Contraband Beer and Whiskey. Liquor Constables swooped down on some contraband beer and whiskey at the depot on Saturday. A young Mr. Shealy, having a package of whiskey, tried to escape with it, but the alert eyes of the officers saw the movement and gave chase.

H. Edwin Hendrix Dead. We have received the sad intelligence of the death of Mr. H. Edwin Hendrix, which occurred at his home in Milledgeville, Ga., on Monday, June 1st. He was a native of this county, being a brother of Mr. J. Sol Hendrix, and was at one time a prominent business man of this place.

Who Knows How to Buy. The attention of the bargain seekers of Lexington county is called to the advertisement of "The Fountain Company," Columbia. This concern is under the efficient management of W. D. Bates, a well known business man who knows how to buy goods to the best advantage—the benefit of which he gives to his customers.

Wonderful Success. The Palmetto Collegiate Institute, which has been successfully managed by Prof. O. D. Seay for the past several years, closed its session last week in a very prosperous condition. Besides the large number of day scholars, there were forty-five boarding students in attendance. This is perhaps the largest school in the county, and on account of its efficiency and thoroughness of work, grows more and more in popularity.

Unclaimed Mail. The following is a list of unclaimed letters at this post office for the month of May, 1903: MALES. Julious Bouknight. I. Caroll. George P. Corley. M. Matton. Wash Writes. FEMALES. Miss Mamie Bonds. Miss Hattie Clair. Miss Effier. Margaret Miller. Pres. Daughters Confederacy. O. O. Gable, (package) Miss Bessie Keisler, (package) Millie Stromthes, (package) S. J. Leaphart, Postmaster.

Death of an Infant. Death saw a tiny and beautiful flower growing in the home of Mr. E. A. Smith and claimed it as his victim. Last Thursday the little six week's old child of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Smith died after an illness of a few days. Gone to dwell with God at home. It was buried at Florence church on Friday. Kind parents, weep not, for it is at rest with God His kingdom. Christ says "suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not for of such is the kingdom of Heaven." The parents have the sympathies of the community in which they reside in their bereavement.

One Minute Cough Cure For Coughs, Colds and Group.

Heavy Rainfall. Last Monday this vicinity was visited by the heaviest rain storm that the oldest inhabitant ever saw. It was a genuine gully washer, stump lifter and trash mover. It seemed for awhile that the bottom had dropped out of the clouds and this old world was to witness the second edition of Noah's Flood. But the rainbow promised allayed our fears and we fell to sleep as peacefully as a babe upon its mother's breast. No damage was done by the down pour of water, however except of a minor nature caused by washing gullies through the gardens and fields.

To the People of Lexington. There is a house in Columbia which is offering extraordinary inducements to secure the trade of the people of Lexington, we refer to that of N. A. Young. This is a new house with a brand new stock of goods which are especially adapted to wants of our people and are offered at prices which cannot be duplicated in the city. Honest and square dealing, good goods at the lowest prices and polite and accommodating attention is the rule of this House. Your trade is wanted and will be appreciated.

Good Work. Twenty-five persons were added to the church roll of St. Peter's, Evangelical Lutheran church in the Fork, of which the Rev. E. L. Lybrand is the pastor, on Sunday May 17th, and nine to that of St. Jacob's at Chepin, Rev. O. B. Shearouse, pastor—eight by confirmation and one by infant baptism.

Aids Digestion, Regulates the Bowels, Strengthens the Child and Makes TEETHING EASY. COSTS ONLY 25 CENTS AT DRUGGISTS. For mail 25 cents to C. J. MOFFETT, M. D., ST. LOUIS, MO. FLORENCE, S. C., Nov. 26, 1900.—I was first advised by our family physician in Charleston to use TEETHINA with our baby when he was but a very young infant, as a preventive of cholera and to warm and sweeten the stomach. Later it was useful in teething troubles, and its effect has been found to be so very beneficial and so free from dangers that it is consequent upon the use of drugs and soothing syrups, that we have come to regard it, after use with three children, as one of the necessities when there is a new baby in the house and until the teething troubles are over, and we take the pleasure in recommending it to our friends instead of the horrid stuff that so many people use to keep their baby quiet. HARTWELL M. AYER, (Manager Daily Times and Weekly Times-Messenger.)
