous to mention. An inspection of this stock is invited. We want to again remind the public that school books are sold only for spot cash, so do not ask for credit.

Johannie Get Your Gun.

The open season to shoot game will soon be here and it behooves the sportsmen to get his gun and ammunition in proper condition. W. F. Stieglitz, the gunsmith of Columbia, informs those interested that he has a full and complete line of guns and ammunition of the best manufacture and can supply their demands at reasonable prices. An inspection of his stock is invited. He also carries a full line of fishing tackle, pocket cutlery and does all kinds of gunsmith work in the best manner and at moderate charges.

New Goods and New Prices.

The Ballentine Company informs the public that they have opened a dry goods and notion business in the Ballentine building, next door to the Kaminer Hotel. They propose to sell goods as cheap as they can be sold in Columbia or anywhere else. New goods being opened up every week. Call to see them.

Editorials and other interesting matter have been crowded out to make room for a rush of advertisements.

Arrange your plans early to attend the 34th Annual State Fair at Columbia Oct. 28th to 31st.

We received a short, but pleasant, call from Editor Hare, of Our Newsletter, of Summit, Monday.

Our friend, Curtis Hallman, "the sweet singer" and musical instructor of Summit, was in town Monday and handed us his dollar.

Our people should not forget our county fair by arranging a splendid exhibit of the products of their farms and households.

Remember, I carry a line of dry goods, notions, shoes, groceries, farm implements, harness, saddles, &c.
H. L. Oswald.

If you have anything to exhibit at the State Fair send to Secretary Holloway, at Pomaria, S. C., for a Premium list. Do not delay to do so.

My fall stock is complete in all lines and I ask my friends to remember me when sharing out their fall trade. I will take care of my customers in all business transactions.
H. L. Oswald.

Col. D J. Knotts, of Swasee, was in attendance upon court Monday and gave us a pop call, but the jingle of his dollar he left behind sounds in our ears yet.

The Mutual Carpet Co., of Columbia, announces a grand fall opening and extends a cordial invitation to Lexingtonians to visit their establishment and see the choice display of carpets, shades, rugs, matings and other useful and ornamental articles. Read their advertisement and give them a call.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Beeland, of Macon, Ga., who were visiting the family of Dr. Julian E. Kaufmann, in this place, were called home suddenly last week, by the death of Mr. Beeland's brother.

The Public Invited.

We have been requested to announce that there will be a picnic at Midway, on the barbecue grounds of Kleckley & Wingard, on Thursday, the 25th day of September, to which the public is invited. Music and dancing will be provided for the young people and Hon. A. Frank Lever will deliver an address on the topics of the day. Come one and all with well filled baskets and enjoy yourself.

Drafts, Judge of Probate in and for the County of Lexington, State of South Carolina, on the 17th day of October 1902, for a final discharge as Administrator of the Estate of Andrew Murdock and T. N. OFFICE OF D. H. HARDY, Secretary of State, ARKANSAS, Feb., Nov. 21, 1902.
I have found Dr. Moffett's TEETHINA a splendid remedy and aid for my teething children. When my oldest boy was a teething child, every succeeding day warned us that we would inevitably lose him. I happened upon TEETHINA, and began at once administering it to him, and his improvement was marked in 24 hours, and from that day on he recuperated. I have constantly kept it and used it since with my children, and have taken great pleasure in sounding its praises to all mothers of young children. I found it invaluable even after the teething period was passed.
MRS. D. H. HARDY.
