In Swamp Paralyzed.

Aiken Recorder.

Mr. Milledge Galphin, a well known farmer of Beech Island, Aiken county, had a very sad and awful experience last week, when he was four days and nights in the swamp, paralyzed.

It seems that a man passing along the public road heard a groan in the bushes nearby, and investigating found Mr. Galphin unconscious. He was at once taken up and carried to his home, which he had left four days before. His absence had created great anxiety, as it was feared that he had been murdered, particularly when all efforts to hear of him had failed.

He was, of course, unable to give any account of himself, but it is believed that he was stricken while fishing in the swamps below Beech Island. He was alone. For ninety-six hours he endured exposure, and in addition, on hands and knees, evidently by superhuman efforts, realizing his condition and the need of medical attention, pulled himself gradually from the swamp to the main road, where he would be found and cared for. The pathway he made through the underbrush shows that he was unable to stand, and it is believed that he struggled along, inch by inch, during the four days and nights he was missing. His torn clothes and lacerated hands and knees told of the manner in which he made the journey of at least half a mile. There is evidence that he realized his condition and the necessity of reaching aid, although unable to make a noise that could be heard a dozen yards away.

His condition is exceedingly critical, and there is said to be little hope of his recovery.

A Wonderful Saving.

The largest Methodist church in Georgia, used 32 gallons of L. & M. mixed with 24 gallons of oil, thus making paint cost about $1.20 per gallon. They calculated to use 100 gallons of paint. Saved about $80.00 and also get a big donation of L. & M. Dealers gladly sell L. & M., because their customers call for it, and say they used it 12, 14 and even 30 years ago.

Don't pay $1.50 a gallon for linseed oil, which you do in ready-for-use paint.

Buy oil fresh from the barrel at 60 cents per gallon, and mix it with L. & M. paint. It makes paint cost about $1.20 per gallon. Sold by W. P. Roof.

Immodest Dressing.

Reformer in Sunny South.

Now that summer weather is approaching, I wish to beg our fair women not to dress as many of them did last summer. They then seemed to imagine that the more the dress exposed the person the more stylish it was. If arms, shoulders and bust, were not bare, they were covered with the flimsiest peek-a-boo lace or gauze. The sight was embarrassing to hardened men, and called forth many half sneering comments. One of these under-dressed ladies, a visitor to a Georgia town, was the leaving presence of a group of men, when one of them said as he bowed to her, "I hope to see more of you, Miss Blank, before you leave town." "I don't see how he can well see more of her," commented another man in a low voice.

Our good women are very scornful of their fallen sisters. Why, then, do they strive to imitate and outdo them in dressing immodestly? Do they think this style of dress is admired by men? If so, it is a mistake. It brings up no thought of a woman's purity and delicacy—qualities that to women are as grace and fragrance to a flower. Recently I heard a young man say that it made him feel ashamed for certain girls when he was in their company, they had so little covering on their bodies. Think of women who would deem themselves insulted if their purity were called in question dressing in such a manner as to embarrass even a man of the world! In decency's and morality's sake, dear women, try to dress in a way more worthy of your better sense and taste and of the respect of the men, whom it is said women dress to please.

If the Baby is Cutting Teeth,

Be sure and use that old and well-tried remedy, Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

It is the Best of All.

Gossip.

Saluda Times.

A small town, where everybody knows everybody's business, is always noted as being a great gossiping centre. We had hoped that Saluda would escape the fate of most little towns, but Madam Ramor keeps busy with her tales. She invades the church, the schools and the sacred hearthstones. No official can perform his duties without laying himself liable to the charge of being forward, self-conceited and presuming. He cannot discharge his duties in any manner that is pleasing to them or in any way in which they could not have done it better. If he complies with the law, they say they know better. Some of this kind of people know more about other people's business than they do about their own.—[Why be lonesome, Bro. Sample? It's just so in Lexington and other towns. The habit is as contagious as smallpox and yet it is always in strict quarantine.—Ed Lexington Dispatch]

The Waste of the Farmer.

A farmer of the Piedmont country carried about 40 chickens and turkeys through the winter. If he secured from that number 50 pounds of manure it was not visible. The manure from that number of hens should be worth $10 a year. He carried five or six cattle through the year. He did not have two loads of manure to show. He lost $22 there. He bought two tons of guano for $44, applied that to poorly prepared land and the grass in the first two weeks of June used up half the plant food. There he lost $22. That is, a small two horse farmer, through carelessness and laziness, lost $52, besides the loss in consequence of a poorly cultivated crop. There are hundreds of farmers in the land that lose by one or the other of these leaks—Greenville Mountaineer.

Cleared For Action.

When the body is cleared for action, by Dr. King's New Life Pills, you can tell it by the bloom of health on the cheeks; the brightness of the eyes; the firmness of the flesh and muscles; the buoyancy of the mind. Try them. At The Kaufmann Drug Co's., drug store, 25 cents.

Walter Hill, a young negro of Edgefield, being jealous of his wife, killed her on Monday night. He first shot at her with a Winchester rifle, but missed; then he crushed her skull with the weapon. He made his escape.

Terrific Race With Death.

"Death was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez, of Tampa, Fla. describing his fearful race with death. "As a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines but got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect, that in three days I felt like a new man, and today I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed at The Kaufmann Drug Co's., drug store; price 50c.

Great Loss of Life.

In 1903 the railroads of this country killed 9,840 people and injured 76,553 more. In 1904 they killed 11,000 and wounded 90,000 others. This slaughter of passengers is appalling and shows that unless stringent laws are enacted and enforced requiring the railroads to safeguard their passengers more effectively, the loss of life will be even far greater.

While a bilious attack is decidedly unpleasant it is quickly over when Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are used. For sale by The Kaufmann Drug Co.
