Death.

Mrs. Hulda C. Barre, who has been a resident of this town for some years, died at her home in this place last Friday after a lingering illness. The disease which terminated fatally was consumption. She was a native of Newberry county, her maiden name being Goree, and was the widow of the late W. A. Barre, of Newberry. She was about 56 years of age. During her sojourn among us she made many warm personal friends by her gentleness of spirit and uncomplaining patience and complete Christian resignation with which she bore her sufferings and calmly awaited the approach of the end. Of her immediate family, her daughter, Mrs. Alice Timmons, and grand-daughter survives her, who together with other relatives throughout the county, have the sympathy of the community. Her remains were taken to Kinard, in Newberry county, for interment, where they now sleep.

Coast Line's Mileage.

When the Coast Line secures control of the Louisville and Nashville it will altogether have 9,588 miles of road, the greatest mileage of any road in the South. The Coast Line system previously contained 4,162 miles and the Louisville 4,911. Besides these the Coast Line will control the Georgia and the West Point and Atlanta, their total mileage being 528.

No Change in "Uncle Tom."

Mixa, having escaped over the ice, joined George. "Quick! quick!" she screamed, "the bloodhounds are following the scent!" "Then why not," suggested the practical young man, try laying a half dollar on the track? Hopeful for a moment, she fumbled in her purse, but to her horror she found she had no quarter, so they immediately resumed their flight.

How He Got His Black Eye.

"Where did you get that black eye?" asked the judge. "During the race war, judge," said the tough looking individual. "Race war?" repeated the judge. "Yes, sub, out at de track. Jim said I was a lobster when I come to pickin' winners, and I jolted him in de sats. Den de crowd too sides an' all went at it."
