Look Out, Dead Beats.

It has been discovered that newspaper subscriptions are almost an infallible test of a man's honesty. If he is dishonest he will cheat the printer, and if he cheats the printer he is dishonest, hence there is no escape. The editor's subscription book will be on hand at the judgment day, and some fellows will pray for the mountains to fall on them because they didn't square up with the printer.

The Carnival.

Which so merrily entertained our people here last week with their numerous exhibitions have struck tents and moved up to Batesburg, where they are booked for this week. Their shows here, judging from the patronage they received, must have given entire satisfaction. It was certainly a jolly time for our young folks, all of whom seemed to enjoy themselves hugely and continuously. There were nothing in the performances to mar the most refined taste, and the managers, Messrs. Sistrunk & Sheridan, are polite and clever gentlemen. The citizens of Batesburg can rely on having good shows with proper management.

Brooks J. Wingard, accompanied by two of his friends of the University of South Carolina, Frank W. Bradley, of Abbeville, and Verne Cook, of Lancaster, spent Easter Sunday in Lexington. They worshipped at St. Stephen's Lutheran church, and returned to Columbia on the evening train.

Mr. A. D. Martin is at home for a few days.

A protracted meeting conducted by Evangelist R. A. Sublett, of Summerton, will be in progress at the Baptist church here next week. It is earnestly hoped that much good for the Master will be accomplished.

The union meeting of this division will be held at Sardis, four miles from Swansea, next Saturday and Sunday. April 24, 1906

Sudden Death.

Hon. A. P. Childs, of Vermont, while on a visit to his brother, Maj. F. W. Childs, one of the proprietors and managers of the Lexington hotel situated at Summerland, near Batesburg, died very suddenly on the morning of April 24. His death was quite unexpected, he apparently enjoying fairly good health. His remains were shipped to his home at Cartleton, Vermont, for interment.

Give Us an Order.

Every business man should have his name, occupation and address printed on his stationery, as it attracts attention and consequently draws customers. Also those who are not in business and do a great deal of correspondence ought to have their name and address printed plainly on their stationery so as to have no trouble in being lost, etc. We are now prepared to execute all orders for printing of any kind at a reasonable price for good stationery and neat work only. Get our prices before you place an order. The Dispatch Job Printing Office.

It will be information for our people, a majority of whom trade in Columbia, to know that all the stores there will close at 6 o'clock after May the first.

After the meeting of the county convention here Monday, May 7th, the candidates for the various offices will introduce themselves to the voting public of Lexington county. We hear of some good men going to enter the race. Wait and see.

Fishermen, remember, you will find all kinds of hooks, lines, &c., at the Bazaar.

Miss Ethel Drener, who has been teaching school in Waverly, suburbs of Columbia, for some time, spent Saturday and Sunday at home. Miss Genia Smith also engaged in teaching in the graded schools of Columbia accompanied Miss Ethel, both returning Sunday afternoon.

All the Democratic clubs in the county are expected to hold meetings next Saturday 28th, at their usual time and place, to organize and elect delegates to the county convention which assembles here on Monday, 7th May.

Our local weather prophet says we are going to have a mild summer with plenty of rain. He also said he knew we were to have a cold wave past few days, but he was careful to say nothing about it until it was here.

FOR SALE—A fifty dollar certificate, good for payment for that amount, on a piano purchase from the Cable Piano Co., which I offer for $5 Apply to Jesse G Harman, Lexington, S. C.

Our town authorities have wisely invested in a fire engine for the protection of the property of the town, and the engine is here. The next thing is the water supply, and we trust that ample arrangements can be made to meet the demand necessary.

Have you seen the selected job lot of beautiful laces, ribbons and notions, all cheap and just what the ladies want, at the Bazaar. Iccoline Harman.

Dots from Halfway Hollow.

Everything is getting along very nicely on Black Creek. Farming is a little behind but is being pushed for all it is worth.

The patrons of Wateree school met last Saturday and voted a two mills extra school tax in our district, No. 28. They agreed to have the district centered and build a new school house. This is a move in the right direction and should have been done long ago, but the wrong men were in the lead. We thank our friends for their kindness in the above act.

Well, if Mr. Jackson just wants a free right of way for his trolley, why don't some of the friends along the line call a meeting and give him the right of way. Our country is just as much God's country as the ridge, and have just as good a right to the trolley as any one else. And it is a very unjust step of those who are endeavoring to induce the company to take another route. Traveler.
