It is estimated that the farmers of Darlington County will receive $300,000 this year for their tobacco crop.

The farmers and business men in Kershaw county have formed a company to go into the production of tobacco on a large scale.

Crazed by liquor, Ben Henderson, a colored barber of Chester, made a murderous assault on Policeman Wright, and was killed.

People who use "liver pills" ought to try the well known Ramon's Liver Pills and Tonic Pellets. No harmful for a dose—no constant dosing—no debilitating, weakening effect. They are far superior to the ordinary pill. Box of 25 doses 25c. Harman's Bazaar.

J. P. Turner, of Danville, Va., is trying to induce the farmers of Orangeburg to raise 10,000 acres of tobacco on the co-operative plan.

Women and children are fleeing from Bulgaria to escape the Turks, who are burning Christian Villages and massacring the inhabitants.

Elizabeth Cady Stanton is dead in New York at the age of 87. She was a member of the Woman's Rights crowd and did not believe in a future life.

John B. Cleveland, of Spartanburg, has announced that he will build a $12,000 science hall on the campus of Wofford College for the use of the college.

Those citizens of Orangeburg county who had their crops destroyed by hail in June will make a half or two-thirds of a crop of cotton on their second planting.

Lots of people who suffer from constipation or biliousness know they need a medicine but refrain, dreading the common griping, purging, sickening sensations of the ordinary remedies. Now we are prepared to supply a treatment that is void of these unpleasant effects—a modern, mild, pleasant, thorough remedy—Ramon's Liver Pills and Tonic Pellets. Two medicines, complete cure, 25 cents. Sample free for the asking. Harman's Bazaar.

Busy Brookland.

The Columbia Afternoon Record, 6th inst. A. D. Shull went to Lexington today on business connected with the Columbia and Lexington Street railway.

The repainting of the mill village houses will be begun at once. Many of these houses have pretty flower yards, which speaks well for the mill operatives.

C. W. Swygert, a former resident of Brookland, recently had his leg broken at Sandersville, Ga. He is now in a sanitarium and is improving.

The principal of the Brookland school, who has been ill for the past two weeks, is convalescing. Rev. Mr. Harrell is acceptably filling the vacancy caused by Prof. Wilson's illness. The total enrollment of the two schools here is upwards of 250.

Superintendent Dreher, of the Columbia graded schools, in company with several teachers and about thirty of his pupils, visited Crystal lake yesterday. They were delighted with their trip. Crystal lake covers an area of nineteen acres and is located on Brookland heights. It derives its name from the clearness of its water.

As an evidence of Brookland's steady growth, half a dozen residences are in course of construction.

O. N. Denham, former manager of the beaming and warping department of the Columbia Mills company, has gone into the mercantile business in Brookland. He is located on State street.

The planing mill of R. L. Shuler is being operated to its full capacity. He is filling orders from Columbia and other points.

Golden Streets.

For some time past the authorities of Altman in the Cripple Creek district, which enjoys the distinction of being the highest incorporated town in the world have been paving the streets with rock taken from the waste dump of the Pharmacist mine. Some of it looked so well that samples were taken at random and assayed, and the returns showed an average value of $20 in gold a ton.

As a result men began hauling away the street surface until stopped by the police. The Pharmacist company has ceased giving away the dump, and is hauling it to the reduction mills.

Another Roberts Case.

Salt Lake City, Nov. 6—It is reported today that the anti-polygamists are organizing to prevent the seating of Apostle Reed Smoot in the United States senate should he be elected. Smoot has announced himself in the fight to stay and that threats by the opposition cannot frighten him into withdrawal.

DEER IN THE WOODS.

Their Appearance Deceives All but the Old Hunter.

Next to the difficulty of comprehending the wonderful senses of the deer is that of understanding how one looks in the woods. Your ideas are necessarily taken from pictures or from stuffed deer or tame ones in a park. You are almost certain to be looking for a deer, whereas you might better be looking for anything else. In the woods you seldom see half of a deer and generally much less, often only a part of the shoulder, or only an ear over a log or a leg over it, a bit of rump projecting from a bush or a head and bit of the neck reaching up for leaves. The arcade of maple lit up by the scarlet of the ginseng and bush cranberry, the little arbor where the wild hop is yellowing over the thorn apples on which half a dozen ruffed grouse are taking their breakfast, the edge of the pool where the trout flashes through the water over which the chelone is still nodding, or the darksome glade where the golden petals of the witch hazel are closing the floral march of the year would all make lovely frames for that charming artist's deer with individual hairs all glistening, the dark de-claws shining, and even the split in the hoof flashing artistic light from its edges. But the glittering tines, the proud neck of the sculptured war horse, the shaggy chest and bulging rump with tail full of shining hairs are not there except at long intervals when you may rout an old fool out of bed and get him twisted as to the points of the compass.—T. S. Van Dyke in Outing.

The Hint Was Taken.

Johnnie McCraw was a bit of a character in a country village in the north of Scotland. He lived on the charity of the villagers, but sometimes found it particularly hard work to do so.

One day, when the springs of sympathy seemed to have dried up, Johnnie made his way to the house of the local doctor and said:

"I've come to get a' my teeth taken out, doctor."

"Dear me!" said the medical man. "What's wrang wi' them?"

"Oh, they're a' richt, but I've nae use for them; I've naething to eat."

"Yes," said the doctor, who saw the joke; "here's sixpence for you to get a loaf!"—Pearson's.

If you are bilious and seeking advisers.

Take DeWitt's Little Early Risers, Just before going to bed. You will find on the morrow. You are rid of your sorrow—That's all; just enough said.

These famous pills do not gripe, but move the bowels gently and easily, cleansing the liver. Their tonic effect gives strength to the glands, preventing a return of the disorder. J. E. Kaufmann.

A String to It.

Bridget and Norah Murphy, fresh from Ellis Island, had set out to make their "return calls" on their cousins, the McGoogigans, at service in an aristocratic part of the city. Upon arriving at the house, instead of being confronted by the usual bell knob, nothing but a stingy, mean apology of a knob in the shape of a little black button met them. Bridget got hold of the button and gave it a pull, but her fingers slipped before there was any audible ring from within. Again and again she tried with the same result, until she turned the job over to "Nonie." Then the latter yanked and twisted without success, until both stood on the landing gazing helplessly at each other. Then light came unto Bridget.

"I'll tell you phwat it is," she said. "They're playin' th' joke on us fur greenhorns an' th' devils are within holdin' th' shtring!"—New York Tribune.

Terminal Not Yet Arranged.

"You have discovered a new disease, have you, doctor? What are you going to call it?"

"That is a matter requiring some thought," responded the eminent medical specialist. "I have decided upon a name so far as the first three or four syllables are concerned, but have not made up my mind yet whether to classify it as an 'itis' or an 'osis.'"—Chicago Tribune.

All He Needed.

Ascum—I hear that French count your wife and daughter met abroad is going to visit you.

Richman—Yes; I believe he is. Ascum—Better take French lessons, hadn't you?

Richman—Oh, I'm fixed. I got a professor to teach me how to say, "Sorry, but I have made it a rule never to lend money."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Capt. J. H. Montgomery, president of the Spartan mills of Spartanburg, fell from the roof of a new factory that his company is building in Gainesville, Ga., and was killed.

If you have a bad cold you need a good reliable medicine like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to loosen and relieve it, and to allay the irritation and inflammation of the throat and lungs. For sale by J. E. Kaufmann.

Mrs. Fred Unrath,
President Country Club, Benton Harbor, Mich.

"After my first baby was born I did not seem to regain my strength although the doctor gave me a tonic which he considered very superior, but instead of getting better I grew weaker every day. My husband insisted that I take Wine of Cardui for a week and see what it would do for me. I did take the medicine and was very grateful to find my strength and health slowly returning. In two weeks I was out of bed and in a month I was able to take up my usual duties. I am very enthusiastic in its praise."

Wine of Cardui reinforces the organs of generation for the ordeal of pregnancy and childbirth. It prevents miscarriage. No woman who takes Wine of Cardui need fear the coming of her child. If Mrs. Unrath had taken Wine of Cardui before her baby came she would not have been weakened as she was. Her rapid recovery should commend this great remedy to every expectant mother. Wine of Cardui regulates the menstrual flow.
