Father and Child Bitten by Mad Cat.
 Waterloo, May 4—Mr. Mathew Lowe, a prominent citizen of this place, and his little daughter, Annie Laurie, were bitten this morning by a mad cat. The cat has been acting rather strangely for the past week, but nothing unusual was noticed until this morning. Mr. Lowe has gone to Atlanta with his little girl for treatment.

A Sad Accident.
 It was sad news Friday to Mr. B. H. Leiby, foreman, and his force, who have been in charge of the rock work at the Tarrar quarry below town for some time, to hear of Mr. H. M. Dalton accidentally shooting himself at the Elk's club rooms, in Hopkinsville, Ky., on Thursday afternoon, while lying on a couch. Mr. Dalton had been sick and was lying on the couch resting and while endeavoring to remove a pistol from his pocket, it fell and struck the floor and discharged, the bullet striking him in the side from which he died the next morning about 5:30 o'clock.

He was one of the proprietors of the rock work here and his death is much regretted. His friends surely have the sympathy of our people in their unfortunate loss.
 Mr. Leibey will, however, we learn, continue his successful management of the work here for some time at least.

Dots from Piney Woods.
 Mrs. Eady Amick has been very sick, but she is improving.
 Some of the farmers' have been bad behind with their work, but have about caught up and are now in very good shape. Corn is up to a good stand. Cotton is about up and some is being chopped. General Green is also looking nice.
 A number of the farmers are still holding their cotton for a higher price.
 We will have plenty of peaches in this section, but apples are very shabby.
 The grain crop is looking very nice at this writing.
 Mr. Simon Arnick and sons are completing a new ell to his house. Carpenters are no object these days. One can be had any time needed.
 Our last meeting of holy communion at St. Peter's (Piney Woods) was largely attended. 299 communed, and 14 were confirmed. Rev. J. A. Cromer assisted our pastor, Rev. E. J. Sox, and delivered two very interesting sermons on Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Cromer is strong in divine work.
 With best wishes to the Dispatch and readers. Patron.
 May 7.

The Congaree (Rose) hotel, on Gervais street, Columbia, was burned early Monday morning. Boarders had narrow escape. Some in their night clothing.

Pond Branch Dots.
 To the Editor of the Dispatch:
 Farmers are well up with their work.
 Better prospects for a fine peach crop never graced this portion of the sand hills.
 Still they marry, but this time so sly and far away that no particulars are learned. Wonder if any thoughts of "home, sweet home" course through their minds.
 I see, Mr. Editor, you are contemplating a fishing trip. Remember that "Klondike" eel.
 Mrs. D. A. Lewis, of Townville, S. C., is recuperating in the balmy breezes of Lexington.
 Mrs. Geo. W. Smith and Miss Essie Crout are attending the district meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society in Columbia this week.
 If everyone lived just as he would have his neighbor live, the millennial age would have dawned years ago.
 After a long illness a child of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Keisler died last Thursday and was interred in Boiling Springs cemetery Friday. Rev. Inabinet officiating.
 Now who'll be the first candidate to announce? Its the early bird that catches the worm.
