A Dead Body Found.

Last Sunday morning Mr. West Roberts found the body of an unknown man on his fish trap just below Wyse's Ferry, on Saluda river, and Coroner A. O. Wilson was at once notified of the grewsome find. The body had evidently been in the water for some time as it was badly decomposed and his face and intrils had been eaten away by buzzards or some other cormorants. The body was clothed with shirt, suspenders, and pants of small checked pattern in the pockets of which was a pocket book containing 11 cents in money and two fish hooks. It is not known whether the body was that of a negro or a white man, as the body was so badly decomposed as to be unrecognizable. His right foot had also been torn off. There was no visible signs of foul play. The verdict of the Coronors' jury was as follows. "That the unknown deceased came to his death from causes unknown to the jury." The jury was undecided as to the color of the deceased. The Coroner had the body buried near the banks of the river.

Letter to W. Q. M. Berley.

Dear Sir: The cheap paint to buy is the one that covers more than you think; the cheap one to wear is the one that is young when old. Mrs. Moore, of Kelsey, N. Y., bought 16 gallons Devoe to paint her house two coats; her painters said it would take that. Had 6 gallons left. Mr. James Ackley's house, in Cairo (Catskill Mountains,) N. Y., was painted Devoe; it wore 14 years; and the paint was in good condition then. He was going to paint, the last we knew, though. That's the way to preserve a house; repaint when there's no occasion. Yours truly, F. W. Devoe & Co., New York. P. S. The Kaufmann Drug Co., sells our paint.

SHYLOCK

Shylock was the man who wanted a pound of human flesh. There are many Shylocks now, the convalescent, the consumptive, the sickly child, the pale young woman, all want human flesh and they can get it—take Scott's Emulsion.

Scott's Emulsion is flesh and blood, bone and muscle. It feeds the nerves, strengthens the digestive organs and they feed the whole body.

For nearly thirty years Scott's Emulsion has been the great giver of human flesh.

We will send you a couple of ounces free.
