cosput, puddine, corn starch, etc., at the Bazaar. Miss Lizzie and Emma Julia Dreher, of the Fork, were in town shopping Tnursday. Mr. G. Frank Son, of this vicinity.

called in Thursday and paid his subscription. The cold weather of last week did little or no damage to vegetation hereabouts. Money deposited with The Home Bank earns interest every minute it is left there. The spring dress patterns for ladies' wear are like Joseph's coat, being of many colors. On account of business in the Fork Dr. Shealy will not be in his office the 28, 29 and 30. The Seaboard Air Line will build a more comfortable waiting room at Swansea for whites and blacks. Candidates-Only three dollars for the round trip and a nomination guaranteed if you get enough votes. Democrats of the Spring Hill section, attend your club meeting next Saturday. See the call.

The Main street of Lexington, will now compare favorably with that of any other town in the State.

Portland and Rosendale Cement for sale at Lexington Department Store. Prices the lowest.

We are constrained to believe that the dispensary law is not enforced as strictly by the dispensers as it should

Some Democratic clubs have declared for and others against the nomitation of Magistrates by the primary election.

All kinds of legal blanks, including those used by Magistrates, for sale at the Bazaar.

Col. Geo. Bell Timmerman left yesterday afternoon to attend the marriage of Frank F. Herndon at Bishopville.

Mr. Willie Dooley, a rising young farmer of this vicinity, called in Saturday and gave us the subscription grip.

Some say that the cotton acreage will be considerably increased in this county this year over what it was last year.

Just received at the Lexington Department Store a solid car of Lime which will be sold at lowest price. See us and save money.

The average housewife during these warm and genial days now spends the most of her time in the garden trying to show her husband how to kill grass.

Iron beds and cribs, all styles and prices, just received. Springs for all styles of Iron and wooden beds. Call and see them at Scott Hendrix's.

A J Fox, cashier of The Home Bank, of this place, is in attendance upon the Banker's Association, in session at Spartanburg.

Lexington should by all means have a first class brass band. We have plenty of excellent material if the boys would only get together.

We are compelled to boil things down just now, and trusts our correspondents will bear with us until we can treat them nicely. A number of articles are crowded out of this Riding Cultivators, Walking Cultivators. Harrowtooth Cultivators. Also many other implements at the Lexington Department Store.

See the list of pensioners in this county. The money is now in the hands of Clerk George, for distribution among those whose names have been accepted by the State and county board.

When you come to town remember that you can find good cigars, smoking tobacco and a line of nice pipes, at the Bazaar.

State Inspector Walter J. Mc-Cartha, in checking up the books of the dispenser at Prosperity, found the accounts of that officer short something over $1,000 The dispenser has been suspended.

Your valuable papers will be safe in one of the safe deposit boxes at The Home Bank. You hold the key; we keep the box safe from fire.

Mr. Thos. E. Rawl left yesterday for Rock Hill, to attend the Grand Lodge of Junior Order Mechanics as a delegate from Hampton Lodge No. 51, of Irene, and Miss Sallie Wingard is there as the representative the Kings Daughters.

Horebound, Mullein and Tar relieves that hoarseness and prevents an attack of LaGrippe and pneumonia. There is nothing like it. Large bottles only 25 cents. Murray Drug Co.

Mr. George S Long, who resides on the Lewiedale, R. F. D. No. 2: was in town trading Monday, and concluding that he would like to keep up with the political news, dropped in and the Dispatch now goes to his home.

Those desiring to attend the old soldiers reunion at Charleston or at Nashville, Tenn., will notify Col. M. D. Harman at once, that arrangements for their transportation, board, etc, can be made. The time is near so give it your early attention.

The Lexington Department Store is receiving shipments of goods daily. The dry goods, shoe and clothing departments are constantly being made stronger. Your pratronage is solicited.

As a general rule the farmers of Lexington county are better off financially and socially than those of any other county on God's green footstool. The reason is that they live at home and board at the same place. That is, they make their own hog and hominy.

Fewer gallons; wears longer; Devoe.

As we go to press we learn that there was a shooting scrape at Monetta this morning in which one white mar lost his life, another seriously, probably fatally injured, and others being hunted with a pistol.

We are indebted to Earle Sloan, State Geologist, for a copy of "A Preliminary Report on the Clays of South Carolina." It is a valuable work and should be in the hands of every person interested in this matter.

Oak Grove Items.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

The farmers of this section are about through planting now and are ready to go to plowing corn and oh! my, the cotton that they did plant, thinking they will get 124 and 15c for it. But I'll bet they will be very glad to get 7c. Don't you think so, Mr. Editor?

Tha fruit crop of this section will be very slim. Very near all the peaches are killed and a good many of the apples.

Mrs. John Cromer, who has been quite ill for sometime, is now improving. We are glad to say that Mrs. M. K. Kaminer, who has been troubled with her eyes for sometime, is improving also.

Mr. and Mrs. Justus Wingard, of the Midway section, visited the home of the latter's father, Mr. W. F. Corley, Sunday.

There was a very large congregation at St. David's church Sunday.

The school at this place, which has been under control of Mr. W. U. Fair, has closed and Mr. Fair has returned to his home in Edgefield. Mr. Silas Cromer, of Columbia, visited his father, Rev. J A Cromer, Sunday.

A small crowd from this vicinity spent a pleasant; but an awful rainy day, at Mr. E I. Sox's the third Sunday, at the wedding feast which was given to his son, Mr. Wade Sox, who was married that morning at N-w Brookland to Miss Lula Bundrick, of that place. They spent the day at the home of the groom and returned to Brookland in the evening. We wish them a long and happy life.

We regret to learn that Mr. B. C. Lybrand is quite ill and has been for sometime, but we wish him a speedy recovery.

The young folks of this section are expecting a gay time at the picnic, which is to beat the Sox & Kaminer barbecue ground, on the 12 h of May, next, being Ascension day. Cindidates and everybody are invited to come and erjoy themselves. A Friend.

Bright Lawyer.

The Wateree Messenger.

We had a pleasant call a few days ago from Mr. George Bell Timmerman, who is a candidate for Solicitor for the Fifth Circuit. He represented Solicitor Thurmond at the recent term of court for this county. He made a very pleasant impression upon those with whom he came in contact, with the exception of the criminals he prosecuted. Mr. Timmerman is a son of Dr. W. H. Timmerman, ex-State Treasurer, and is a genial young gentleman and a bright lawyer.
