Once

A child knows a thing he remembers it, but his mother always forgets that cheap shoes are not cheap shoes. She's been stuck time and time again, thinking she would save a quarter, but she will keep on trying.

First Class

School shoes here cost $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50. According to age of child. They are worth having.

Do's From Bakersville.

To the Editor of the Dispatch: I hope the Editor had a merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

The Christmas holidays passed off very quietly in and around this community, only Mr. Charlie Taylor and Mr. Brady Wise, was in a Xmas racket and Mr. Taylor bit Mr. Wise's ears off, and he had to return home minus those very important members of his anatomy.

Mr. W. H. Hawes and wife, and their pretty little daughter, Helen, spent the Christmas holidays with Mrs. T. M. Geiger, and from there they intended visiting relatives in Orangeburg county before returning to their home in Brookland. Miss Ollie Geiger is visiting her cousins, the Misses Rleys, of Orangeburg county.

Some of the young folks of Bakersville, attended Mr. Ned Gardner's ball up on Dry creek.

The charming Miss Maude Bookman, of Columbia, was the guest of Miss Carrie Davis during the Christmas holidays.

Miss Eppie Roof spent the holidays at home, but returned on the 3rd to take charge of her school.

Mr. Joe Burton teacher at Pine Grove school, went home to spend the holidays, but is now at his post again.

Mr. H. C. Rucker is at home from Darlington, much to the delight of his many friends.

Master Herman and little Miss Annie Rucker, spent the holidays with relatives at Rowsville. They have returned much delighted with their visit.

Miss Lillie Rucker is visiting her cousin, Miss Maude Mack, of Leesville.

Master Crosson Rucker, of Columbia, has been visiting his aunt, Mrs. J. A. Kaigler.

Mr. Addison Moore and family, of Columbia, have been visiting around Bakersville.

Cadet G. F. Kaigler returns to-day to Clemson College, after spending the holidays with homefolks.

General Longstreet Dead.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 2.—Gen. Longstreet, soldier, statesman and diplomat and the last lieutenant general of the Confederate army with the exception of Gen. Gordon, died in Gainesville, Ga., this afternoon at 6 o'clock from an attack of acute pneumonia. He had been ill two days and was 84 years old. He is survived by his wife, four sons and a daughter. He will be buried in Gainesville, which has been his home since the Civil war.

Gen. James Longstreet was born in Edgefield district, S. C., Jan. 8, 1821. He was appointed to the military academy from Alabama, where he graduated in 1842. He won his spurs in the Mexican war, where he participated in eight important battles and was brevetted captain and major for gallant conduct. When the Civil war began he enlisted on the Confederate side and was immediately made brigadier general. He had an important part in many of the battles and was known as one of the hardest fighters in the service. He was in the surrender at Appomattox. After the war he took up his residence in New Orleans and established a commercial house of which he was the head. He was appointed surveyor of the port of New Orleans by President Grant, and was afterwards supervisor of internal revenue in New Orleans and postmaster in that city. He was sent as United States minister to Turkey by President Hayes and under President Garfield was United States marshal for the district of Georgia. Some years ago he was appointed United States commissioner of railroads with headquarters at Washington, which position he held till the time of his death.

Removal Notice.

The well known Frank's Jobbing House, of 1554 Main street, Columbia, will move about January 15th to their new and larger store room, which is now being completed for them at 1427 Main street. Nothing from the old store will be moved to the new one. All goods now on hand will be slaughtered regardless of cost. Let our people take advantage of this great sale.

Salesday.

Our streets and business places were thronged Monday with citizens from almost every section of our county and gladly did we greet them.

The Board of County Commissioners, Board of Control, and the Board of Registration were in session. The Tax Collector and the Auditor were as busy as bees in the Spring time. Our merchants, too, were well patronized. But the drawing card was the sales advertised, and some were badly disappointed. The sale of the estate lands of W. B. and Mrs. Harriet Seay were estopped by order of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, pending the adjudication of the rights of parties interested. This left for the Clerk of Court only the sale of land in the case of Martha A. Rawl vs. J. C. Harman and others, containing 109 acres, which was bought by Reuben M. Harman for $135.00.

The chaingang property was not sold.

The personal property of the estate of J. A. Muller, consisting of buggy, wagon, harness, farming implements, etc., were sold and brought fair prices. The two horses were sold privately for $250.00.

Soon after dinner you could see the people leaving for their respective homes, facing the chilly wind and cold threatening weather. And how good did they feel when once at their own firesides at home.

Chip Off of the Old Block.

Mr. Banj F. Derrick of Hilton, a chip of the old block, and an allround good fellow, did not come to town Monday, but sent his first dollar for the Dispatch, knowing it to be a mighty good thing to have in a family.

THE JAMES L. TAPP COMPANY,

ANOTHER WONDERFUL SALE OF LADIES' UNDERWEAR.

The best prepared sale ever held in Columbia. No such grand collection of fine underwear has ever been shown on the retail counters of any store in the entire South. Immense quantities, varieties, and assortments. These are all beautifully made garments, the most sanitary methods being used. They are all the daintiest and neatest that careful workmanship can produce. There are garments in this sale at 10 cents and as high as $15.00 and in every case the price asked is about half the real value.

To make this sale a more VALUE giving occasion, we had the good fortune to secure from a prominent manufacturer 500 Dozen Ladies' Muslin Underwear.

consisting of Night Gowns, Chemises, Skirts, both long and short, Corset Covers and Drawers, which we shall offer at the ridiculous price of 25 Cents a Garment.

Every garment is perfect fitting, handsomely trimmed with choice laces and embroideries.

Besides this great amount of fine underwear, we have on a special sale of White Goods. There are lawns and organdies, silk mixed goods with satin stripes and figures, madras and mercerized goods. Then about 30,000 yards of Embroideries, Edgings and Insertions. And ribbons in all widths and all shades, the very finest quality of silk. All these at prices less than half the wholesale price. You can't afford to miss this White Sale.

THE JAMES L. TAPP COMPANY, Columbia, S. C.

Harness and Saddlery.

No Greater Mistake Can Be Made

Than imagining that it is economy to buy the cheapest Harness and Saddlery Goods, because the price seems low.

THE SHODDY CHARACTER of CHEAP GOODS.

Takes away all apparent saving and always conduces to dissatisfaction.

We make a special point on the character of our goods—We positively deal in goods of reliable workmanship and A. 1. material.

Lowest Prices

Consistent with a high standard of excellence always obtains at our place.

We earnestly invite inspection of goods and prices. We positively mean to do the best we can by our patrons. Very truly,
