Batesburg Items.

There is no doubt that an unusually large amount of business has been done by our merchants here this fall. Over 1500 bales of cotton have been shipped in excess of the number last season, and still there is a great deal of cotton unsold in this vicinity.

Arrangements are being made to have, in the near future, a large mass meeting of the citizens of this town for the purpose of advertising the improvements, public and private, the business done here, and the many advantages Batesburg offers to the public.

Mr. W. B. Glenn, of Augusta, Ga., has charge of the Batesburg Electric Light Co., and has moved his family to our town.

Mr. Curtis Shealy, residing one mile from this town, killed a large otter on his father's farm, last Thursday. The animal measured 36 inches from head to tip of tail and was 15 inches in circumference.

Mrs. William Wilcock of Orangeburg, visited her daughter Mrs. Dr. L. M. Mitchell of our town last week.

Hon. B. L. Caughman, of Columbia, was here on business last Saturday.

Hon. P. L. Hudson, State Senator of Chester county, visited his brother, Dr. E. K. Hardie, one day last week.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Dr. J. A. Watson to Miss Ina Weiss Hartley, both of this town, Wednesday, December 22, 1904. The ceremony will be performed in the Baptist church by the pastor, Rev. Jabez Ferriss.

The residence of Mr. W. W. Watson is nearing completion. It is located on Railroad street near the Baptist church.

Messrs. John Bell Towill and E. R. Steadman have returned from an extended trip to the city of Mexico. They are well pleased with the different sections of country visited.

Our town is now enjoying electric lights, telephones, waterworks and is beginning to have the appearance of a city.

Mr. Samuel B. George, our popular and efficient Clerk of Court, was in town Thursday on business.

December 10, 1904

The Grand Secretary of Masons of South Carolina, who has been reported critically ill, is now said to be much better and there is bright hopes of his ultimate recovery.

Christmas and Wedding Cakes.

Please remember you will find the very best fruit cake ingredients, icing sugar, candies for dressing cakes, chocolate, and flavoring extracts for your Christmas and wedding cakes, at Harman's Bazaar.

Mr. Sex George, who was recently in a runaway accident in Columbia, by having his leg fractured at the knee cap, is able to be out on crutches.
