Lemuel Baylis Boozer.

Perhaps one of the saddest deaths that has occurred in this community recently was that of Mr. Lemuel Baylis, eldest son of L. H. and A. O. Boozer. This excellent young man was born October 30th, 1868, and died at his home, near here, July 13, 1903, after a long and painful illness, at the age of 34 years, 8 months and 17 days. The subject of this sketch was a young man of quiet and steady habits, and of unassuming disposition. He was the possessor of a high character, strict integrity, and enjoyed the confidence, love and esteem of the entire community wherein he was born, lived and died. At one time he conducted a merchantile business in this town in connection with Mr. James S. Boozer, but retired on account of failing health, and returned to his farm.

The funeral services were held at the homestead and were conducted by Rev. W. D. Quick, who was assisted at the grave by Revs. W. E. Barre and J. G. Graichen. The burial was in the Judge Boozer burying ground, in this place, yesterday morning.

Prosperous Farmers.

During a ride one day last week along the Wyse's ferry road, which winds through a fertile and beautiful stretch of country known as the Providence section, we were much pleased to notice that the industrious farmers in that section have no just cause to complain of the condition of their crops. Farm life has a active and picturesque appearance in that settlement. Their crops of corn, cotton, peas, etc., are in very fair condition and well advanced. We noticed also an abundance of peaches, apples and other delicious fruits. The sight made our mouth run water and we were almost tempted to violate that commandment which says thou shalt not steal. We resisted the temptation, however, only by driving from that vicinity as fast as our horse could carry us. Again we noticed fine cattle, sheep, horses, mules and hogs. The people living in that section are industrious and thrifty farmers, having ideal country homes and model farms. They are all good livers and make plenty of supplies for home consumption. This community is composed of such well known farmers as S. M. Gross, Al Meetze, George R. Feilde, Thomas L. Harman, J. Sol. Roberts, Johnnie Roberts, Ed. Cook, George Harman, Job Corley P. B. Harman and Rueben Corley, P. H. Seay, George Roberts and others.

Whom It May Concern.

The Eureka Feather Company, of Winston, N. C., has located its machinery in Lexington, S. C., for the purpose of cleansing and disinfecting feathers. These men have impressed me as being honest, faithful workers. At their solicitation, I have visited and examined their work while in operation. I pronounce it first class in every particular. Feathers ought not to be used as a bed to sleep on, but they are regarded as one of the luxuries of life, therefore, people are loath to dismiss them for bed purposes. Feathers ought to be cleansed and disinfected every four years in order that persons sleeping thereon will not run the risk of incurring malignant diseases which they, in their unclean condition, are so capable and potent in instituting. To visit this work and see what morbid material is eliminated from the feathers, while in process of cleaning, will furnish sufficient proof of the utility and necessity of having feathers cleansed and disinfected, especially those that are in constant use. From these statements, coming personally from me, the inordinately suspecting, may infer that I have some material interest in this work. I have none. My statements are recommendations for this work and a general interest in the welfare of the human family.

Respectfully,
 M. Q. Hendrix, M. D.

The Real Problem.

We quite agree with The Constitution that Mr. Roosevelt's fatuous obstinacy in pressing his negro ideas upon the country has been an essential aggravation to the recent expressions of violence and strife which are so much to be deplored. But behind the Roosevelt policy; and the aggravation which it causes, rests the facts which The Constitution has heretofore refused to recognize, but which in time it inevitably must concede, that there is now and has always been, and will always be until it is settled, an evident and menacing race problem in the South and in the country. That problem is born in the inherent, instinctive and indestructible prejudice which exists now, and has always existed and will always exist, between opposite and antagonistic races. So long as they remain together they will always be in conflict, and not all the platitudes of statesmen nor the palaver of politicians nor, alas! the philanthropies of religion can heal, this side of the millennium, the differences which prevent their happy and harmonious union under government. Sooner or later all men who are brave enough to think must recognize this, and the truculence and the temporizing of present policies will be melted in the heat and crucible of trial until they pass into one brave and bold solution which alone can give us unity, purity and peace in the republic.

In the Supreme Court.

Chief Justice Pope, upon motion of Gen. LeRoy F. Youmans, has granted an order staying the remittitur in the case of the State vs. R. W. McDaniel, convicted of the murder of Lee Neese, town marshal of Swansea, until the third day of the next term of the Supreme Court and the attorneys for the defense were allowed until August 1st to submit arguments in support of a motion for a rehearing in the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court has affirmed the decision of the lower court in the case of Catherine J. Taylor, appellant, vs. Lydia A. Dempsey, respondent. Opinion by Pope C. J. This was a suit involving the Wessinger homestead, in the Fork and the suit was won by Mrs. Dempsey.

Spring Branch Leaves.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

I said that if I did not eat myself to death at the 'cue of Harman & Gantt, I would try to write again, so if I don't write they will all think I ate myself to death.

The health of this community is very good at this writing, so far as I know.

The traveling thresher has passed through our settlement this week separating the grain from the straw.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Derrick, of Lexington, spent a week at Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Shumpert.

Mr. John T. Kyzer, of this section, spent the 4th at Red Bank.

Some of our boys and girls are talking of going to the 'cue of J. Frye and also to that of Reeder Bros., at Edmund, on the 18th and 25th.

Crops in this settlement is beginning to show up. Soon there will be plenty of peaches ripe and how we will feast on pies.

There is a revival meeting going on at Pelion now. We hope that much good will be done.

Some of our farmers are having a long battle with General Green. Don't think they will whip 'till Jack Frost comes. Some of them have done laid by.

It is coming time for the hack and puller to leave from the forest and then we can hear the sound of the axman.

"Woodman! Woodman! spare that tree and I'll protect it now."

I believe that the watermelon crop will be short in this part.

Mr. J. O. Spradley has about the finest corn crop in this community.

Mr. J. C. Danbar is curing his second barn of tobacco. Look out Jim, I am coming for a smoke.

Mr. Editor, I think that if Bob White could talk they would certainly give you praise for publishing the bird law. This offends some, but they know they are guilty.

Messrs. Virgal Gunter and Marshal Berry have recently lost their cows.

Girls, by all signs that new buggy has come and probably you have taken a ride before this reaches you, but be all good cheer, thy trials will soon be over.

Some of our old soldiers are talking of going to Leesville on the 14th. Billy Bly.

Not Dead.

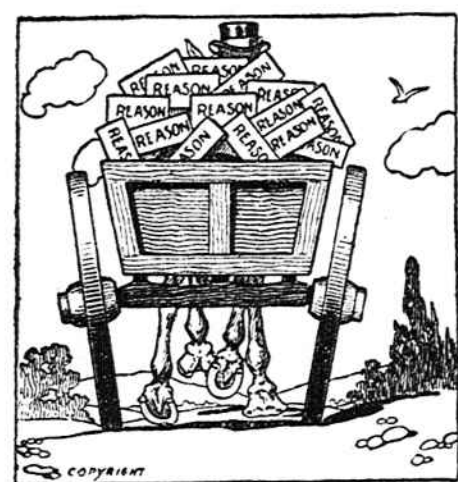

We are glad to be able to inform our readers that the Lexington Power Company is by no means a corpse. It is only sleeping for the present by reason of a lack of appreciation of the benefits to accrue from its success by some of the interested citizens of Lexington county.

This is, perhaps, the most important financial undertaking that has been launched in this county and one that promises so much in the development of the varied industrial interests of the county.

DR. MOFFETT'S TEETHINA

(TEETHING POWDERS)

BLACK SPRINGS, ARK., Sept. 18, 1901.
 Rev. J. W. Berry (of Arkansas Methodist Conference, writes): "Enclosed find fifty cents for which please mail me two packages of 'TEETHINA.' We wonder how we have raised children without it. The other day a lady in Missouri sent us a package and it came at a most opportune time; our babe was in a serious condition; his bowels had been in bad condition for days, and nothing that we gave did any good; the second dose of 'TEETHINA' gave perfect relief and he has had no further trouble. Other members of the family have used it and every dose has been a perfect success."
