PENCIL AND SCISSORS.

Wayside Notes Gathered Here and There by a Dispatch Man.

Plant hog and hominy.

Cotton is quoted to day at 9 1/2.

Keep the carpenters "hammering."

Have you paid for your paper?

Keep a weather eye on the vernal equinox.

Lexington is the healthiest place in the State.

Overtakers for sale by Able & Able, Leesville.

Spring greens and paregoric go from hand to mouth.

These warm days are making the fruit trees bloom rapidly.

The fragrance of orange blossoms fills the air with their perfume.

You always find fresh cakes and crackers of all kinds, at the Bazaar.

A great deal of tobacco has been planted in this county this year.

Spirits of turpentine is reported at Savannah as being firm at 65.

Rubber coats at New York cost, at Able & Able, Leesville.

Mr. J. Kelley Day, of Black Creek, was in town Monday and dropped in to see us.

The thoughts of the fair sex turns these days toward Easter bonnets and gowns.

Make your feet happy by buying shoes of Able & Able, Leesville.

But very little farm work has been done so far this season on account of unfavorable weather.

Mr. Arthur Ballentine, of Pine Ridge, is now a student in the Palmetto Collegiate Institute.

Evangelist Leitch and the sweet songster Marshall, are in Leesville holding revival services.

Mr. John C. Dreher is now the dispenser at Chapin, he having taken charge on the 1st instant.

Granulated sugar in 25 pound sacks, cheap, at Able & Able, Leesville.

From now on the farmers are expected to keep their "implements of war" bright and shining.

If this weather continues to grow warmer, the fiz of the soda fountain will be heard in the land.

It is been remarked that so far what March lacked in wind it has more than made up in rain.

For Baker's chocolate, gelatine, prepared cocoanut, flavoring extracts, fine teas, etc., go to the Bazaar.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Adam Meetze is quite ill at her home in this place, with gastric fever.

Treasurer Frank W. Shealy and his wife went up to their old home Saturday and spent Sunday.

The April Delinator presents the usual up-to-date display of fashions and a delightful collection of literary features.

It is said that Leesville is to have a tobacco warehouse before the season opens, although we have heard nothing from it lately.

Several young people will be confirmed members of St. Stephen Evangelical Lutheran church during the Easter festival.

You will find the very best garden seed, of all varieties, fresh and guaranteed, at the Bazaar.

Let us see to it that the end of the year finds each and every one of us better off financially than we were at its beginning.

"Hard Worker," "C. and C.," "Mop," and "A Friend," will please bear with us. Their communications have been received and will appear next week.

Mrs. J. J. Ballentine, of the Pine Ridge section, visited her sisters, Mrs. J. J. Bickley and Mrs. G. A. Derrick, in this place, Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. James E. Rawl was elected President of the Cemetery and Church Ground Association, recently organized, instead of Mrs. James E. Hendrix, as inadvertently stated last week.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR
stops the cough and heals lungs

Mr. D. L. Epting, of the Fork, was in town Friday and gave us a pleasant call. Mr. Epting is a hale fellow well met and is as lively as a cricket.

Dixie Lodge, No. 52, I. O. O. F., has changed its meeting nights. Hereafter it will meet on the first and third Thursday nights of each month.

A nice line of pain and fancy candies, cream chocolate, peach and honey, orange and lemon tablets, pure cocoanut, peanut, etc., just opened at the Bazaar.

It looks like old times to see Mr. Jeff Amick and family once again residents of this town. He occupies his handsome new residence on Upper Main street.

See the advertisement of Dr. C. J. Oliveros, Columbia, specialist on eye, ear, nose, throat and lungs, and if you are a sufferer from these diseases, call on him and be cured.

Mr. Cyrus W. Shealy has closed a very successful term of school near Mr. Paul Crap's and has returned to his home at Summit. He was in town yesterday and called to see us.

The old Board of Control, consisting of R. L. Keisler, J. Weir Addy and J. W. Ballentine, have been reappointed. They held a meeting last Thursday at which only routine business was transacted.

Mr. J. E. Dunbar, one of largest corn growers in the Pelion section, was in town Tuesday and spent the night with Dr. Blue Mountain Joe. Before leaving for home he called this morning and settled for his paper.

After March 10th, I will have a lot of early Florida potatoes for sale. Any one wishing to buy will call at my residence. J. P. Corley, Irene, S. C.

Students Enoch Hite and K. A. Price has our thanks for an invitation to attend the Twelfth Anniversary of Christianian Literary Society, Lenior College, which is to come off on Monday evening, March 10, in the College Auditorium.

A petition has been filed at the department asking for an extension of the mail services from Lexington to Stall, to end at Seivern, which will probably go into effect soon. Dr. Joe Harman is the carrier who made an experimental trip to the end last week.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR

Cures Colds; Prevents Pneumonia

Editor H. Charles Bailey, of the Carolina News, while over on a social visit to relatives hereabouts, as well on a business trip last Saturday, called to see us. Charlie looks as hearty as ever and his face wears its usual pleasant smile.

Mr. Monroe Gunter, from the Edisto section, was in town the latter part of last week and called in and settled for his paper for another year. He was accompanied by his accomplished daughter, Miss Ruoy, who has been teaching a successful school at Thor.

Miss Alice Timmons has now received her spring invoice of millinery and notions. She has a full stock of ladies' hats, of the latest patterns, handomely trimmed and "ready to wear," now on exhibition, at lowest prices. Call and see this stock on Lower Main street.

We have been informed that the State Board of Directors, after hearing arguments pro and con, decided not to close the dispensary at Chapin, in this county, on the ground that the reasons given for the closing of the dispensary at that place were insufficient.

Mr. E. W. Robertson, one of the directors of the Home Bank in this place, is one of the most successful financiers in this State. He is the President of the Loan and Exchange Bank of Columbia, and is the originator of the sky scraper in that city. His connection with The Home Bank lends additional strength to that institution.

Loss of Flesh

When you can't eat breakfast, take Scott's Emulsion. When you can't eat bread and butter, take Scott's Emulsion. When you have been living on a milk diet and want something a little more nourishing, take Scott's Emulsion.

To get fat you must eat fat. Scott's Emulsion is a great fattener, a great strength giver.

Those who have lost flesh want to increase all body tissues, not only fat. Scott's Emulsion increases them all, bone, flesh, blood and nerve.

For invalids, for convalescents, for consumptives, for weak children, for all who need flesh, Scott's Emulsion is a rich and comfortable food, and a natural tonic.

Scott's Emulsion for bone, flesh, blood and nerve.

We will send you a free sample.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

SCOTT & BOWNE,
CHEMISTS,
409 Pearl St., N. Y.

50c. and $1; all druggists.

P. C. I. Notes.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

Miss Belle Hooker, of Eastover, has been teaching the Caney Branch school near Leesville, but it has closed and she is now in the Institute trying to make a better teacher of herself.

Miss Lizzie Seay, of class 1902, who taught school near the Saluda line, has closed a most successful session, but has been re-elected to the same position. This speaks well for Miss Seay.

Mr. Walter Harman, of class 1902, is again at home after having taught the Sand Mountain school. This was Mr. Harman's first school, but that his services were appreciated is shown by the fact that he has been re-elected already for another year.

Since Mr. Luther Long has moved from Lexington, his daughter, Alma, boards with her sister, Mrs. Gus Lorick, and attends the Institute.

Miss Eva Derrick, who was once a student at the Institute, has closed a successful school near Columbia and is now at the home of her parents in Lexington.

To the enrollment of the music department, which is under the tuition of Mrs. Fannie Roof, has been added the following names: Miss Sudie Caughman, Miss Eppie Roof, Miss Lula Kaminer and Mr. Quincy Wingard.

Rev. Y. Von A. Riser is now located at Waynesboro, Va., he having accepted a call to a Lutheran charge in that place. Mr. Riser is said to be an eloquent young divine, a faithful pastor and a pleasant gentleman. He carries with him to his new field of labor the best wishes of a host of friends for his future happiness and success.

We hereby warn all persons, without exception, who are in arrears to the Dispatch for a year or more, that if some settlement is not made within fifteen days, their paper will be stopped and the account placed in the hands of a Magistrate for collection. We regret to resort to this harsh measure, but we need the money and are forced to do so. We cannot afford to send the paper to those who do not pay promptly.

I OFFER

My entire stock of goods, consisting of a well selected line of General Merchandise, at Pelion, either in bulk with good will, or at retail at and below cost. Will also sell the storehouse and lot with the business. This is a splendid opportunity to invest in a well established and paying business.

My reason for placing this valuable property on the market is that I intend to invest in another State. I also offer 900 acres of land, situated one and one half miles east of Pelion. This tract is well timbered and wooded and contains some excellent farming lands. Apply to
