Brookland Ripples.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

Many of our handsome beaux and lovely bells have been enjoying the pleasure rides on the flying trapezes for the last few weeks. It runs day and night.

Several of our lively business men are enjoying hunting and fishing, and putting in good time too, for to their sorrow the hunting season will soon close. There are many fine bird dogs here, but Mr. E. W. Shull has the champion bird dog in town.

Mr. Ernest Wingard, and wife, of Countsville, spent last Thursday night with Mr. M. H. Witt and family.

Misses Hattie Hawes and Annie Moak, two of our loveliest young ladies, have opened a full line of millinery. Everything is beautiful to look at, and we wish for them abundance of success. Also another new millinery store has been opened in the large store of Mr. Mott Gunter, by two young ladies. We have not been able to learn their names, but trust they will be successful and remain here.

Report says six or more soda fountains will open up at an early day—surely we will have cool drinks enough.

Mrs. J. L. M. Oxner, and her little son, Dow, are off on a visit to relatives and friends at and near Leesville.

Mrs. Adam Brenhemer and Mr. W. A. Moody, have returned home from the Columbia hospital much improved in health.

Mrs. J. M. Gunter is still there but improving.

Mr. P. J. Wessinger is able to attend to his daily business again to the pleasure of his many friends.

Two of our jolly young men, the Meetze Brothers, have decided not to take charge of their brother's farm at the old Loric place, a few miles above here, but remain here and attend to their own affairs, they are industrious and go-ahead boys.

Last Monday our military company marched to Columbia in a body for examination and gave satisfaction in health and beauty. We have a company to be proud of.

We are sad to state the death of Mrs. Paul Shealy, which occurred last Wednesday evening. Her remains were interred in the Boiling Springs cemetery, on Thursday. She leaves a large family and many relatives to mourn her departure but their loss is her gain.

Well, so far, no more orange blossoms have bloomed but rumors say there are plenty buds that will be in full bloom ere long. I will tell you later all about them.

Wishing the many readers and the Editor of the Dispatch a merry Easter, and promising to return in a couple of weeks, I remain,
"Robin Red"

Tribute of Respect.

Brookland Council, Junior Order of United American Mechanics.

Whereas, it has pleased God in His infinite wisdom to remove from our midst our worthy Brother, D. H. Werts, who departed this life on February 8th, 1904. Another link in our Fraternal circle has been broken; another Brother has crossed the silent river and gone to that bourne from which no traveller ever returns. We are admonished that we, too, are mortal and the places which now know us will soon know us no more forever; that ere long, we, too, will be numbered with the pale nations of the dead; therefore, be it, Resolved 1st. That in the death of Brother Werts, Brookland Council, No. 35, Jr. O. U. A. M., has lost a faithful and efficient member, whose place cannot be filled.

2d. That the usual emblems of mourning be used for thirty days and that a page in our minute book be suitably inscribed to his memory.

3d. That the sympathy of this Council is hereby sincerely tendered the bereaved family of our departed Brother.

4th. That the Lexington Dispatch be requested to publish this preamble and resolutions and that a copy be sent to our Brother's family.

Notes from Rightwell.

To the Editor of the Dispatch.

Our farmers have been pushing their work rapidly during the past few weeks. Most of them are through breaking up their land.

Mr. J. L. Huffstetler was the first to plant corn in this section. We are of the opinion that he is quite early.

Mr. J. M. Epting has closed his school at Pine Ridge. Mr. M. P. Linder will also close his school in a few weeks, and is preparing to have an entertainment.

Mr. W. D. Huffstetler and wife visited Mr. J. A. Huffstetler and family last Sunday.

The grain crop has improved a great deal. Wheat looks fine but oats are thin.

Mr. Hamp Raut has a smile on his face as broad as a twelve inch board. It is a girl.

Our Sunday school at St. Peters has organized with W. D. Huffstetler as superintendent; J. W. Mayer assistant supt; Eddie Frick, secty. Let us all join in and have one of the best Sunday schools in the county is the desire of a Scribbler.

Letter to T. H. Caughman.

Lexington, S. C.

Dear Sir. A gallon saved is $4 or $5 earned.

Two gallons saved is $8 or $10 earned.

Three gallons saved is $12 or $15 earned.

Four gallons saved is $16 or $25 earned.

It costs $3 or $4 a gallon to paint, besides the paint; as much to brush on a gallon of worthless paint as Devco.

Mr. Ezra Rathmell, Williamsport, Pa., always used 11 gallons of mixed paint for his house; Devco took 6.

Yours truly,

F. W. Devco & Co.,
New York.

P. S. The Kaufmann Drug Co., sells our paint.

Dots From South Lexington.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

Well, Mr. Editor, I guess that you think that I have forgotten the Dispatch and its Editor, but I have not. I have been busy in my work at school but it is now out and I can send in a few items of news.

Everything is quiet along this border to night.

Guano putting out and corn planting is now the work of today on the farm.

Mr. Simon Lucas and his wife are now smelling the sweetness of the flowers in the land of the sunny south.

The plum and peach trees are in full bloom. The sweet perfume of these blooms are delicious. So soon will bob white sit on the fence and make his voice sound through the air.

The Sunday school at Smith Branch is now beginning to flourish as the weather gets warmer.

There was a Sunday school organized at Florence church Sunday, with Mr. Marion Rish as Superintendent.

The school at Smith Branch has come to a close after a most successful term of five months and a half, under the skillful management of Miss Sue H. Corley. She is one among the best teachers in Lexington county. She has taught three terms in succession at this place.

Miss Julia Shealy, who was attending school at this place, has returned to her home in New Brookland.

Mr. D. F. Shumpert is doing a flourishing business at Pelion.

Miss Clara Rish is clerking at Pelion.

Mr. Henry Lucas is now in Florida. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Derrick, of Lexington cotton mill, have moved back on Black Creek.

Well, Mr. Editor, I am watching the dogwood bloom, they will soon be out and then come down and let's look in some of those dark holes in Black Creek.

God makes my life a little light,
Within the world to glow;
A little flame that burneth bright,
Where ever I may go.

Wishing the Editor and the readers of the Dispatch a happy time, I am,
Birdie.
