Tribute of Respect.

Tribute of respect to Tommy Lee Rauch, adopted by the Pine Ridge school with bowed heads.

Whereas, the great and supreme teacher in his infinite wisdom and mercy has removed from the primary department of Pine Ridge school, one of our worthy and esteemed school mates, Tommy Lee Rauch, at the tender age of 13 years, 2 months and 25 days. While drawing water at his father's home Sunday evening, December 14th, 1902, the chain broke and by some means he lost his footing and fell into the well.

And whereas, the eminent relations held with him in the discharge of his duties as a fellow pupil make it especially befitting that we record our appreciation of him, therefore, be it,

Resolved 1st, That the news of his untimely death fills our hearts with deep regret and sorrow.

2nd. That the wisdom and ability which Tommy exercised in the aid of our school by faithful service and obedience will be held in grateful remembrance.

3rd. That as schoolmates and co-laborers of education we will greatly miss him, though we feel that our loss is his eternal gain.

4th. That there is a vacancy made in our school that will be sadly realized by both pupil and teacher and a shadow of sorrow cast over the whole community.

5th. That we bow in humble submission to the will of our Heavenly Father, "who doeth all things well," and who is too good and wise to err but tempers the winds to the shorn lambs.

6th. That we are in heartfelt sympathy with the bereaved family and relatives and express our hopes that this very sad bereavement may be over ruled by the good for us all.

7th. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, also a copy be sent to the Lexington Dispatch with the request that it be published therein.

Respectfully submitted,
A W. Ballentine,
D E Amick, Jr.,
Mattie Wiggers,
Mary Fulmer,
Eula Epping,
Committee.

JUST LIKE MOTHER.

An Early Morning Letter With an Important Announcement.

That domestic ambulance corps of which mother or wife or sister has charge, being accustomed to all the accidents that befall heedless men folk, can sometimes deal with them at long range. Thus the New York Mail and Express tells how, at 6 o'clock in the morning of the wedding day, a post-office messenger rang the bell at the home of the bride to be and handed out a special delivery letter.

It was addressed to the best man, who had come forty miles to second his best friend in the ceremony, and was, with several others, the guest of the bride's parents. The best man was still sound asleep, but he was promptly awakened on the supposition that the letter must contain something of importance. It did, indeed. Rubbing his eyes in an effort to understand, he tore open the envelope and was astonished to find a sheet of letter paper, with a large needle of the sort men always choose when emergency compels them to sew thrust through it and a foot of black thread doubled and trailing in a loose tangle down the page.

The best man thought it was a joke, but he could not see it, and he was about to become resentful when, upon turning the sheet, he found this hastily written note:

Dear Brother—Mother says there is a button off your dress coat. It is in your waistcoat, right hand pocket. Sew it on. Crawling out of bed, the best man examined his coat and laughed to see that the situation had been accurately described in the letter. "Just like mother," he said. "She has probably lost a whole night's sleep thinking about that button."

Later in the day four bridesmaids gleefully assisted in making the repairs, and this telegram went to mother: Button sewed on. Don't worry.

KEEPING A LOGBOOK.

The System of Abbreviations Used on Merchant Vessels.

How many landmen know how a logbook is written up? It seems just as complicated as double entry bookkeeping when one does not know, but after a little careful attention and study it's as easy to keep a logbook as to eat hot gingerbread. There is a list of letters arranged, and they look like so much Greek to the uneducated.

The letter b, for instance, stands for blue sky, whether there be clear or hazy atmosphere. C means cloudy or detached, opening clouds; d denotes drizzling rain; a small j, fog; capital F, thick fog; g, gloomy, dark weather; h, hail; i, lightning, and m, misty or hazy so as to interfere with the view.

The letter o represents overcast or when the whole sky is covered with one impenetrable cloud. Passing showers are noted by the letter p, and q indicates the weather to be squally. Continuous rain is indicated by an r, snow by an s and thunder by a t. Any ugly, threatening appearance in the weather calls for the letter u, and visibility of distant objects, whether the sky be cloudy or not, is represented by the letter v. A small w is wet dew. A full point or dot under any letter denotes an extraordinary degree. As an example of how the letters are used take q p d l t. This reads very hard squalls and showers of drizzle, accompanied by lightning, with very heavy thunder. Numerals denote the force of the wind. A cipher indicates calm, 1 light air, 2 light breeze, 3 gentle breeze, 4 moderate breeze, 5 fresh breeze, 6 strong breeze, 7 moderate gale, 8 fresh gale, 9 strong gale, 10 whole gale, 11 storm, 12 hurricane. This system of abbreviation is generally adhered to on all merchant vessels.

Miss Ida M. Snyder, Treasurer of the Brooklyn East End Art Club.

"If women would pay more attention to their health we would have more happy wives, mothers and daughters, and if they would observe results they would find that the doctors' prescriptions do not perform the many cures they are given credit for.

"In consulting with my druggist he advised McElree's Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black-Draught, and so I took it and have every reason to thank him for a new life opened up to me with restored health, and it only took three months to cure me."

Wine of Cardui is a regulator of the menstrual functions and is a most astonishing tonic for women. It cures scanty, suppressed, too frequent, irregular and painful menstruation, falling of the womb, whites and flooding. It is helpful when approaching womanhood, during pregnancy, after childbirth and in change of life. It frequently brings a dear baby to homes that have been barren for years. All druggists have $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.
