A Card of Thanks.

I take this method of thanking my friends for the handsome vote they gave me in the recent primary election in my race for Sheriff. The handsome majority I received was truly more than I expected and I pledge myself in advance to strive to attend to the duties of the office in such a manner that four years hence I can lay my commission down unscathed. P. H. Corley.

Visit His Store.

Have you seen the beautiful line of winter dress goods and millinery carried by Wm. Platt, Columbia? If not, you should certainly call there when in the city and see his stock. Mr. Platt is from this county and is well known here. His rule is to carry the best goods in his line even if he can't sell as cheap as the cheapest, but he gives his word that every piece of goods he sells is standard in quality and is worth a little more than the purchaser pays for it.

Leg Amputated.

John Boyd, a colored well digger, while cleaning out a well on Monday evening last, for Miss Dana Rish, near Fredonia, started down in the well and the rope broke and he fell 55 feet to the bottom of the well. He was unconscious for sometime and his left leg was so badly broken that amputation was necessary. Dr. D. M. Crosson, assisted by Dr. W. A. Byars, amputated the leg just below the knee and is doing fairly well under the circumstances.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Eva, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Derrick, to Mr. J. S. Caughman. The happy event will take place on Wednesday afternoon, November 23rd, 1904, at the residence of the bride's parents in this place.

Miss Estelle, daughter of Mr. W. A. Harman, left Monday to fill her engagement as assistant teacher of the Athens school near Swansea. Mr. J. V. Smith is the principal. Miss Estelle is a bright, studious and intelligent young lady and the trustees have made a wise selection in securing her services.

Mr. P. H. Corley, constable for Magistrate Bradford, located Mose Dreher, an escaped convict from the chain gang under a five years sentence, near the Newberry line and went for his man and returned Saturday. Mose is now doing work for the county under the direction of Captain Jake Bickley.
