Wilson-Redd.
 A pretty home wedding took place at the home of Capt. L. W. Redd, Superintendent of the Lexington Manufacturing Co., in this place, last Sunday, October 5th, at 5 o'clock, uniting his eldest daughter, Miss Blanch, and Mr. John C. Wilson in the holy estate of matrimony. Rev. W. L. Keel, the pastor of the bride, pronounced the words which made the young couple man and wife. After the ceremony the invited guest were entertained at a marriage supper. The presents were numerous, beautiful and costly. The young couple starts the journey of life together under fair skies and favorable winds and the wish of their numerous friends is that their barque may float down the stream of life gathering riches and honors as the happy days glide by.

Colored Man Dead.
 Sam Dreher, a well known colored man of this place, went o'possum hunting Wednesday night and on returning home was taken desperately ill and died in a few minutes. Coroner Wilson held an inquest over the remains and Dr. Ed. Derrick pronounced that the deceased came to his death from heart failure, and the verdict was in accordance with these facts. Sam had been in feeble health for some time, but the end came so unexpectedly that his friends were startled. He was a quiet, unassuming and industrious man and enjoyed the confidence and respect of all classes of our citizens.

A Sad Death.
 Miss Carrie, the 13-year-old daughter of Mr. J. Weir Addy, who lives in Schwitzer Neck, died Saturday at 11 o'clock, after a lingering illness with typhoid fever. The interment was at St. David in the presence of a large congregation of sorrowing relatives and friends, the Rev. J. A. Cromer paying the last sad rites to the departed dead.
 There are two other members of Mr. Addy's family down with the same disease and his son has but recently recovered from a protracted spell of typhoid. Mr. Addy has undergone a sore affliction by reason of sickness and death among the members of his family and the heartfelt sympathies of our people go out to him and his in this hour of gloom. May God stay the disease and restore the afflicted ones to health.

Economist Wrought Steel Range

FOR COAL, COKE OR WOOD FUEL.

The very best stove that can be had is none too good for you. Next in importance to the home itself comes the stove; for no article made and sold adds so much to

THE COMFORT OF THE HOME

as a thoroughly reliable Cooking Apparatus. Used on an average of three hours per day for three hundred and sixty-five days of every year it is the constant companion of the housewife and will undoubtedly have its influence upon her disposition.

IT IS MY CLAIM

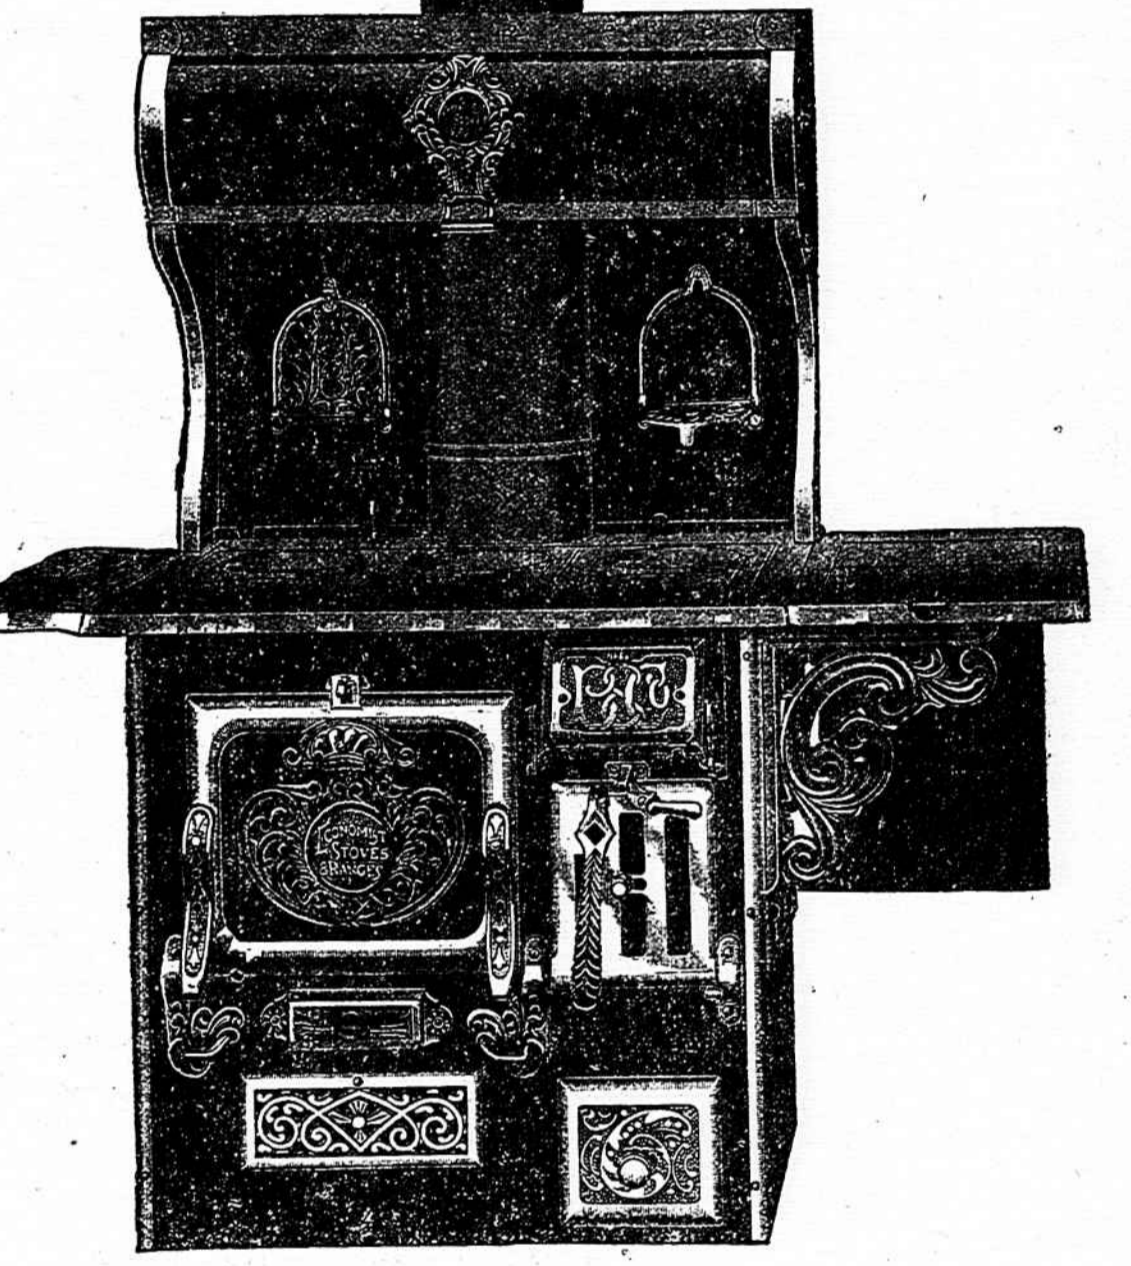

that there is no Range offered to the American people that is better than the no matter what the cost of it may be. It will do anything that any other Steel Range will do; it will last as long as any other. It cost less than its competitors and but little more than trashy imitations which are not worth the room they occupy.

"ECONOMIST,"

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED

to every user of the Economist Wrought Steel Range.
 Write me a postal card, it will bring to you my new and handsomely illustrated catalog showing anything and everything that you may need in Stoves, Ranges and heaters and the lowest prices that good goods can be sold.
