PENCIL AND SCISSORS.

Wayside Notes Gathered Here and There by a Dispatch Man.

Poverty is the reward of idleness. Never monkey with a buzz saw when it is busy.

There was considerable frost last Thursday morning.

There is a remedy for everything but death.

Liberal railroad rates to the great State Fair.

Experience and observation are our best teachers, hence the necessity to visit the next State Fair.

Judge Dantzler came over from Columbia Saturday and completed the business of the Equity cases.

When you sell your cotton remember the Dispatch with your subscription.

The friends of Mr. John D. Younginer, will doubtless be pleased to learn that he is doing well in his new home at Tate, Alabama.

J. S. Muller, Esq., a prominent member of the Columbia Bar, was in town on Friday in attendance upon the court of Equity.

Wanted—To buy a first class milch cow, at once. Apply to G. care Dispatch.

The best makes of farming implements and a general line of hardware, can be found at T. B. Aughtry & Co's., Columbia.

Mr. H. C. Scofield, a prominent and substantial citizen of Pelion, was in town Monday. His business here was to enter some exhibits in the County Fair.

People will eat and they generally want the best the market affords. For the best plantation and family supplies for the least money, go to T. B. Aughtry & Co., Columbia.

N. Swinson, a well known colored man, and a faithful and reliable employee at Saxe-Gotha Mills, died at his home in Irene last Wednesday of hemorrhages.

Dr. J. William Boozer, of Columbia, is a delegate to the South Carolina Lutheran Synod from St. Paul church in that city. The Synod will meet at Little Mountain next Friday.

Do you wish to see the progress the farmers of the State are making in diversified and intensified agriculture? If so, visit the State Fair, October 28th to 31st.

While in Columbia during Fair Week, take your meals at the Parlor Restaurant. Meals are furnished at all hours day or night. All the delicacies of the season furnished at reasonable prices. Ben David will sure treat you white.

When you come to town to purchase dry goods, groceries, shoes, hardware or anything in general merchandise line, be sure and call on H. L. Oswald.

We learn that the infant child of Mr. Job S. Wessinger, of Chapin, died last Sunday and was buried at that place Monday. Our sympathies are extended to the bereaved parents.

Mr. Ed George is now in charge of the repair force of the Columbia Street Electric Railway. You can't keep the George boys down. Give them a shove under and they are bound to rise again.

Chief Rolling Berr, of the Iroqua tribe, is at Irene, in the interest of Indian remedies. He is a grandson of the great Indian Chieftian, Red Jacket, and is a social and clever gentleman.

We enjoyed our annual fall camp fish week before last. The catch was unusually large and Messrs. Walter Derrick and Paul Addy of the Fork, are certainly jolly fellows on a camp fish.

Wanted, to sell my complete Steam Saw Mill outfit, with horses, mules, oxen, wagons and carts, machinery nearly new. Also several desirable tracts of land on and near the railroad. W. H. Donley.

The County Fair is now under full headway. The crowd in attendance yesterday fully came up to that of the first day of previous fairs and was very encouraging to the management. In point of exhibits this fair will compare favorably with any yet held.

Dr. Gilmore, the dentist, will be at Kaminer Hotel on Tuesday and Wednesday, November 11th, and 12th. Those needing immediate service can consult him at anytime at his Columbia office over Husemann's gun store.

Mr. John Shealy, a young man employed in the Lexington Cotton Mill, in this place, in assisting in the serenade of a newly married couple over the creek last Monday night overloaded his gun and when it was discharged it burst, severely, though not dangerously wounding him.

A quite home wedding was consummated at the home of Hon. C. M. Efrid, in this place in the evening of October 20th, 1902, when Mr. D Rufus Haltiwanger of Batesburg, and Miss Annie Daily of this place were joined in the holy estate of matrimony by Rev. J. G. Graichen, pastor of St. Stephen's Evangelical Luth. church.

Dr. King's New Life Pills, New Discovery, Electric Bitters and Arnica Salve for sale at the Bazaar. These remedies have a world wide reputation for the almost instant relief that give to those who suffer from the diseases for which they were manufactured. Call and get a sample.

Working for Democracy.

The many friends of Congressman Lever will be sorry to learn that he will not be with them at their annual County Fair this week. He is such a familiar figure on our streets, and has been so consistent in his attendance on former occasions like this, that the Fair will seem incomplete without him. In fact, we think that he may be considered as one of Lexington County's exhibits, and the people of this County will be proud to know that to-day he is being exhibited by the National Democratic party, as the boy orator and baby member of Congress.

In view of the coming Fair, Mr. Lever was loath to leave the County and only did so after receiving urgent telegrams from Chairman Griggs.

He reported at Democratic headquarters in Washington last week, and was sent to make speeches in West Virginia. He spoke at Harpers Ferry on Friday and in Charleston on Saturday, being well received at both places. He is now stumping the State of Connecticut in company with Senator Carmack, of Tennessee. This is a great compliment to Mr. Lever, for Senator Carmack is recognized as one of the ablest men in the Senate, and an orator whose equal is hard to find. These two young men have been sent into the State of Connecticut, which is now represented in Congress by a solid Republican delegation. We hope they will be able to bring the whole State of Connecticut into the Democratic fold, and send up to Congress a solid Democratic delegation.

Preamble and Resolutions.

Whereas, It has pleased the Great Architect of the Universe to let Time use his sickle upon the manly form of the noble son of our brother K. P. Kyzer and cut him down in the bloom of youth.

And, whereas, we the members of Boylston Lodge, No 123, would perpetuate the sad event, do respectfully Resolve, That we bow in humble submission to his will, knowing that his acts are just and that we are all journeying to that temple not made by hands.

Resolved, That we extend to brother Kyzer and family our deep sympathy in this their sad bereavement.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be embodied in the minutes of this communication of Boylston Lodge, No 123, and a copy of the same be transmitted to the bereaved brother and family. Boylston Lodge, Aug. 16, 1902.

Masonic Meetings.
