The Editor of this paper is spending the week on the Edisto, making war on the catfish, the assistant editor is visiting in Horry county, and the Dispatch Devil is in full charge.

"The fellow who habitually borrows his neighbor's daily paper is bad enough to deserve punishment, but the person who receives his county paper for weeks, months and years—who gathers from its columns all he knows of the happenings in the county, state and the world at large—and fails to pay the pitifully small price charged cannot be suitably characterized in public language."

Abram Zurasky, a Jewish peddler from Aiken, was most foully murdered in that county one day last week. After having been shot twice, his body was brutally hacked with an axe and left for the vultures to prey upon.

Dr. Francis Miles, lecturer in the medical department of the University of Maryland and an eminent physician in Baltimore died recently in that city at the advanced age of 76.

The management is working hard to make the 36th. annual State Fair a record breaker in the way of exhibits, but it must have the support of all citizens or the fair will not be what it should.

Governor Heyward and staff, with Adjutant and Inspector General Frost, are at Anderson this week for the purpose of reviewing the third regiment now encamped there under the command of Col. Schachte.

According to the Columbia Record, the quarters of the Weather Bureau in that city will be moved to the eleventh floor of the "sky scraper" September, 1st.

A Pope Elected.

After being in session four days the College of Catholic Cardinals elected on Tuesday, as successor to Pope Leo, the XIII Guiseppe Sarto, who has assumed the title of Pius X.

The following extract from a letter written by G. M. Harman, editor of the Dispatch, to the proprietors of Ramon's Remedies is self-explanatory: "There is no pill that equals Ramon's Pills; they leave the bowels and stomach with such pleasant, healthful feelings—no bad effects—after performing their work so thoroughly. I have tried them, and know whereof I speak." 25 cts.

Batesburg Items.

To the Editor of the Dispatch: Since I wrote last we have had an epidemic of marriages.

Among them I record the following: Mr. W. H. Sills and Miss Kate Haltiwanger by the Rev. Mr. Kinard, of Leesville. Mr. Sills is engineer on the Southern Railway and Miss Kate is the accomplished daughter of our friend H. W. Haltiwanger.

Mr. P. R. Grady, of the North state, and Miss Carrie Smith, being firm believers in the old adage that in love, as well as war, every advantage is allowed left the home of the bride without the knowledge or consent of the powers that be—and arriving at the midnight hour, aroused the Rev. Dr. Edwards of that place and were happily married.

Again last Wednesday p. m., one of our most popular young men, M. B. Edwards, visited Miss Sallie Gregory to go driving. The carriage rolled rapidly to Leesville, where the couple were married. The grooms father, Rev. Joab Edwards, pronounced the nuptial ceremony. After awhile spent with the family there they returned to the home of Mr. I Edwards and the family and friends in large numbers greeted them with an ovation.

The Presiding Elder of this District, Rev. Mr. Beasley, has been in town a few days. He held quarterly meeting at Providence, near here, Saturday and Sunday night was to have preached at the Methodist church in town, but the rain prevented.

Rev. Dr. Wilkins has been at Perry and at Neece's station, in Aiken, and Orangeburg in protracted meetings for the last two weeks. He is delighted with his work at those places and is high in his praise of the good people in those sections.

The building fever has again struck our town and O. W. D. Ricard is building a handsome brick store in the place where his frame building stood. This will make sixteen handsome brick structures in town or nearly half the business houses.

Lieut. Col. John Bell Towill is kept busy at the frequent reviews of the military of the State. The Col. properly attends with his chief, Gov. Heyward on these occasions.

We had a fine rain Sunday, the first, for quite awhile. Crops are only medium. Some complaint is very properly indulged in for in the whole the prospect is worse than for some years past, but the opinion is freely expressed that the prices will be better than for a number of years past.

Concerning Good Roads.

Attention is called to the account of the York County Good Roads Convention published on page 6, of the current issue of this paper. In the absence of the editor the present writer does not feel justified in commenting upon the merits or demerits of these resolutions. However, they are printed for the benefit of the public and those who contemplate attending the convention for this county the 20th instant, will doubtless find it profitable to study them.

The Governor offers a reward of one hundred and fifty dollars in this issue for the apprehension and delivery to the sheriff, George Edwards, who is charged with the murder of William Hall on the 15th day of July 1903.

Hon. Arch B. Calvert was recently re-elected mayor of Spartanburg.

CONGRESSMAN LIVINGSTON

Says Pe-ru-na is a Splendid Catarrhal Tonic.

COLONEL L. I. LIVINGSTON.

Colonel L. I. Livingston, Member of the Industrial Commission and the leading Democratic member of the Committee on Appropriations in the House of Representatives, whose home is at Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I take pleasure in joining with General Wheeler, Congressman Brewer and others in recommending Peruna as an excellent tonic and a catarrh cure."

All phases of catarrh, acute or chronic, are promptly and permanently cured. It is through its operation upon the nervous system that Peruna has attained such a world-wide reputation as a sure and reliable remedy for all phases of catarrh wherever located.

Mr. Jas. O. Morin, 1179 Ontario street Montreal, Canada, writes:

"Peruna is certainly a great catarrh remedy. It cured me of a catarrh of the head and I gladly endorse it. Canadians are peculiarly afflicted with this disease and for years the doctors have tried to overcome it with elixirs, powders and pills, but Peruna has solved the question and since the medicine has been established here hundreds of people have been cured of catarrh."

Delmar Locals.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

Nice rain Saturday.

Mrs. Paul Shealy is recovering from an operation performed by Dr. Efrl.

Three members of Mr. E. U. Shealy's family are confined to their beds with fever.

Mr. W. H. Hare has been elected principal of the Ridge Road school.

Mr. Jno. W. Ballentine has accepted the principalship of a school in Effingham county, Georgia.

Dr. A. S. Shealy went to Allendale last week to examine some stock.

Mr. Tyre Etheredge, of Leesville spent yesterday evening with A. L. Eargle.

Rev. Austin spent yesterday evening with Prof. Quattlebaum. He is assisting Rev. Grose close in a protracted meeting at St. Marks this week.

Protracted services will commence at Hebron on the third Sunday. One service on Sunday.

Miss Minnie Oxner, of Brookland, is visiting her uncle, Mr. J. L. B. Oxner.

Miss Shuler, of Ballentine, is visiting her friend, Miss Jessie Caughman.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Eargle, of Newberry, spent last week with the former's father, Mr. I. P. Eargle.

Mrs. Dr. Hite and children spent a few days with Mr. D. W. Hite and family of near Summit, last week.

Miss Dollie Snelgrove and Mrs. Jno. Bundrick, of Brookland, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Snelgrove.

Mr. J. Luther Moore and cousin, Mrs. Willie Lewis and Miss Effie Powell, of Augusta, Georgia, are visiting the parents of the former, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Moore.

Miss Lula Black, of Pack's, Saluda county, is teaching a music class at Mr. W. M. Shealy's. She is boarding at Mr. J. C. Caughman's.

Last Thursday was the day set for our annual barbecue. The weather was dry and hot, but a crowd of 500 or 700 people was present to hear addresses by Solicitor Thurmond, of Edgefield, Geo. B. Timmerman, of Lexington, E. L. Asbill, of Leesville, W. S. Wightman and B. B. Hare, of Saluda county. After the speaking the young people had a cake walk. The crowd was quiet and everybody seemed to have had a nice time.

Don't forget the Newberry College reunion at this place, Friday of next is the day. Everybody is invited. Aug. 3, 1903. Loyd.

Woeful Tale of A Married Man

"What's the matter, old fellow?" he said as they met the morning after. "You look blue." "I feel blue."

"But last night you were the jolliest member of the party." "I felt jolly."

"You acted like a boy just out of school." "I felt like one."

"You said your wife had gone away for the first time in three years and there wasn't any one to say a word if you went home and kicked over the mantel clock."

"I remember it." "You said that if you stayed out until 4 o'clock there was no one to look at you reproachfully and sigh and make you feel small."

"Yes, and I stayed out until 4 o'clock, didn't I?" "You certainly did."

"And I gave a war whoop on the doorstep?" "Yes; and then you sang a verse from a comic opera song and tried to dance a jig."

"Yes; and my wife had missed the train. Now go away and leave me. I want to kick myself a little more for not taking the precaution to get an affidavit from the guard that she went with the train."

And then he gave himself several bangs on the ears and then shook himself till his hair began to fall out.

The Obstacle.

Farmer—No need to warn him. He is studying his map, and he will surely see that there is an obstacle in the road.

Moments of History.

Elizabeth was about to step on the cloak that Raleigh put down in front when a sudden thought struck her. "Has it been sterilized?" she asked sternly.

It was evident by Raleigh's look of sudden dismay that he had been guilty of gross neglect.

"It only goes to show," said Elizabeth, stinging him through her lorgnette as she was lifted over the puddle. "how even one who loves me so much may grow criminally careless."—Philadelphia Ledger.

A Secondary Consideration.

The demure comedienne has closed with the impresario and has agreed to create the leading role in the new comic opera.

"And now," says the impresario, "what figure would you want for the season?"

"Oh," she titters, with an affectation of embarrassment, "had we not best leave that to the costumer?"—Judge.

In Doubt.

"Do you think that the theatrical profession leads to unhappy marriages?"

"I have never been able to decide," answered the manager, "whether a stage career leads to divorce or divorce leads to a stage career."—Washington Star.

Repartee.

"Ah," he said to her over their ice cream, "it is very sweet, but not so sweet as you."

"It is soft," she returned promptly, "but not so soft as you."

"And it is cold," he concluded, "but not so cold as you."—Philadelphia Press.

For Her Sake.

"Why do you argue with your wife?" asked the bachelor. "Don't you know the futility of it?"

"Of course," replied the married man. "But I have to allow her a little pleasure once in awhile."—Philadelphia Record.

Fully Explained.

Miss Passion—What is a nightmare like, Mr. Crusty?

Mr. Crusty—It's like finding yourself married to a woman who is everlastingly asking fool questions.—Chelsea Gazette.

Joy Unalloyed.

"What's the big book you've got?" "It's a doctor's book I found. Now I can find a whole lot of new diseases for my dolls to have."—Louisville Herald.

Positive Proof.

Will—Are you sure she is from Philadelphia?

Joe—Well, when I proposed she said, "This is so sudden."—Chelsea Gazette.

A New Woman.

She was "swagger" and bold, She was heartless and cold, An amazon, body and mind;

He, a white-livered youth, Fuzzy-lipped and uncouth, Of the goody good, "mamma's boy" kind, She was laying her plan To annihilate man And build a new world, but one day He said, "Will you wed?"

And she pilloved her head On his breast in the old-fashioned way. —The Smiler in Town Topics. May 15-17.
