Married.

Married, September 18, 1904, at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. S. J. Riddle, Mr. John T. Daily, Jr., and Miss Lula Folk.

Barbecue.

I will furnish a barbecue and refreshments at Nellie's Spring, near Brookland, on Saturday, the 24th of September, next. A good dinner will be served and a nice time promised all who attend.

S. A. Carter.

W. H. and F. M. S.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of St. Michael's church, Selwood, S. C., will hold its annual meeting on the first Sunday in October. Dr. and Mrs. J. A. B. Scherer will deliver addresses. The public is cordially invited.

New Millinery.

Ladies, call and see the line of beautiful hats, all new styles, trimmings and a job lot of ribbons just received at Mrs. Alice Timmons, millinery. No use to go elsewhere for the hats and prices will suit you.

To Successful Candidates.

Remember your pledge and help the Secretary expedite matters by a prompt compliance in the second assessment, which is, as you know, half the first. F. H. Hendrix, Secty. Ex Com.

Farewell Sermons.

We are requested to say that Rev. George S. Bearden will preach his farewell sermons in the churches of his charge, commencing at Nazareth on the first Sunday in October, at 11 a. m. He will move to North Carolina about the first of November. He is beloved by the people here and they regret to part with him.

If the Baby is Cutting Teeth.

Be sure and use that old and well-tried remedy, Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle. It is the Best of All.

An Icecream Festival.

There will be an ice cream sociable at the residence of Mr. Henry Steele, Saturday night, the 24th inst., at 7 p. m., furnished by Misses Virgie, Ella and Maggie Steele. The young folks are especially invited and a nice time is promised all who may attend.

Colored Camp Meeting.

We are authorized to state that a camp meeting will begin on Friday, September 23rd, at Gregg Springs, A. M. E. church, near double branches. Everybody, white and colored, are cordially invited to attend. The pastor, Rev. M. Weston, will be assisted by Revs. Harper, Bradford and Dunlap.

Married in Conway.

Mr. James W. Ogilvie, our assistant Editor and efficient foreman, is absent this week attending the marriage of his second daughter, Pauline, to Dr. McCord, in Conway. The State of today says, Dr. W. E. McCord and bride arrived in the city last night and are registered at the Jerome. They will visit the St. Louis Exposition and other places during the next few weeks.

Picnic.

Under the auspices of the Farmers' Alliance, a picnic will be given at Hilton, S. C., Saturday, October 1st, 1904. There will be speeches by Mr. Charles Petty, of the Cotton Plant, Hon. James Talbert, and perhaps others. The citizens are earnestly requested to attend and to bring their families and baskets. The speeches will be especially instructive to the farmer, his wife and children. The program will open at 11 a. m.

Hello Central! Hello!

The Lexington Telephone Exchange is a reality. The supplies for the line and here, the poles are being distributed, and soon we will be, not only in touch and hello distance of all business places and residences in town, but with the outside world. This exchange will be of untold advantage to our citizens and the corporators, Messrs. A. J. Fox and Dr. J. E. Kaufmann, deserve credit for their enterprising spirit and business tact, looking to the upbuilding and betterment of our town.

A Card.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

Permit me through your columns to say a few things about the recent campaign and to thank the people for their kindness and support.

In duration the campaign was unusual. In extent it reached by its efficient meetings every township except one. The weather was suited to the best interest of man and beast, being showery while we were in the sandy country and with few exceptions fair while we were in the clay sections.

The crops all over the county are from good to better. The people everywhere met us with pleasant smiles and hearty handshakes. Hospitality was shown us on every side not grudgingly, but with Christian cheerfulness. The cuisiniers gave us wholesome and well cooked meats, the only defect being that I am so constituted or habituated that I could not eat at every spread.

The hurtful attachment of the dance to the speakers time and ground showed up on only a few occasions. To see this disappearing is evidence that our people are respecting the arrangements made by the County Executive Committee for campaign elections. A dance or anything else which distracts the minds of speakers or hearers has no more right at, and on the time of a campaign meeting, than at a school room during school hours. Association with the large body of candidates for twenty-seven days kindled feelings of attachment to them which will last through the coming years. The only unpleasant task imposed upon me by any one of them was laid by Senator Sharpe. He, by it, removed himself beyond my help, and has received what he merited—defeat.

With thanks to the people for their many acts of kindness shown during the campaign, and for the support given me on the 30th of August, and pledging again my best efforts in behalf of a higher standard of citizenship, I am yours for service. Job Edwards.

Letter to D. E. Ballentine.

Lexington, S. C.

Dear Sir: Its an old saying: The best advertisement is a pleased customer.

It happens to us continually in this way: A man buys Devoe for his house—he has painted it once in three years for a dog's-age, and thinks he knows what he wants—buys 30 gallons, and has 10 left.

He sees right-off that 20 Devoe is as much as 30 of anything else; it comes quick; it is a surprise; and he tells of it. The best advertisement is a pleased customer.

Three years roll round. There isn't a sign that his house needs paint; he don't paint it. Next year he don't paint it. This comes slow; it is a surprise; but he has got used to it. Still the best advertisement is a pleased customer.

Yours truly, F. W. Devoe & Co., New York.
