GAVE UP SUPPORTER.

"I wore a supporter for four years, to keep up my womb, which had crowded everything down before it," writes Mrs. S. J. Christian, of Mansville, N. J. "My doctor told me no medicine would help me. I suffered untold misery, and could hardly walk. After taking two bottles of Cardui I gave up my supporter. Now I am taking my fifth bottle, have no bad feelings as formerly, and can be on my feet half a day at a time. I strongly recommend Cardui to every suffering woman."

The Lexington Dispatch.

Wednesday, December 13, 1905.

Our Virginia Letter.

Although I have not written to my many friends through the Dispatch for some time I have none the less been interested in the affairs of my old home. This is Thanksgiving Day and I naturally turn to the "house warmings" we used to have at White Rock. Am glad they had a nice service this year, and that all reports reaching me indicate a desirable relation between the new pastor and people. "Let brotherly love continue." If heaven is love, there must be love on earth.

This leaves us enjoying the best of health. Mrs. B has had no recurrence of her asthma. Hope and think it is a thing of the past, but of course there are other ailments up here to afflict humanity. Just now they have scarlet fever only two doors away. This some times leaves permanently bad effects.

We had a splendid Thanksgiving service today. Yesterday afternoon and last night we decorated the church with the fruits of the ground: Corn, grain, cabbage, melons, apples, tomatoes, turnips, beets, safsafy, etc. In front of the altar a platform was built. On this were placed packages to be sent to the orphans. Almost every child brought a package. The whole offering amounted to $75 to be sent to our Orphan Home. The service consisted of songs, reading, recitations, with the regular devotions. The congregation was good, notwithstanding rough weather, and other services all around. All stores were closed.

It was cold last night. Some report the thermometer at 8 degrees this morning, but ours was not so low. It was, as well as one could judge by feeling, about as cold as I ever felt it in South Carolina. Apples froze in doors. There was plenty of ice in each room where there was water. The ground did not thaw today. People are very anxious about our freezing this winter. The men have put us up a good wood house and stored it with wood. They have a wood hauling and chopping day at the parsonage. I have seen only a few open fire places up here. Wood is right scarce, but coal is cheap. We are close to the mines. The good women have woven Mrs. B. a splendid carpet, and made her five thick comforts. Every time it gets a little cold they ask how we stand it. Fortunately I do not mind cold as much as some, and I turn the joke when they shiver around in big overcoats. I say: "You Virginians can't stand cold weather." It goes below zero often here, I am told.

I have had two trips to Burke's Garden recently. This is somewhat of a noted spot in Southwest Virginia. To make the trip from here you must cross three mountains in the travel of about 27 miles. It is one of the finest trips I have ever made. This was the home of Reva Peery and Greever, known to many of the readers of this. The first time I went over with Rev. J. C. Peery from our conference; then I was called over to bury a Mrs. Groseclose. I enjoyed the trips hugely, and will tell of them in another letter. Good Wishes. S. C. Ballentine. Rural Retreat, Va., Dec. 1, 1905.

In Mad Chase.
Millions rush in mad chase after health, from one extreme of faddism to another, when, if they would only eat good food, and keep their bowels regular with Dr. King's New Life Pills, their troubles would all pass away. Prompt relief and quick cure for liver and stomach trouble. 25c. at the Kaufmann Drug Co's., drug store; guaranteed.

Boylston Gleanings.
The farmers of this section are about through sowing grain. Mr. Henry Harman moved in this section last week. Mr. Jeff Rawl, of Columbia, spent last Wednesday with his mother, Mrs. Ann Rawl. Mr. Pearce Hendrix is on the sick list, but we hope to see him out soon. Six more pupils entered Cherokee school last Monday. Miss Bernice Rawl has returned home after visiting relatives in Leesville. This section is getting scarce of girls. Young Batch. Dec. 4, 1905.

The First Requisite of Beauty.
The first requisite of beauty is a clear complexion. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup clears a sallow blotched complexion as it stimulates the liver and bowels, and the eyes become bright and clear. You owe it to your friends to take it if your complexion is bad. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is very pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. The Kaufmann Drug Co.

A lot of men claim credit for being good when they are only afraid of doing wrong. When the congregation yawns the preacher needs awakening.

La Grippe and Pneumonia.

Pneumonia often follows la grippe, but never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar. It cures la grippe coughs and prevents pneumonia and consumption. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. Mr. G. Vacher, of 157 Oggood St., Chicago, writes: "My wife had a severe case of la grippe three years ago, and it left her with a terrible cough. She tried a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar and it gave immediate relief. A 50 cent bottle cured her cough entirely." Refuse substitutes. The Kaufmann Drug Co.

Mrs. Rogers Hanged.

Windsor, Va., Dec. 8—Mrs. Mary Rogers, was hanged this afternoon for the murder of her husband in 1902.

Strong efforts were made to induce Governor Bell to interfere, but he refused. The woman's nerve never failed her and she was the calmest person in the party at the scaffold.

Eleven cents cotton is a stimulus to the farmers and brings about a good feeling in all.

Furious Fighting.

"For seven years," writes Geo. W. Hoffman, of Harper, Wash., "I had a bitter battle with chronic stomach and liver trouble, but at last I won, and cured my diseases by the use of Electric Bitters. I unhesitatingly recommend them to all, and don't intend in the future to be without them in the house. They are certainly a wonderful medicine to have cured such a bad case as mine." Sold under guarantee to do the same for you, by The Kaufmann Drug Co., druggists, at 50c. a bottle. Try them today.
