

PENCIL AND SCISSORS.

Wayside Notes Gathered Here and There by a Dispatch Man.

Read the land sales in this issue. Hon. W. H. Sharpe was in town Monday.

Even the lard trust wants to "live off the fat of the land." Mr. W. R. McDaniel has given bond and is now out on bail.

Mr. Frank Kleckley killed a hog 8 months old Monday weighing 248 pounds net.

The finest gunpowder tea, and other fine grades of teas at the Bazaar.

Mr. D. E. Ballentine has been confined to his room with sickness for several days.

There are several notices in this issue which are of especial interest to trespassers.

W. H. Lyles, Esq., a prominent railroad attorney of Columbia, was in town last week.

1,000 bushels of cotton seed wanted. Highest market price paid for same. W. P. Roof.

Mr. Austin Roof now occupies the cottage lately vacated by Superintendent of Education Jno. S. Derrick.

If you need cough medicine read the advertisement of The Kaufmann Drug Company in another column.

Mr. J. J. Schwartz, who resided near Chapin, has moved to town and will make this place his future residence.

Two good farm mules for sale cheap, apply to A. N. Dreher, Selwood, S. C. 3w10

A horse belonging to Mr. George Sawyer died last Saturday. This makes the third horse he has had to die in the recent past.

In consequence of the removal of Mr. P. H. Corley back on his place in the suburbs, the Parlor Restaurant has been closed.

Miss Irene Weed, who has been visiting relatives in town since Christmas, returned to her home in the Fork, Monday.

Several days during the past week the weather was intensely cold and the wind biting. Many people did nothing but hugged the fire.

FRESH GARDEN SEED—Best varieties, just arrived and guaranteed to give entire satisfaction. Call at The Bazaar.

The new Board of County Commissioners took charge of the county government last Thursday and elected Mr. J. A. Muller clerk.

Mr. Frank Meetze, of Virginia, and his charming bride, while on their bridal tour, stopped over last week to visit Maj. H. A. Meetze, the uncle of the former.

During the year 1903, it will be our purpose to collect money due us closer in the future than we have in the past, thereby reducing the number of those who beat us.

Mr. Rufus Sox, who has been confined to his home for sometime by sickness, is, we are glad to say, convalescing. We have missed him and his contagious laugh on the streets.

A postal dated from Manila, P. I., December 2nd, 1902, informs us that Mr. R. F. Able, who is connected with the Auditor's office there, is returning home on account of ill health.

Treasurer F. W. Shealy lost his fine traveling horse "Meddler" last Wednesday night from blind staggers. The week before Mr. C. M. Eford lost his old faithful horse "Dandy."

We learn that cholera has broken out among the hogs in this vicinity, and are informed that one gentleman had 35 hogs to die from this disease, another 4, and all the hogs of another are sick with it.

Kinard, the Old Reliable Clothier, of Columbia, invites the people of Lexington to make his store their headquarters when in the city. He has made a sweeping reduction in suits, overcoats, stylish hats, heavy underwear, shirts, white and colored, and fine neckwear. See advertisement in this issue.

Auditor G. A. Derrick has moved to town and now occupies the dwelling of Mrs. Sarah Rawl on upper Main street. Mr. Thomas L. Harman occupies the dwelling vacated by Mr. Derrick in the suburbs.

Rev. Mr. Hay will hold Episcopal services in the chapel in this place next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and in the evening at 7:30 o'clock. The public generally is invited to attend these services.

Mr. C. F. Snyder, who conducts a large picture enlarging agency in Florida, is in town riding the Royal Bumper of Dixie Lodge, No 52, I. O. O. F., and visiting at the home of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Harman.

We are requested to announce the marriage of Miss Carrie Luannoe, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Roberts, to Mr. Willie Aughtry Smith. The ceremony will take place in Providence church, at 10 a. m., on January 25th, inst. Every-body invited.

Annie Lee, the little four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Floyd, died at the home of its parents, on Factory Hill, in this place, last Wednesday, January 7th, after an illness of about four weeks. Another lamb has entered the heavenly fold and now gambols in the warmth and sun light of God's presence.

Remember the editor is out on his rounds in the southern portion of the county and next week will start at Edmund and wind up at Frank Keisler's. Think of your dues to the Dispatch before leaving home to meet the Auditor, and be ready for him with the sponduclicks. Look at the dates that he will be near you.

Senator B. R. Tillman proposes to deliver within the next two weeks a red hot anti-trust speech, which, it is said, will be the most extensive and carefully prepared one that he will deliver this session. The Senator regards the bill prepared by Attorney General Knox, which has been favorably reported upon by the Judiciary Committee, as "absolutely worthless so far as remedying the trust evil is concerned."

This is a good season of the year to purchase dry goods, notions and millinery, and the place to get standard goods in these lines is at Wm Platt's, Columbia. In this establishment will be found every thing needful to make a fashionable dress woman. All his goods are of the latest styles and patterns and are sold at as low prices as are consistent with the quality of the goods. When you want goods that will wear go to Wm. Platt.

Trespass Notice.

ALL PERSONS ARE HEREBY FOREWARNED against trespassing upon my lands known as the "Old Kreps Place" in any manner whatever. The law will be enforced no matter who the violator may be. GEORGE W. PRICE. January 14, 1903. 4w13. pd.

Loss of Flesh

When you can't eat breakfast, take Scott's Emulsion. When you can't eat bread and butter, take Scott's Emulsion. When you have been living on a milk diet and want something a little more nourishing, take Scott's Emulsion.

To get fat you must eat fat. Scott's Emulsion is a great fatterer, a great strength giver.

Those who have lost flesh want to increase all body tissues, not only fat. Scott's Emulsion increases them all, bone, flesh, blood and nerve.

For invalids, for convalescents, for consumptives, for weak children, for all who need flesh, Scott's Emulsion is a rich and comfortable food, and a natural tonic.

Scott's Emulsion for bone, flesh, blood and nerve.

We will send you a free sample. Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy. SCOTT & BOWNE, CHEMISTS, 409 Pearl St., N. Y. 50c. and $1; all druggists.

Galvani's Discovery.

It is to the wife of Professor Galvani of Bologna that is due the credit of having discovered the electrical battery which bears his name. Some skinned frogs lay upon the table, and, noticing a convulsive movement in their limbs, she called her husband's attention to the strange fact, who instituted a series of experiments, and in 1791 he laid the foundation of the galvanic battery.

Their Luck. "Just my luck," said Boreni. "She's always out when I call." "So she was telling me," said Miss Pepprey. "She told you the same thing, eh?" "Yes. Only she said it was just her luck."—Philadelphia Press.

Hard Luck. She—Because I cannot marry you do not be disheartened. You must face the world bravely. He—It isn't a question of the world; I've got to face my creditors.

True Courage. Spartacus—What is the greatest act of bravery that ever occurred within your specific knowledge? Smartacus—A man with only half a dollar in his pocket went into a swell cafe and ordered 40 cents' worth of food right out loud, so that people at the next table heard him distinctly.—Baltimore American.

The Delineator for February.

The number of The Delineator for February is replete with interesting and valuable matter. The display of fashions is inviting and up to date, and the literary contributions are of a high order. In fiction, two admirable short stories are presented: A Change for the Better, a Western tale, and Pamela's Great-grandmother. The price of this excellent magazine, known as the "Ladies Favorite," is only 15 cents per copy, or $1 00 per annum.
