Schedules Changed.

An important change in the schedules of the Southern road between Columbia and Augusta will go into effect next Sunday. The run of Nos. 129 and 130 will be changed so as to have 129 leave Columbia at 5:30 a. m., instead of 3:30 and No. 130 is to arrive in Columbia from Augusta at 12:10 a. m., instead of 3:30 a. m. The "Batesburg Greased Lighting" is to arrive in Columbia at 11 a. m., instead of 10:30 a. m., as heretofore.

A Card of Thanks.

To the Editor of the Dispatch: Please allow me space in your paper to thank the good people of Lexington, for the pounding which was given me last Saturday night. Everything that was good and nice was brought in and placed on the table. It was highly appreciated and may the good Lord bless these givers, for it is more blessed to give than to receive. I pray God that he will bless our labors together in the salvation of souls. Very Respectfully, Rev. W. L. Keel, Pastor of Lexington Baptist church. April 11, 1904.

Fire.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

The dry kiln, belonging to the Leesville Manufacturing Co., was burned to the ground last night. About 8000 feet of lumber together with the house, piping, fixtures, etc., were destroyed, loss will amount to 6 or 7 hundred dollars. No insurance. By hard work the flames were kept from the roller mill and other buildings. Sol. Leesville, April 14, 1904.

In Jail.

Magistrate Marchant, of the Brookland district, yesterday committed to jail Ed Singleton, colored, to await trial at the Sessions Court on the charge of assault and battery with intent to kill.

Charley Hill and Arthur Riley, charged with breaking into and robbing the store of H. J. Burgess, at Steadman, some time ago, are now in jail.

This makes seven prisoners now in jail, all colored and all for the June term of court.

South Lexington Items.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

The health of this community is very good at this time.

Most of our farmers are through planting corn and are beginning to plant cotton.

You can hear some of the women quarreling about the hawks catching their chickens.

Mr. J. O. Spradley and Mr. S. W. Berry are visiting Leesville today.

We can begin to hear of the cues for 1904. Guess the woods will be full of candidates.

The Sunday school convention will meet with the Sunday school at Smith Branch on Friday before the fourth Sunday in May.

Mrs. Nettie Kyzer has been very ill but is better at this writing.

Mr. John T. Kyzer, who has been visiting his sons, on Pond Branch, has returned home.

Mr. Lot Gunter has returned home from a visit to Columbia.

Mr. Bunyon Kyzer visited Irene Easter Sunday.

Wishing the Dispatch and its many readers a happy time I am Birdie.

Death.

Nathaniel Oxner departed this life April 9, 1904, in the 60th year of his age.

Four days ago today the reaper, death, entered the household and carried off a devoted husband and loving father. One who was ever solicitous of the happiness and welfare of his loved ones. His presence is greatly missed, but his memory will ever be cherished by us. We would not wish him back from the heavenly home, where he rests secure from all the ills and pains of this life. We will look forward to that happy meeting where there shall be no more parting, but one endless eternity of happiness.

He died in Jesus and is blessed. How calm his slumbers are! From sufferings and from sin released. And freed from every snare.

P. H. Corley.

Dots from Shumpert.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

The farmers are tilling the soil in every direction and I think a good deal of cotton will be planted, as all the farmers say "there is money in cotton."

Miss Sallie Bookman, of Columbia, spent last week at Dr. J. W. Geiger's.

Miss Carrie Golsan, of Orangeburg, is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Ella Baggett.

Mr. Kusler and Lillie Geiger went to Columbia last Saturday on business.

Mr. Oscar Fallaw, a promising young man from the Draughtons Business College in Columbia, spent Saturday night and Sunday at home.

Mr. Ed. Dyke's and his little daughter, Maggie, spent Saturday night at Mr. J. H. Pound's.

Mr. Oscar Spires will preach at G-ston the fourth Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m.

Miss Mincy Pound left Saturday for Lexington, where she will enter the Palmetto Collegiate Institute.

With best wishes to the Dispatch and its many readers, I am, A Lark. April 11, 1904.
