

J. L. Mimnaugh & Co.,

Columbia, S. C.

Full yard wide Bleached Muslin, free of any dressing. 3c. yard. Extra wide White Lawn, 3c. yard.

Yard wide Percales, good 5c. value at 40-inch Sea Island, 5 cents.

90-inch Irish Linen, $1.25 value, for White Habutai Wash Silk 75 cents. 25 cents.

The BIG STORE is Making it very interesting for thrifty people during the Spring Opening days.

In addition to the showing of many Spring Novelties the following unmatched inducements will be offered during the week.

COME!!

The Prettiest Line of Fashionable Millinery in the State

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED. IT WILL PAY YOU TO COME MANY MILES TO SEE THIS.

PENCIL AND SCISSORS.

Wayside Notes Gathered Here and There by a Dispatch Man.

Always use T. X. L. for pain. It looks now like the fruit crop is safe.

Cheap parched coffee at M. D. Harman's.

The store house of Meetze & Son has been reshingled.

T. X. L. cures cold in the head.

Solicitor George Bell Timmerman is at home resting.

Monday was salesday and a good crowd was in town.

Ask your dealer for T. X. L.

E. L. Asbill, Esq., of Leesville, was in town Monday on business.

Pretty line of spring goods received at Ballentine & Co's., this week.

Many improvements are being made to property in and around town.

The residence of Mr. Belton Clark on Depot street, is receiving a coat of paint.

Mr. J. Wallace Harman was in town trading Saturday and called in to see us.

Mr. James Lown visited relatives in Laurens and Newberry counties last week.

Beautiful line of framed pictures below cost, at The Kaufmann Drug Company.

The Dispensary has been moved to the store occupied by the late Dr. George Smith.

Col. M. D. Harman is in Charleston in attendance upon the United States Court as a juror.

The indications are that a tremendous corn crop will be harvested in this county this year.

Col. John Bell Towill was in town Monday in attendance upon the cotton growers meeting.

Dr. J. E. Kaufmann is having the exterior of the Kaufmann block refreshed with a coat of paint.

Col. J. H. Frick of Chapin, was here on business Monday and attended the farmers meeting.

Drs. Timmerman and Quattlebaum, two prominent physicians of Batesburg, were in town Monday.

Work on the two new brick buildings is progressing nicely under the supervision of contractor John Fry.

One second-hand five-horse power Frick engine for sale cheap. Apply to H. M. Wingard, Lexington, S. C.

The chaingang is now operating the road machine near Mr. Job Swygert's on the road leading to Leesville.

Mr. Daniel Haliman is off on a visit to relatives in North Carolina. Uncle Daniel has long been manager of the Southern waterworks at Gilbert and during his absence Mr. Andrew Long will be chief manager.

Forest fires have been plentiful near Gilbert, having burned and damaged much valuable timber and lands.

While out shopping don't fail to go to Ballentine & Co., and see their goods and prices before buying elsewhere.

Mr. P. I. Rawl, one of Beaver Dam's progressive and successful farmers attended the farmers meeting Monday.

Dr. Frank Hall is now at his home in Gilbert after completing his first course of study in the Charleston Medical College.

It is now unlawful to hunt game of any kind except deers, (dears) and they can be hunted at all seasons of the year.

Miss Lizzie Harman, after spending sometime visiting friends in Columbia, has returned to her home in this place.

Former County Supt. of Education, John S. Derrick, has accepted a position with the Richland Distillery Company of Columbia.

Watch this paper and you will find some great bargains advertised at an early date for Ballentine & Co. Don't fail to see it.

Dr. J. P. Drafts, of the Hollow Creek section, was in town Monday in attendance upon the County Medical Association.

We were pleased to see Mr. J. M. Clemons on our streets Saturday after being confined to his home for some time by sickness.

Messrs. G. M. Lucas and N. L. Kyzer, who reside on the R. F. D. 1, out from Gilbert, were in town last Thursday on business.

Miss Jennie Stephens, of Columbia, who has been visiting Miss Emma Ballentine in this place, returned home Monday.

Mr. N. Jones an industrious farmer on Lex. R. F. D. No. 1, did not wait to call but sent his renewal by a friend. Thanks.

Mr. J. A. Derrick, now of Newberry, was visiting his brother, F. A. Derrick in town, Saturday. He is well pleased with Newberry.

On account of defects in applications for pensions sent to the State Board from several counties, the apportionment has been delayed.

Our old friend A. O. Wilson, reminding of the needs of money to run business, called in Monday and left his renewal to the Dispatch.

FOR SALE—Three young milch cows and twenty small pigs. Call on Haskell Shull, Gilbert, R. F. D. 3, Lex. Co. S. C.

Upland corn planting is nearly finished in south eastern counties of the State. Wheat and oats have made rapid growth during the past week.

Mr. G. W. Shumpert, of Shumpert, was in town Saturday and registered his name upon the scroll of fame by having the Dispatch sent to his address.

Remember that Caughman & Harman are still dealers in fine Kentucky horses and mules. Special care given to boarding horses at their stables.

Mr. J. Albert Hook, of Gaston, one of our old war chums and a clever man, prompt in all dealings, sends his money for the Dispatch, Home and Farm.

Mr. Joseph Lown, one of as prompt citizens and good man as we have, dropped in Saturday and left his compliments with his thirty-fifth renewal to the Dispatch.

Mr. Lewie Hallman, of Gilbert, has moved to Leesville to accept a position in the coffin factory. Rev. Kyzer occupies the house made vacant by Mr. Hallman.

Mr. Vastine Taylor, a substantial farmer and citizen on Leesville R. F. D. 3, avails himself of Uncle Sam's conveyance and sends his dollar to continue his paper.

The lightning rod man has been in our midst and as a result the tops of many residences and some public buildings are adorned with glittering balls and silver tipped arrows.

Miss Emma Ballentine, who met with a painful accident sometime ago, has recovered sufficiently to be in the store and will be pleased to serve her customers in dry goods.

A. D. Martin, Esq., a rising young lawyer of the Lexington Bar, has returned from the home of his parents near Swanses, where he has been mixing business and pleasure.

Messrs. Frank A. Weed and Chal. D. Meetze in town on business Monday, dropped in to see us and left their renewals for another year. They are prosperous farmers from the Irmo section.

Arrangements are being made to build a commercial hotel at Batesburg, this county. Home and foreign capital is behind the project and the hotel will be located within the corporate limits of the town.

I have just opened up a nice line of millinery and nice fancy spring goods. I cordially invite the public to call and inspect my goods before buying elsewhere.

Mrs. L. A. Hallman.

Captain L. W. Redd, Superintendent of the Lexington Manufacturing co., delivered a very interesting lecture in the Baptist church in this place last Sunday evening. His subject was: "And the door was shut."

If a negro waiter carrying a platter with a turkey on it should fall, what would be the effect on the world? The downfall of Turkey, the overthrow of Greece, the destruction of China and the constipation of Africa.

Read the new advertisement of P. C. Price & Co., Columbia, and when you want stylish clothes at the lowest prices, go there to make your purchases. They are Lexington people who were born and bred in Lexington.

There is no dead wood in our stock of shoes.

New shoes, stylish shoes, at moderate prices.

Spring is here and the ladies will be getting in to low shoes soon.

Our stores are chock full of new style Oxfords and the nicest you ever saw at the price.

If you will bring $1.50 or $2.00 along we will sell you the nicest pair you ever had.

Tan, Black or Patent Leather, made with large eyelets and laced with wide laces, at only $2.00.

EHRlich's,

1643 Main Street, COLUMBIA, S. C.
1627 Main Street

Wedding Presents!

Sterling silver, cut glass, fine china, clocks. A fine stock always on hand for you to select from.

If you can't come, send for our catalogue or telephone your order to us.

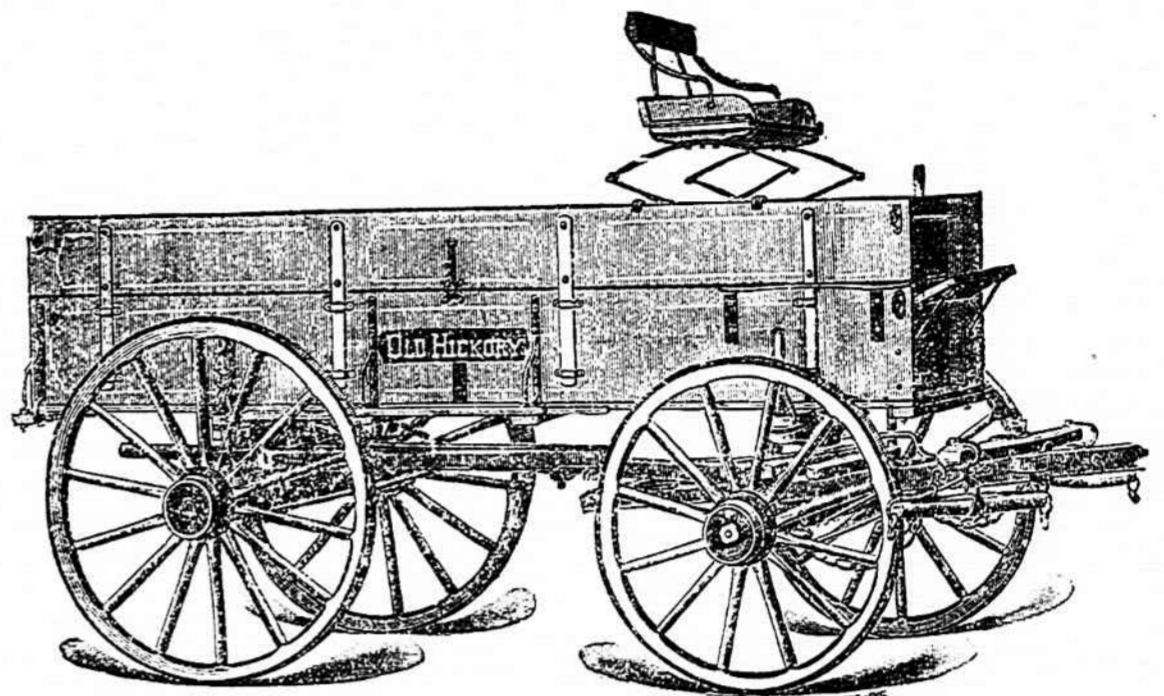

Keep us in mind when wanting anything in Jewelry or Silverware.

P. H. LACHICOTTE & CO.,
JEWELERS,

1424 Main St., Columbia, S. C.
Phone 1374.

BE HAPPY,
BE PROSPEROUS, BE WISE,

Old Hickory Wagon

Babcock Buggies

OUR MULES

NONE BETTER AND PLENTY NOT SO GOOD.

Gregory-Rhea Mule Co.,

JOHN W. CONDER, Secretary and Treasurer,

COLUMBIA, S. C.

W. P. ROOF,

Dealer in

General Merchandise,

LEXINGTON, S. C.

WHEN LOOKING

FOR A PRESENT FOR THE HAPPY BRIDE, REMEMBER.

The handsomest, largest and most complete line of wedding presents are always to be found at our store. We pay close attention to their selection, and only buy goods that are the very best in and sell them at the lowest prices that reliable goods can be sold at. When in the city, come in and look them over. We are sure we have what you would like to give, as we have them, from the smallest piece to the largest and most complete sets ever brought to Columbia.

Quality, Style and Workmanship,

SYLVAN BROS.,

1524 Main St., Columbia,

Spring Hats.

Spring Furnishing,

Spring Shoes.

THE NOBBIEST
Spring Clothing.

GIFFON BRAND.

We are ready for you—yes, more than ready! All the newest novelties, the new spring shades, the popular steel grays, the light and dark mixtures and the popular browns constructed in the best possible manner, the broad shoulder effect, hair cloth fronts and snug fitting collars combine to give Giffon Brand Clothing their distinction.

E. G. Dreher & Co.,

Outfitters for Men and Boys,
LEXINGTON, S. C.