Has a Reputation.

There are different kinds of clothing, "good, gooder and goodest." The "goodest" kind is kept by Kinard, the old reliable clothier of Columbia. He has been in business in that city for nearly a half a century and by fair and honest dealing has built up such a reputation that he cannot afford to allow a single garment to leave his establishment under the least shadow of misrepresentation, consequently the purchaser can feel assured that the garment purchased is exactly as represented. When in the city during the State Fair be sure to purchase your suit of clothes and all kinds of gents' furnishing from Kinard.

Sale.

The personal property belonging to the estate of W. Pat Bowers, deceased, will be sold at the home place on Wednesday, November 5th, next, at 11 a. m., by Samuel B. George, the Admr.

The Place for Bargains.

M. Frank, proprietor of the "Bee Hive" store of Columbia, is offering some extraordinary inducements to wearers of good clothing. He invites the attention of the people of Lexington to his $3.90 suit window, where is shown some of the prettiest suits seen in that city. Country merchants are invited to inspect his jobbing department where their wants can be supplied at such figures as to save their money. Read his advertisement in this issue and go there for bargains in clothing and gents' furnishings.

Miss Allie Fair, daughter of Mr. H. C. Scofield, of Pelion, was in town Monday, and while here was entertained by her friend, Miss Florrie Harman.

A FACT ABOUT THE "BLUES"

What is known as the "Blues" is seldom occasioned by actual existing external conditions, but in the great majority of cases by a disordered LIVER.

THIS IS A FACT which may be demonstrated by trying a course of

Tutt's Pills

They control and regulate the LIVER. They bring hope and buoyancy to the mind. They bring health and elasticity to the body.

TAKE NO SUBSTITUTE. Every Vote is Needed.

Remember that the general election is on Tuesday, November 4th. Look up your registration certificate and pin your tax receipt to it. Both are essential to vote in the general election. If you have lost or misplaced your tax receipt for 1901, get the County Treasurer to give you a receipt that all taxes chargeable and collectable against you have been paid. Every available Democratic vote is needed to save a contest.

Obituary.

Died at Irene, October 12, 1902, Quincy, the little infant son of George Taylor and wife. As it was this little child only came into this world of sin and trouble and stayed but fifty-five days and God took him to himself. Blessed be the name of God. A. R. T.

A Strong Legal Firm.

Solicitor J. Wm. Thurmond of Edgefield, and G. Bell Timmerman of Batesburg, have formed a co-partnership for the practice of law in all its branches. This is a strong legal firm and no doubt will meet with a large measure of success. Mr. Timmerman is the resident member of the firm and those having legal business can consult him at any time at their office in the Kaufmann building. We welcome Mr. Timmerman in our midst and bespeak for him a kindly reception by our people.

The Universal Food Chopper.

Dr. J. J. Robb of Brookland, is at the County Fair showing the merits of the Universal Meat Chopper, an instrument designed to chop all kinds of meats, raw or cooked, and all kinds of fruits and vegetables into clean-cut, uniform pieces, fine or coarse as wanted without mashing, and with great rapidity. It does away with the chopping knife and bowl entirely, doing its work in one-tenth of the time and producing an absolutely uniform product. See it in operation at the fair grounds.

A Pretty Wedding.

A very pretty church wedding took place in the Baptist church in this place last Sunday, October 19th, 1902, the contracting parties being Mr. W. E. Gibbs, a popular employee of the Lexington Mfg Co., and Miss Maggie, the beautiful and charming daughter of Mr. Frank Barrett. The bride was becomingly attired in handsome gown and wore a pretty bridal veil. The attendants were dressed in the usual wedding garments. Rev. W. D. Quick, of the Methodist denomination, performed the ceremony. The church was not large enough to contain the friends of this popular young couple who had gathered to witness them launch their barque upon the stream of life and wish them a long and happy voyage. The wedding march was charmingly and sweetly rendered by Mrs. Fannie Roof, the accomplished musical directress at the Palmetto Collegiate Institute.

Offering Immense Values.

Notwithstanding the excitement incident to the approaching State Fair in Columbia, the lovely display of fashionable, dry goods, clothing, shoes and hats shown by Minnaugh surpasses even that. When in Columbia during the State Fair call at this immense department store. You will find Mr. John M. Stuart in the clothing department, Mr. Reuben Corley in the shoe, and numerous other Lexingtonians in the several other departments, who will take pleasure in showing you the immense values offered by this establishment.

Fence Ordered.

The committee having in charge the matter of securing subscriptions to put a neat and substantial iron fence around St. Stephens' cemetery in this place, held a meeting in the furniture store of Mr. Scott Hendrix last Friday afternoon. All of the members of committee made reports of the sums obtained and while the total amount reported was not as large as the committee would like, yet it was so encouraging that the committee decided to select the design, and order the fencing, trusting to the liberality of those who have had buried there to make the deficit good. It was also decided at this meeting to ask the female members of families who have loved ones sleeping in this beautiful city of the dead to form an association for the purpose of keeping the grounds in a neat and attractive appearance.

Eleven Men Killed.

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 19.—Three white men and eight negroes are reported to have been killed in a race riot at Littleton, Ala., a small town 25 miles southeast of this city tonight. The number of wounded has not yet been ascertained.

A special train carrying Sheriff Andrew W. Bergen and ten deputies left for the scene of the riot at 10 o'clock tonight.

The riot is said to have been caused by a crowd of negroes attacking a white woman who was passing over a railroad bridge en route home from a visit to a neighbor.

As soon as the white citizens of the town learned of the attack they immediately began their search for the woman's assailants. The negroes refused to deliver the woman's assailants and armed themselves to protect their leaders. When the posse arrived the negroes opened fire, killing three of the officers. The deputies returned the fire, killing eight negroes.

Owing to the large number of negroes, who outnumbered the whites ten to one, the posse was forced to retreat. The negroes are reported to be in complete possession of the town and have entrenched themselves. The negroes have captured a powder magazine, the property of a coal company, and are strongly fortified.

2 A. M.—A newspaper representative who returned from Littleton at 1 o'clock reported that the situation was serious. The following list of identified wounded has been obtained: Joe Thompson, white, shot in bowels, serious.

Ira Creol, white, missing. John Baer, negro, shot in heel. Will Toibert, negro, shot in chest, serious.

The first information of the riot received here was a telegram to Sheriff Bergen from Littleton, stating that a white man had been killed and that the negroes had armed themselves to resist all attempts at arrest. It is stated that the white woman the negroes attacked was severely injured.
