Revival Meeting Closed.

The revival meeting which has been going on for sometime in the Baptist church in this place closed last Thursday evening. There were added to the church thirteen members—three by letter and ten by baptism. We believe that there are others who will shortly connect themselves with this branch of the Christian church. The ordinance of baptism will be administered to candidates next Sunday afternoon at about 5 o'clock in the mill pond by the pastor.

Boys, how about that brass band?

Klondike's Notes.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

This is the day of barbecues and candidates and we are going to have our share of the 'cues whether we get the candidates or no.

Our friend Frye's on July 2nd, D. D. Smith's on July 9th and A. Taylor's on July 28th. Of course the boys will come to all of these and meet the dear people.

We are having another dry spell, but crops are growing nicely.

The hum of the thresher is heard in the land and now how nice to eat home made biscuits and sop home made honey or forsooth to pull the brown ribs of the fallen hog.

It is said that Solomon had 500 wives and 700 concubines and then didn't get along well, but our friend Solomon Day is perfectly happy with just one girl. And nee Miss Rhoda Gantt, is now Miss Day. May they have many days of joy and gladness.

Prof. Rizer is now carrying the mail for Mr. Addy, who is off with the steam thresher.

Let ever carrier in the county spend the 4th in Columbia and have a good time telling over his fortunes or misfortunes to his fellow carrier.

Mr. J. Luther Smith, the contractor, is now putting up a fine dwelling for Mr. A. Taylor at the Fowle's place.

Mr. James Jefcoat has some cotton bolls in his field. Who can beat that?

The Hall Brothers have made some new improvements in their mill here and are now running almost day and night.

In this time Russia's submarine fighting machines ought to be monarch of all they survey.

A protracted meeting is now in progress at the Methodist church here. The pastor, Rev. J. E. Strickland, is doing the preaching. We hope much good will be the result.

NEW YORK RACKET STORE,

BATESBURG, S. C.

Swansea Doings.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

W. H. Hilderbrand has leased the Gantt Hotel and employed Mrs. Mays, an accomplished lady, to conduct the business of the hotel, and the traveling public will find a convenient and well kept inn for their relief and comfort.

On the second Sunday the Methodist Sunday school had Children's Day and the children acquitted themselves well and in credit. Hon. W. H. F. Rast, the superintendent, and Rev. Dukes made short addresses.

On the third Sunday Rev. Vernon T. Anson preached a sermon in the Baptist church for the Junior Order of United American Mechanics. He said in part that, the basal principle and structure of the order was the Holy Bible. Above this as a superstructure was the American Constitution, and above that as a crowning coronation, the flag of our Republic. Its motto seems to be America for Americans, and care and relief to any suffering member of the brotherhood. No one can join but a native born American male white citizen and eighteen years old. The order seems to have grown up in the middle States and New England from the conflict there with the Roman Catholics in trying to drive the Bible from the common schools and controlling the funds for the schools.

Swansea has gotten one Rural mail route and now another examination has been ordered and several applicant's petitions have gone in for the route.

The schools have closed and our teachers and students have returned home.

Wilfred Brooker has been teaching in Bingham school, in Asheville, N. C., Liwood D. Corbitt at Johnston, S. C., and Miss Vivian Rast at Centre Hill and Saml. S. Derrick at Eoree, are now in Swansea for the summer.

Miss Varn from Hampton has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Rast, and Miss Turner from Florida, has been spending some time with the family of Dr. Brooker, have both returned home.

Sallie Rast has returned from school at Williamston Female College, Lucius Brooker from S. C. College and Sallie Courtney from school at Edgefield, and Ethel Brooker having finished the entire curriculum of the Greenville Female College has returned a full graduate and another educated lady has been added to the already large number of Lexington county.

L. P. Smith is a candidate for Sheriff and hopes to be the choice of the people, and W. H. Hilderbrand is a candidate for the Magistrate's office and hopes to be Judge Hilderbrand soon. Both are good men and as such deserve the support of their countrymen.

Paul E. Hutto and Frank Hodge have bought two Guernsey cows and calves from Mr. Moore of Bennettsville, S. C., and are well pleased with them.

Spectator.

An Old Citizen Gone.

We learn from the Edisto Record, published at Wagener, that Mr. John Garvin, of Aiken county, died at his home on June 14th in the 91st year of his age. He was one of the oldest citizens of the Wagener section and spent his life upon the farm. He was a citizen of this county before his township was cut off to form Aiken county, and was well and favorably known to many of our citizens.

Canned Fruits and Vegetables.

Mr. Henry Ballentine and S. F. Taylor have a canning plant in successful operation two miles from this place. They will can fruits and vegetables either for half, or cans will be furnished at 5 1/2 cents filled. This is an excellent opportunity for our people to have their fruits, berries and vegetables canned for winter use.
