Card of Thanks.
 I desire to extend my heartfelt thanks to the friends who so kindly assisted and showed their sympathy by their presence and otherwise at the funeral of my beloved wife. May God direct and bless you all.
 Hope A. Dickert.

Don't Miss This.
 Spring is here and you will need some spring goods and we remind you that if you wish to see a large stock of beautiful novelties, in the latest weaves and patterns, to call on Wm. Platt in Columbia, who will sell you at the very lowest rock bottom prices. See him before you buy.

Meet At the Parsonage.
 The members of the Lexington Pastorate are hereby invited to meet at the new parsonage on Monday, March 12th, for the purpose of building fences, planting an orchard, etc. Fruit trees will be gratefully accepted.
 G. H. Roof,
 Chairman Parsonage Committee

The New Railroad Track.
 Through the efforts of Mr. W. P. Roof, the Southern has decided to put in a branch track, leaving the main road in rear of Judge S. P. Wingard's, running down to the factory. Work will be commenced soon, which when completed, will be of great convenience and saving to the mill, hauling freights and coal. It would be of great convenience if the track could be continued across the factory dam by the wear-house, thence around the pond, across the Orangeburg street and up the branch to near Mr. Quick's still in town.

Positive Notice.
 We have several subscribers owing for a year and more subscription, and we wish to be positive. We cannot carry subscriptions this way, and want all those behind to come, or send, and settle within the next ten days, or their papers will be dropped from the list, and their accounts made out for collection.
 Every one should settle during the year, if they do not pay in advance.

Cutting Affray.
 Mr Fred Crouch, of Leesville, on Monday, was badly cut in a difficulty at that place. J. A. Fitcher and James Wiggins from N. C. who are engaged in making shingles in the vicinity of Leesville, are charged with the crime, and were brought to jail yesterday by Constable Geo. Asbill, charged with assault and battery with intent to kill.

Telephones Reaching Out.
 The Lexington telephone system is being improved and extending out. A line is being erected to Mr. Thos. L. Harman's residence, and thence to C. W. Caughman's. It is very probable that the line will be extended to Mr. Pickens Cook's by E. L. Wingard's to Senator D. F. Efrid's and to John P. Corley's. A terrible time for centra.

Married.
 March the 1st, 1906, at the parsonage of the Lexington pastorate, Mr Andrew Poath, of St. Peter's section, and Miss Mary D. Harman, of Providence section. J. W. Nease officiating. at the home of the bride's mother. Mrs. Julia Bachman, near Edmund, on February 22, 1905, Mr. Washington Ricard and Miss Lula Bachman. Rev. A. R. Taylor officiating.

The Roads of the County.
 The county commissioners paid several claims, for hauling on the State road, Monday. That piece of road through Huckabaw swamp certainly needs attention and should be worked thoroughly in the dry season of the year. Corduroyed or graveled in the wet or springy places. The great trouble comes from the bark river water covering the road bed and it is difficult, in wet seasons, to keep the road in good traveling condition. Our roads will all finally have to be worked by taxation, for people, it seems, will not do their duty on the roads.

Sales Day.
 There were a good number of citizens from various sections of the county in town Monday. The boards of control, registration and county commissioners were in session on routine work. And the sale of some valuable land drew the crowd.
 The Clerk sold the James Franklin place of 22 acres on Pea Ridge, to Samuel P. Roof, for $620.
 The John Reed place, at Edmund, to W. H. Sharpe, Esq., for $75 00.
 The Connor lands were withdrawn, also those of J. A. Wolfe.
 The county mules advertised and sold by J. B. Wingard, as clerk of board, were purchased, one by J. A. Calk for $186 00, the other by B. Harman for $39 00—pretty good bargains.

Lieut. Gen. Schofield Dead.
 St. Augustine, Fla., March 4—Lieut. Gen. Jehn M. Schofield, United States army, retired, died at 8:20 o'clock tonight. He was attacked this morning with cerebral hemorrhage. With the death of Gen. Schofield the last surviving army commander during the Civil war has passed away.

Don't forget to call at Tapps when in Columbia, just to see the number of bargains that await you.

 To the Editor of the Dispatch:
 The weather is quite changeable these days.
 Farmers are preparing the soil for planting.
 No corn has been planted in this immediate neighborhood, but Mr. Martin Kyzer has planted some corn. Brother Kyzer we sympathize with you.
 Prospects are now excellent for an abundant crop of wheat and oats.
 Mr Calvin Price, we are glad to learn, is up and about his place. We wish him a complete and speedy recovery.
 Mr. Marion Havird and family, of Saluda, spent a few days last week among relatives and friends here.
 Mrs. Charlie Shull, who has been confined to her bed for several days, is now improving.
 Messrs. Hallman & Fulmer have moved their shingle mill back home again and will cut a bill for Mr. J. L. Hallman.
 Messrs. W. J. Price and sons have sold their shingle machinery to Messrs. Stanmore Shealy and Killian Orner, of near Dupler.
