TRUTH IN POETRY.

We have Shoes for the farmer's son
To run across the fields,
In leathers black and glossy,
With both hard and rubber heels.
We have Shoes for the ploughman
And his mate who draws the hoe.
And Shoes for the sportsman
When on a pleasure trip he goes.
We have Shoes for every season
And in styles that can't be best,
And Shoes at popular prices
To fit the different shapes of feet,
We have shod the feet of Columbia
For some twenty years or so,
And we hope to have this pleasure
For at least that many more.
Whenever you are in need of Shoes
Come in and take a peep—
Our goods are known from Pudding
Swamp
To the banks of Rafting Creek.

Leesville Items.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:
The weather is fine again.
The good rain has been a means by which the farmers could get their grain sown and in nice condition.
And the "fleece staple" still hangs at about 9 1/2 cents. There will be a large number of people deceived this year by the experience of last year, but cotton will hardly go to 17 cents again.

Col. and Mrs. Asbill have returned from their trip to St. Louis and reported a most excellent time.

Revs. Austin, Buck and Groseclose returned Monday from their trip to Synod. They looked just like they had had plenty of chicken to eat and say the Synod was well attended.

Mrs. James R. Bouknight has returned from the meeting of the Women's Missionary Society, held at Cameron.

Mr. H. A. Meetze, wife and little child, have arrived and are at present making their home at Mr. Crum Ables. Mr. Meetze will be the cashier of the bank.

Mr. J. R. Bouknight is all smiles, the better half has returned.

Mr. W. E. Quattlebaum has moved into his residence on Church street.

Mr. Daniel Gunter has returned from a trip to Spartanburg. He says wood is not by any means as cheap in Spartan regions as in Leesville.

Dr. E. J. Etheredge is back from Orangeburg, where he was attending the South Carolina Synod.

Miss Lila Moak and Miss Clara Rawl have been visiting Mrs. W. Augustus Shealy.

Miss Allie Lou Kreps has returned from a visit to her home in Columbia.

Dr. Mitchell, of Batesburg, was in town last week just as lively as ever, with a double smile on his face. The story is simply this: That he is shortly going on a trip to Orangeburg and bring back a bride. Good Dr., much success to you.

Dr. J. P. Drafts was in town Thursday, with a still more pleasant smile than usual, on his way to Barr, where he was happily married to Miss Lucia Oswald. Several of our people attended the marriage. They left on the 5:30 train for St. Louis where they will spend their honeymoon. The contracting parties have many warm friends in our town, who wish them a long, prosperous and happy life.

Mrs. E. J. Etheredge has been visiting at Barr.

Miss Alice Wise visited Augusta last week.

Mr. Henry Bodie and sister, Miss Sarah, attended the Drafts-Oswald wedding.

Miss Gladys Bladen has been visiting relatives in Augusta.

Nov. 21, 1904, Philip.

Delmar Locals.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

The farmers have finished gathering their crops and are about through sowing their grain. The corn and cotton crops were perhaps the best that has ever been gathered in this section.

Miss Annie Cannon is at Fort Motte visiting her sister, Mrs. Claffay.

Mr. Jno. T. Moore visited his uncle, Mr. R. C. Moore, of Greenwood, recently.

Messrs. A. L. Eargle and J. A. E. Shealy made a business trip to Augusta last week.

Mr. W. P. Eargle is in St. Louis, Mo., attending the World's Fair.

Mr. Sidney L. Shealy is slowly recovering from a severe relapse of typhoid fever.

Master Herchal Shealy fell off of a mule last Monday and broke one of his arms. He is getting along nicely.

Rev. T. W. Shealy, of Pax, Ga., spent last week with relatives in this section. His children, Mr. Charlie and Miss Cora, are attending the Delmar Collegiate Institute.

The Delmar Ginnery has exchanged their gasoline engine for a steam engine and will be ready to gin again in a few days.

Revs. D. B. Groseclose, of Leesville, and B. D. Wessinger, of Summit, are expected to make addresses at the Children's Day exercises at Mt. Hebron church on Thursday of this week.

Mrs. Scherer, of Newberry, and Mrs. Eargle, of Columbia, will visit the churches of Rev. J. D. Shealy's pastorate next Sunday for the purpose of organizing missionary societies. They will be at Mt. Pleasant at 11 o'clock a. m., at Union 3 o'clock p. m., and at Mt. Hebron at 7 o'clock p. m.

Nov. 21, 1904, Lloyd.

Peak News.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

Messrs. W. K. Sligh and William Bedenbaugh, of Newberry, were in town last Tuesday.

Miss Mary Swygert is in Gaffney on a visit to friends.

Mr. Bob Hedgepath and family, moved to Columbia last week.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Y. Summer, of Columbia, have moved to Peak into the Epting house.

Rev. and Mrs. S. C. Ballentine spent Saturday and Sunday with the family of Mr. Geo. A. Swygert.

Mr. Walter Summer went to Columbia last week on business.

Miss Mattie Adams, of Newberry, has been on a visit to Mrs. A. E. Eargle at the hotel.

Mr. Lang Sease, who now resides in Laurens, visited friends in town last week.

Mr. James Deal came up from Columbia to spend Sunday.

Messrs. John H. Wicker and J. J. Langford were in town last week. They purchased a large number of cattle from Mr. H. L. Parr.

Mr. J. J. Hope, of Columbia, was here last Sunday.

Miss Rilla Summer and Mrs. Haskell Eargle went to Newberry last week.

Mr. J. T. Mahaffey, while cutting wood last week, had the misfortune to cut his foot badly. One of the toes was severed from his foot.

Mr. James P. Wilson, of Newberry, spent last Sunday with his father's family.

Messrs. Lee and Rowell Connor were here Sunday.

Mr. T. E. Addy, one of the rural mail carriers, went to Newberry Saturday.

Dr. Dunn, of Pomaria, was in town last Saturday.

Mrs. J. H. Bushart is visiting relatives at Jenkinsville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Daley spent a few days with relatives near Bookman last week.

The Masons will have a hot supper in the town hall on the night of December 17th.

There was some excitement on the streets last Saturday caused by a runaway mule. The animal, which was hitched to a wagon, was left alone and became frightened at a passing train. Fortunately no one was hurt.

Rev. S. C. Ballentine filled his regular appointment and preached to a large congregation in Mt. Hermon Lutheran church last Sunday morning. He gave a brief report of Synod which recently met in Orangeburg. Nov. 21, 1904. E.

Mission Meeting.

Mrs. Scherer, Miss Grishaber, Miss Dinklehof and Mrs. Kreps, members of the organizing committee on missions for the Lutheran church, will deliver addresses in St. Stephen Lutheran church in this place on Sunday night, November 30th, at 8 o'clock. The subjects to be discussed will be appropriate to the occasion. The public is cordially invited to be present. Envelopes will be distributed among the congregation so as to give all an opportunity of contributing toward this worthy cause.

These ladies will be at St. John Lutheran church on Thursday, the 1st day of December, and make addresses on the subject of missions at 2 o'clock p. m. It is hoped that a large congregation will be present.

A Beautiful Wedding.

November 17, 1904, at the residence of Mr. F. Wade Oswald, the bride's father, Barr's, Lexington county, S. C., was the scene of a beautiful wedding. Dr. James P. Drafts and Miss Sarah Lucia Oswald, both of Lexington county, S. C., Rev. J. G. Graichen, officiating. Immediately after the sumptuous banquet the handsome groom and his lovely bride entered the train, amidst a beautiful white shower of rice for the exposition at St. Louis, Mo., with the many good wishes and sweet benedictions of their numerous friends for a long life of joy and prosperity. J. G. G.

A Sad Death.

Oscar, the little thirteen year old son of Mr. P. H. and Mrs. L. R. Cook, died at the home of his parents in the Providence section, on November 19th, 1904, of typhoid fever. The little fellow was a general favorite in the community in which he resided and his death is sincerely mourned. The interment was in Providence cemetery, the Revs. J. G. Graichen and W. D. Quick officiating in the presence of a very large congregation. Our sympathies are extended to the bereaved family.

Enjoy a turkey dinner tomorrow.

A Venerable Lady Dead.

Mrs. Elizabeth Keisler, nee Franklow, departed this life on November 16, in the 85th year of her age. She was the relict of Capt. James Jacob Keisler, who died about seven years ago, and was one of the oldest inhabitants of the county. She lived for a long time near Gilbert. Of ten children only three survive her, being Dr. W. S. Keisler, Mr. R. L. Keisler and Mrs. C. W. Riley. Her long life was a pure and spotless one and she was a consistent member of the Methodist Church South. The interment was at Gilbert and Rev. Mr. Herbert, of Columbia, assisted by Rev. Mr. Strickland, conducted the burial services. Thus the curtain drops upon the close of a noble life.

Man Found Dead.

A man said to be Will Smith, of Greenville, S. C., was killed near Pelion, in this county, on the morning of November 8th, while attempting to steal a ride on a Southern train on the Perry extension. Magistrate C. R. Rish held the inquest and the verdict of the jury was in accordance with the above statement. Our informant did not say whether the body was that of a white man or a negro.

Constantly, but we can—It's our business. The Safe Deposit Boxes in our banking vault afford perfect protection for valuable papers, jewels, etc. The Home Bank.

Popular Resort.

While at Leesville it was our pleasure to stop at the Kinard Hotel. The table is always furnished with the very best the market affords and served in the best style. The rooms are clean and well furnished. The commercial men will find this a pleasant place to stop, and the weary traveler will find rest for his bones. Mr. J. C. Kinard is the genial host and attends to the wants of his patrons with promptness.
