

THE LARGEST
Department Store
SOUTH OF BALTIMORE.

J. L. Mimnaugh & Co., Bargain
Getters.
Columbia, S. C.

J. L. Mimnaugh & Co., Bargain
Givers.
Columbia, S. C.

EVERY DAY
A BARGAIN DAY AT

Our Buyer is constantly in the market with cash, supported by long experience, consequently he gets the Cream of bargains, the benefit of which we give to our Lexington Friends when buying

Dry Goods, Millinery, Notions, Clothing, Gent's Furnishings, Shoes, Hats and Caps.

COME TO SEE US WHEN IN THE CITY. MAIL ORDERS GIVEN PROMPT AND CAREFUL ATTENTION. SEND TO US FOR ANYTHING YOU WANT.

The Lexington Dispatch.

Wednesday, January 18, 1905.

PENCIL AND SCISSORS.

Wayside Notes Gathered Here and There by a Dispatch Man.

How is that vaccinated arm?

The days are getting longer.

We are having hog killing weather.

Guano and acid will soon be in great demand.

Read the charge in Tapp's ad. this week.

For a nice wedding present call at the Bazaar.

The small grain in this vicinity is looking fine.

The best shoes, at rock bottom prices, at Ballentine & Co.

Knights of old feared nothing—but a woman's tongue.

The K. of P's. of this place, meet every Wednesday night.

Dispensary Inspector W. J. McCartha was on our streets today.

Miss Ruth Adams, of near Batesburg, is visiting Miss Edith Wingard.

"Hello!" Through the 'phone, is quite popular in our town these days.

Rev. Evans Hall, of Samaris, is visiting his brother, Mr. H. C. Hall, of our town.

Beautify your home with some landscapes, window shades, at Ballentine & Co.

Mrs. J. D. Roof, of Arthur's, was the guest of Mrs. M. S. Wingard Tuesday.

Water works is much needed in Lexington. Let some one start the scheme.

Who will ring the next wedding bell in this community? Think awhile.

Buy your garden seed at the Bazaar if you want good results. All fresh seed.

Who will be the next to start the erection of another brick building in town?

Miss Marie Long has returned from a two week's visit to relatives in Columbia.

Farm implements of all kinds and fancy hardware will be found at, Lexington Dept. Store.

Mr. Wesley Nichols, a prominent citizen of the Leesville community, was in town last Friday.

Mr. J. H. Hiller, of the Fork, called to see us last Monday and left his cart wheel.

The price of cotton is still on the down grade. It is quoted at 6 15-16 for good middling.

A fresh lot of buggy and wagon harness just received at Lexington Department Store. Prices the lowest.

IF IN NEED OF A PRESENT
COME TO
SYLVAN BROS.,
1524 Main Street.

We have them ready for you. By following up our business closely and ordering goods in time, we now have our stock complete in all our lines again, and now, as always, only the best of everything; only solid everlasting qualities; the newest, prettiest and most up-to-date patterns that can be had. Good quality, up-to-date styles and pretty patterns is what is appreciated, and what to look for when making a present of any kind. In buying from us, you can make no mistake, as we have no other kind. Come in and take a look anyway. You can't help being pleased with both the goods and prices.

SYLVAN BROS.,
JEWELERS,
1524 MAIN ST., COLUMBIA, S. C.

Many a single man looks through the bottom of a whiskey glass and sees things double.

Mr. S. E. Smith, now of Lenoir, Fla., was at Swansea last week visiting friends.

Mr. John Taylor is Mayor pro tem of the town and has become to be a "terror to evil doers."

Our subscribers will find the supplement that we are sending out this week very interesting.

The Editor is out in the sunshine and the cold this week hunting for the "Almighty dollar."

To make room for their spring goods you will find great bargains at Ballentine & Co.

Mr. John W. Scofield, a prominent citizen of the Pelion section, was in town Saturday.

We have been having some very cold weather, but the wave has passed away and it is pleasant now.

Mr. A. W. Lever, of Peak, was in town last Wednesday and gave the Dispatch office a pleasant call.

Dixie Lodge of Odd Fellows will meet in their hall tomorrow night. Pelican Lodge meets Friday night.

The new hall of Pelican Lodge, I. O. O. F., is about completed and soon they will occupy the building.

Mr. and Mrs. Abram Stork, Jr., of Columbia, visited relatives and friends in this community last week.

We are sending out bills to subscribers who are in arrears. We trust they will favor us with a remittance.

Miss Mary Richardson and brother, of Spring Hill, have just returned home from a pleasant visit at this place.

A few Enterprise Lard Presses and Black Hawk Corn Shellers to close out at low prices at Lexington Department Store.

Remember the place to have your stationery printed is at the Dispatch Job Printing Office, if you want a neat job.

Mr. Shelton Harman has concluded that he could not be without the Dispatch and now receives the same on Lexington R. F. D. No. 1.

Lexington Department Store will give you good values in winter clothing and underwear, in order to make room for spring stock.

WANTED—Renters for two farms or three croppers for two farms on my place near Gilbert. Apply to Ioor Hayes, Gilbert, S. C. 1wpd

Mr. John A. Dreher, a progressive farmer of the Selwood section in the Fork, did not forget to give us a pleasant call while in town yesterday.

Remember that Lexington Department Store sells the best shoes at the lowest prices and has one of the largest stocks to select from.

We learn that Mr. Randolph McCartha, of near Leesville, had the misfortune of breaking his arm while at work in a grist mill last Saturday.

Mr. T. W. Kennedy, of New Brookland, was in town Saturday and called in the Dispatch office. We are always glad to see such good men.

Just Received—A car load of cotton seed hulls and meal. Parties wishing to purchase should call at once on G. H. Roof & Bro., Barr, S. C.

Mr. George Lee, of our town, has been appointed carrier of the new R. F. D. route out from this place. Mr. Lee has long been a valued employee of the Lexington Mill.

Seventeen new names were added to our subscription list during the past week. Still there's room for more. The Dispatch now has a circulation of 1,937.

The Editor expects you to bring that dollar you are due him when you go to meet the County Auditor to assess your property. So remember this when you leave home.

Mr. W. H. Witt, who is originally from Orangeburg county, has located at Swansea and is engaged in the sale and livery stable business. He is pleasant and liberal in his dealings in the sale of horses, mules and vehicles. He has had a commodious stable erected in town for the business and is doing well.

WITH A LOOK.

Empress, are well worth seeing, for they are the best looking, best fitting and best feeling shoe a lady ever put her foot into.

They are made of the softest, smoothest and finest patent and glazed kid that ever went into a $3.50 ladies' shoe.

Welba, our $3.00 beauty, is as far ahead of other $3.00 shoes as an automobile is and ox cart.

There is a heap of satisfaction in feeling well shod, and when we fit you that is just the way you feel.

EHRlich's,

1643 Main Street } COLUMBIA, S. C.
1627 Main Street }

Don't You Need

Some new silverware for your table? You might as well have nice service on your table now and enjoy it while you are young especially when you can buy it so reasonably. When in Columbia come in and talk silverware with us, or, if you can't come will send you our catalogue.

We are opening up a nice fresh stock of watches and jewelry just received. Next week (before October 15), we will have an entire new line of handsome clocks at very attractive prices.

Keep us in mind and come to see us whenever you want goods in this line. We save you money.

P. H. LACHICOTTE & CO.,
JEWELERS,

1424 MAIN STREET, COLUMBIA, S. C.

JUST A WORD

TO FARMERS:

THE UNION WAREHOUSE CO.,

of
Columbia, S. C., is prepared to Store Cotton in Standard Warehouse

and to arrange proper cash advances if you desire to hold your cotton.

Details will be gladly supplied if you

address
THE UNION WAREHOUSE CO.,

COLUMBIA, S. C.

For fattening and keeping your stock, cattle, hogs and poultry in a healthy and thriving condition use the International Stock Food. It is for sale by the Crosson Drug Co., of Leesville. See advertisement.

MULES.

THE LARGEST and most complete line of Mules ever shown in the City of Columbia can be seen at our stables from now on. Our numbers of head on hand will be swelled to over 100 head. As to quality we must say they are fine and will show for themselves.

1 Load Kentucky Mules

that will make you want to trade. Now, we propose to cut loose and do it quick. Now is the time to buy and we are the people to buy from. Because, first we have what you want; second, we will sell you a bargain every time; third, we have a reputation that we are proud of and will treat you right if you will give us the chance.

WAGONS

NOW is the time to buy Wagons. This is the best wagon season we have ever had having sold several car loads and trade growing larger. The people continue to buy

"Old Hickory."

"First in the hearts of our countrymen" and without a doubt the best and most durable wagon made today in the United States. Ask your neighbor what wagon he is using, he will say "Old Hickory" nine times out of ten. If you buy the best you will buy the "Old Hickory" and they don't cost any more than the cheap kind.

BUGGIES.

For a few days and a few days only we will sell a few Buggies at cut prices. Now is your time. When you come we will show you as handsome a collection of ehicles and plenty of them as you will find in any Southern City.

GREGORY-RHEA - MULE - CO.,

JOHN W. CONDER, Sec. and Treas.,

Columbia, S. C.

GET OUR PRICES

ON

GUANO AND ACID.

We Handle a Full Line of

Virginia-Carolina Chem. Co., and Armour Fertilizers

W. P. ROOF,

DEALER IN GENERAL MERCHANDISE,
LEXINGTON, S. C.

DEALER IN

GENERAL MERCHANDISE,

Lexington, S. C.