Plant Corn.

The farmers should prepare their lands to plant plenty of corn and not so much cotton.

Wagons! Wagons! Wagons!!!

Arriving at Lexington Department Store daily, and we are selling them cheaper than ever.

Mysteriously Injured.

Mr. William Wessinger, an employee of the State Dispensary and living at 300 Elmwood Avenue, Columbia, left his home last Wednesday morning at the usual hour for his work in apparently good health. Later in the day he staggered in his home with his cheek bone and lower jaw bone on one side of his face broken and in an unconscious condition. How or by whom he was injured is a mystery as yet unsolved. He was taken to the Columbia hospital for treatment and from the last reports his condition is regarded as extremely critical.

Things of Beauty is a Joy Forever.

So the ladies all exclaim after seeing the display of stylish dress goods, the latest fads in notions and the lovely line of millinery that Wm. Platt, Columbia, has now in stock. These goods were selected with especial care by experienced buyers on account of their superior qualities. They were made to wear and not to sell cheap. There are no shoddy or out of date goods in this line. If you want to dress well and look well be sure to see these goods before you purchase. His other departments are also full with a very choice selection of goods all of which are of standard quality.

The Places Filled.

The Board of County Commissioners held an important meeting in their office in the court house last Monday, at which the whole machinery of the office was put in thorough working condition and the Commissioners are now in a position to give honest, faithful and intelligent service to the people of Lexington than they have been since their election.

Among the other business transacted was an election to fill the vacancies in the positions at the disposal of the Board. The election resulted as follows: Clerk and Attorney—J. E. Brooks Wingard.

Captain of Chain Gang—Charlie Meetze.

Guard of Chain Gang—C. W. Smith. Physician to the Poor House—Dr. M. Q. Hendrix.

We have been requested by Supervisor Langford to say that Sheriff Corley proposed to the Board to employ Dr. J. J. Wingard, at his own expense, as physician to the jail and that the proposition was accepted.

Buggies! Buggies! Buggies!!!

We are receiving some beauties and will give you the best bargain in one that you ever did get. Lexington Dept. Store.

George-Wingard.

Married, on Thursday afternoon, January 12th, 1905, by Rev. O. N. Rountree, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Wingard, in the town of Lexington, Mr. Manly P. George and Miss Verlie T. Wingard.

This was a pretty home wedding by which two hearts were joined together till death do them part. Miss Verlie is a lovely young woman of charming and affable disposition and graceful movements and is a general favorite among her large circle of friends and acquaintances.

Mr. George is the efficient assistant in the office of the Clerk of Court, is deservedly popular with all with whom he has dealings and is highly esteemed by the community at large.

The happy young couple start life's journey together under clear skies and fair winds, carrying with them the best wishes for their continued happiness and prosperity from their many friends.

They will occupy the residence that Mr. George is having erected on his lot near the depot as soon as it is completed.

Bank Officers.

The annual election of officers of the First National Bank of Batesburg occurred in the office of the bank in the town of Batesburg on last Wednesday. Mr. T. B. Kernaghan was elected President, succeeding Dr. W. H. Timmerman, who has held this position since the establishment of the bank several years ago. Mr. N. A. Bates was made Vice President; Mr. W. W. Watson, was re-elected Cashier, Mr. W. W. Perry Assistant Cashier, and Solicitor George Bell Timmerman, Attorney. The following named gentlemen compose the Board of Directors: Dr. W. H. Timmerman, T. B. Kernaghan, J. P. Matthews, A. E. Gonzales, N. A. Bates, John R. Watson, W. L. Rawl and M. E. Rutland.

To Dr. Timmerman, the retiring President, is due much of the credit for the remarkable success of the bank. His safe, sound and conservative management of the bank has placed it on a solid foundation and he retains from the office carrying with him the confidence and esteem of his associates in business as well as all those with whom he has had business relations. The new President is a well known business man of that town who knows no such word as fail in anything he undertakes and it is safe to say that the interests of the bank will not suffer under his direction.

Since the above was put in type we learn that upon investigation Mr. Kernaghan found that the duties of President would take up too much of his time from his own business and at a meeting of the Directors held Saturday, he resigned and Mr. W. W. Watson was elected in his stead. The promotion of Mr. Watson is a fitting recognition of his brilliant business attainments and his great popularity.

Correction. The Columbia Evening Record is in error in stating that Hon. J. Wm. Thurmond represented Mrs. E. Able and W. W. Crout in a recent hearing before the State Supreme Court. The former is represented by Col. G. T. Graham, of this place, and the latter by Col. G. T. Graham and W. W. Hawes, Esq., of Brookland.
