German Sympathy.
Paris, Feb. 19.—The Figaro publishes a report that Colonel Von Schenk, of the German regiment of guards, of which the czar is honorary colonel, was received by the czar Monday and delivered a confidential letter from Emperor William written in the emperor's own hand. It is considered significant and as indicating the desire of Germany to side with Russia, in which case there will be further complications.

Means the ability to do a good day's work, without undue fatigue and to find life worth living. You cannot have indigestion or constipation without its upsetting the liver and polluting the blood. Such a condition may be best and quickest obtained by Herbine, the best liver regulator that the world has ever known. Mrs. D. W. Got the Dog Fairly.
Two little boys were having what appeared to be a warm discussion about a dog, which one of them held by a string, in a down town park when a group was joined by a grave-looking man, who stopped and asked: "Well, boys, what's the matter?" "We're telling lies for this here dog," explained one of the youngsters, annoyed at being interrupted, "and the one that tells the biggest gets the cur."
"Do you not know, advised the new-comer, sagely, "it is very wrong to tell untruths?" Now, I never told a lie in my life."
The boys looked at each other incredulously and then one of them exclaimed: "It's his dog! We ain't in his class!"
