The farmers in this section are very busy with the fodder, and cotton is opening very fast. Mr. Jas. C. Fort has his gin ready for the fleecy staple. We have been blessed with plenty of rain.

One of the best meetings to the writers' memory was held at Antioch Baptist church last week. It closed Sunday morning and was conducted by pastor Rev. L. S. Shealy, assisted by Rev. J. F. McGill. Both of these divines are beloved by all in this section. They have done much good here. Twenty-two united themselves with the church and Pastor Shealy baptised them Sunday afternoon in Mr. J. C. Fort's pond, and afterwards Rev. McGill delivered a good sermon to the folks present.

This morning Rev. McGill and his wife returned to their home at New Brookland. We were sorry to see them depart from us.

The Smith boys have returned to complete the Methodist church, and the Baptist are having lumber cut to build their church.

With success to the Dispatch and its host of readers, I am Aug. 14, 1905. The Boy.

Priceville Items.

Rain is plentiful now, a shower every day. This is somewhat disagreeable for farmers who are pulling fodder.

Fodder pulling is now the order of the day. Some have finished, but most of us have a considerable amount yet to pull.

Misses Cedecis and Ruth Price, of Brookland, have been visiting relatives here during the past week, but they have now returned to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Price are visiting the former's parent, Mr. Boston Price.

Protracted meetings, two of which are near us, last week at Beulah and this week at Shiloh Methodist Episcopal Church, South, were largely attended considering the amount of farm work the people have to do.

Mr. E. W. Leaphart is doing some work on the upper end of his road today.

The joint Sunday School Reunion at St. Paul's was largely attended, and we judge it to be quite a success. The health of this community is much improved over last writing.

Quite a gloom now aways this vicinity. Miss Fannie Oswald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Oswald, peacefully answered the summons, "come up higher" on August 9, 1905. Only a few short weeks ago she became a victim of typhoid fever and at intervals suffered intense pain till death. She was 22 years of age, just blooming into beautiful womanhood. A girl of noble virtues, a kind, loving friend to all and loved by all who knew her.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. J. D. Shealy, her pastor being absent. The interment was in the family burying ground. "Peace to her ashes, rest to her soul." The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community. August 11, 1905. That's Who.

3. Purpose and Plans of Teachers' Association. Supt J. R. T. Major, Batesburg Graded Schools. 4. Address. Col J. Brooks Wingard, Lexington, S. C.

5. Reorganization.

Dear Teachers of Lexington county:

I earnestly desire that you all arrange to attend this meeting of Lexington County Teachers' Association, in the Palmetto Institute Building, August 26, at 11 a. m. In years past this organization of teachers has been of great benefit to school in terests of Lexington county, and there is yet much good for it to accomplish. The above program is an excellent one. Come prepared to participate in the meeting.

Very sincerely, J. E. Rawl Kyzer, County Supt. Education.

Free to Farmers.

We will advise you free of charge which is the very best Mower made if you will apply to us either in person or by letter. Lexington Department Store.

A Preliminary.

The minister's wife engaged a new servant. The girl was very friendly with a constable, and one day she invited him to come round to see her. When he came it was washing day. She went and fetched him some beer, biscuits and cheese, but just then a voice called out, "Mary, have you got started to wash yet?" "Yes," said Mary. "What are you doing now?" "Oh, I am just filling up the copper." -London Telegraph.

No Need For Worry.

The Husband (on his deathbed)—My darling, when I am gone, how will you ever be able to pay the doctor's bills? The Wife—Don't worry about that, dear. If the worst comes to the worst, I can marry the doctor, you know.

Imagination.

"Mabel has a most wonderful power of imagination." "Really? That's the very last thing I should have given her credit for." "Oh, it's quite true, I assure you. She actually fancies that she's good looking."

His Debts.

"Well, my friend, I never pay my old debts. I forget them." "And your new ones?" "Oh, I let them get old."

It is only a long time after having learned it that we know anything well. -Joubert.

It is a Fact! That a successful business can only be attained through honest dealing, prompt service and indefatigable attention to detail. That no permanent success was ever attained through trickery and subterfuge. That quality wins first, last and always, and that manufacturers produce different classes of Pianos. That there are some Pianos much better than others. That it is our policy never to misrepresent anything, nor allow our salesmen to do so. That we know that this is a good policy, because through strict attention to these methods, our business continues to grow rapidly. That it means a good deal to you to know in advance that the reputation of our line of pianos have been established from 65 to 82 years. That there is one in Columbia used at least 40 years, and the tone quality shows no evidence of going out of business. That the pianos that you will secure from Malone's Music House will be the best that we, with years of experience in choosing the best, can buy. For Catalogue, prices and terms, address.
