A Military Company Wanted.

Col. John Bell Towill is bubbling over with military enthusiasm since his appointment on the staff of Governor Heyward and wants a company organized at Batesburg. Friend John is right, however, as there is no better way to bring out and develop the social characteristics of the young men than for them to feel the elbow touch of their companions in a military company. Batesburg has some excellent material to make good and gallant soldiers and we trust the efforts of Col. Towill to organize a military company at that place will meet with success. Right fact!

Preaching at Bethlehem.

Rev. S. T. Hallman, D. D., will preach at Bethlehem church, Black Creek, on Sunday, the 29th, and his many friends around the old church of his childhood are cordially invited to enjoy that service with him. It has been over 30 years since he preached in that church, around which cluster so many sacred memories. He will be able to spend only a few days in the community and will therefore be glad to greet his friends at the church.

New Church to be Built.

The members of New Bethel A. M. E. church, are making strenuous efforts to raise funds sufficient to build a new church on the site of the present one, at the foot of Depot street. It is the purpose of the officials of this church to erect a handsome edifice at an estimated cost of $1,000. They have inaugurated what is to be known as a building fund rally to be held on the third Sunday in each month as a means of raising a part, if not all, of the money necessary for this purpose. So far, two rallies have been held, the combined receipts of which amounted to $117.00. The third rally will be held on the third Sunday in April and it is the wish of those interested to make the collection as large as possible and in order to do so, it is hoped that every one will come prepared to contribute as largely as their means will admit. In the meantime contributions will be thankfully received from outsiders, both white and black, who are willing to contribute toward this worthy cause.

Fitzmaurice

Is the best place in Columbia to buy dry goods, wholesale or retail. I don't say this because my daughter is clerking there, all that I ask is for you to go there and see for yourself. Aside from a large wholesale trade, he does a large retail business and sells the best goods for the least money. Take my advice and don't buy until you see his goods and learn his prices. If you want a good ready-made suit cheap, go there.

Yours very truly, P. J. Rucker, Columbia, S. C.

A Rhode Island feminine pedagogue began to punish the 180 pound captain of the school football team; his friends rushed to assist him; but she knocked one down with a straight shoulder blow, and then blackened another's eye by an upper cut. The muscular woman has her uses on occasion.

Our Methodist friends are having a double row of trees set out down the avenue leading from the church to Main street.

Obituary.

Harriet Precilla Seigler, nee Ellisor was born in Lexington county, S. C., October 22, 1825, and died March 7, 1903, aged 77 years, 4 months and 15 days. She and William Seigler were married Jan. 8, 1856, thus making the union last over 57 years. Nine children, 42 grand children, and 17 great grand children were born to them. She was catechised and confirmed in the old Ellisor Lutheran church. That having been removed, she united with Shady Grove, M. E. Church, and here remained until called to the church triumphant. Those who knew her well speak of her as industrious, kind, patient, attending strictly to her own affairs, and letting others, if they would, do the same. She was laid to rest last Monday in the old family burying ground. S. C. B.

Pleased with Lexington.

Messrs. J. A. Axson and Elzie Poole, from the Edisto section, were in town Thursday and called to see us. Mr. Axson is originally from Orangeburg, but having seen the fertile lands of Lexington fell in love with her and decided to make this county his future home. They are both good, honest, hardworking men and useful citizens and we were glad to shake hands with them.

Watch the Signs.

At last the dogwood and the maple are in bloom and the Editor of this paper is as happy as a June bug on a peach as his thoughts turn toward the dark cool waters of the Edisto, wherein hides the trout, the jack, the bream and the sucker. Uncle Jake has been over and these two old fishermen have talked the matter over together and an early trip to the waters of the Edisto may be looked for.

Mr. Robert Doyle was released from jail last Thursday on a $1,000 bond for his appearance at the June term of the court of General Sessions. The State resisted the motion for bail on the ground that the killing of Bundrick was an act of criminal negligence.

We hereby warn all persons, without exception, who are in arrears to the Dispatch for a year or more, that if some settlement is not made within fifteen days, their paper will be stopped and the account placed in the hands of a Magistrate for collection. We regret to resort to this harsh measure, but we need the money and are forced to do so. We cannot afford to send the paper to those who do not pay promptly.
