

J. L. MIMNAUGH & CO., COLUMBIA'S GREAT DEPARTMENT STORE.

EVERY DAY A BARGAIN DAY.

We are showing in every Department the best goods at unmatchable Prices.

OUR CLOTHING & MENS' FURNISHING DEPARTMENT

We are offering special values in Boys' and Mens' Suits and Pants, also a big showing of Hats, Caps, Hosiery, Underwear,

OUR SHOE DEPARTMENT

Is running over with great Shoe values.

SPECIAL BARGAINS

In our Crockery Ware and Housefurnishing Department. You will find here a complete stock of Tinware, Glass Ware, Table Cutlery and house furnishing novelties in great Variety.

CORSETS.—We sell the best makes—American Beauty, Warner's and other renown makes. Price 50c., 75c., $1.00 and up.

We are showing special values in our LADIES SUIT DEPARTMENT in the way of Skirt, Waist and Suits.

We carry the largest stock of Hosiery in the Carolinas—10c. to $5.00 the pair.

See us on CARPETS, MATTINGS, WINDOW SHADES FLOOR OIL CLOTH and RUGS.

J. L. MIMNAUGH & CO., COLUMBIA, S. C.

PENCIL AND SCISSORS.

Wayside Notes Gathered Here and There by a Dispatch Man.

Lexington turpentine market—Virgin, per barrel, $8.50; yearlings, $7.50; yellow dip, $7.25.

Campaign day here Saturday 30th. Always use T. X. L. for pains.

What you say now about the good old summer time?

Miss Laura Foss is now visiting her sister, Mrs. F. W. Rauch.

Mrs. Job Wessinger, of Chapin, visited relatives in town last week.

Mr. A. J. Fox made a flying visit to Chatanooga, Tenn., last week.

Highest price paid for beeswax, at the Bazaar.

Be sure and attend the state campaign meeting here next Saturday.

In buggies, wagons and harness, we can give you just what you want, at Roof's store.

Our county summer school will open latter part next month. Program and announcement in next issue.

Ice cream served on Saturday at the Bazaar fountain.

Miss Mary Wingard, of Lexington, is the guest of Miss Clara Sawyer.—Johnston News-Monitor.

Mr. Will Smoak, of the mail service, is at home for a few days' rest.

The chaingang is now up on Mr. Isaiah Hallman's section of the county about Leesville.

There are now at the poor house of this county eleven paupers, two white and nine colored.

New lot of men's negligee shirts for mid summer wear 50c. to $2.00.

E. G. Dreher & Co.

T. X. L. cures cold in the head.

Sunday's rain brought a number of our farmers to town Monday after necessities, &c., for the farm.

Take dinner at Corley's cue in the Ballentine store building campaign day here.

Mrs. Samuel B. George and little folks spent last week in Aiken and Augusta.

Dr. P. H. Shealy is in attendance at the State Dental association at the Isle of Palms.

Mr. G. B. Taylor, route 5, an industrious farmer, was in town Monday and dropped in settled for his paper.

Our very courteous and efficient county treasurer, F. W. Shealey, went to Columbia yesterday on official business.

When in town call and see our splendid stock of general merchandise. Our prices are always right. Roof's store.

Mr. N. Steele, from up on Hollow Creek was in town Tuesday on other business, but he did not forget the printers.

Judge Andrew Crawford, Esq., one of the ablest attorneys at the Columbia bar, was in town on legal business yesterday.

While you are thinking of home and its comforts, call and see the line of Furniture, Hammocks, Rugs, Shades, etc., at Scott Hendrix.

The rock work at the Cayce quarry is going to be revived soon. Machinery will be placed to fill large orders for granite down South.

Mrs. Lena Hubbard, accompanied by her sister-in-law, Miss Mamie Hubbard, spent last week with the family of Col. M. D. Harman.

Mrs. J. N. Rawlinson, of Columbia, with the children are visiting parents here. Rev. W. D. Quick is the proudest grandpa you ever saw.

Every thing cheap at the Lexington Department Store. Be sure to call when attending the State campaign, June 30th.

Mr. J. S. Muller, one of the ablest equity lawyers in the State, was here on business yesterday.

Our dry goods and notion department is full of all the new and pretty dress goods and novelties in notions. Roof's store.

Prof. O. D. Seay, his wife and little son, are visiting Mr. H. M. Wingard and other friends for a few days.

You will find some bargains still left at the bankrupt sale, at Smoak's old stand. It will be to your interest to call early.

Eggs and frying chickens seem to be scarce in Columbia, and hucksters are in our market after them—buying up all they can get.

The Southern is laying ties and iron on the track from the switch to the Lexington Manufacturing Company's mill.

While you are heated and uncomfortable, go to the Bazaar fountain and take a delightful cool drink.

Don't forget the grand opportunity to pull mutton and pork ribs at Corley's barbecue, in the Ballentine store, next Saturday.

It is said the peach crop on the ridge has been badly injured from so much rain, and returns from those shipped are not very favorable.

Mr. Cyrus L. Shealy has been here for several days spending part of his vacation, and assisting Treasurer Shealy with his annual settlement.

Col. D. T. Barre, always true to obligations and the performance of duty, was here yesterday in answer to a summons to give testimony in the Fulmer-Fulmer case.

We were, indeed, lucky this week to secure the help of Mr. E. J. Lawson, a typo of Hopkinsville, Ky., who is now engaged at the rock quarry, below town, but still familiar enough with the cases to be of valuable service to us.

Mr. John Cato, of Irene, who was charged with larceny off the person, and has been confined in jail several weeks, settled the case against him last Friday, paying all cost and for a watch, the cause of the action, and was released.

Labor is scarce and the farmers have to hustle soon and late. Those who can manage their own work are better off.

Always remember when you need something good to eat, groceries or vegetables, go to H. M. Wingard's grocery store.

Mr. J. Norris Buzbee was in town Saturday and called in to see us and had his name added to the Dispatch subscription list.

A deep well has been completed for Rev. W. D. Quick, and the flow is satisfactory. The depth being near two hundred feet.

Mr. E. A. Roland, a very industrious farmer on Lexington route 3, was in town yesterday and dropped in and renewed his paper.

Rev. Thos. H. Leitch is now holding a ten days revival meeting in Greenwood, S. C. Mr. Thos. Marshall, the great singer, is with him.

A number of our town people went to Columbia yesterday to attend the Columbia-Jacksonville game, in which the former was victorious—3 to 2.

When you go to Ballentine's ask for the white house shoe where you will not fail to get a solid leather shoe, and J. B. Ballentine will make the price suit you.

Mr. J. Talmage Wessinger who is conductor on the street railway, Columbia, was off a day Thursday and run over to see his folks, and dropped in and renewed his paper.

Just in!
The most delightfully cool Shoes for summer a man ever put his feet into.

It's a Tan Oxford, of course. Tan leather is the coolest leather because it is more porous, and lets in the air, and the color does not attract heat rays.

Tan leather has very little dye in it and so will wear longer than black leather of the same kind.

The prices are $2.50 and $3.50, don't fail to ask, to see them.

EHRlich's,
1643 Main St., }
1627 Main St., } COLUMBIA, S. C.

Wells! Wells!!
BERLEY & KYZER,
THE - WELL - MEN.

If you want to do well, be well and look well, get Berley & Kyzer, Lexington, S. C., to put you in a Terra Cotta Well which will give you pure water. Our prices are right, our work is right. Give us a trial and be convinced.

EXPERIENCE.
Years of Experience are at Your COMMAND.

Successful experience has been ours and we want everybody who has cause to feel that there is anything the matter with their eyes at all, to call and have us give them proper tests.

THERE ARE NO CHARGES FOR EXAMINATIONS.

CHARLES F. SENTZ,
OPTICIAN,
JEWELER,
1439 Main St., Columbia, S. C.

WHEN YOUR GRANDFATHER WAS A BOY HE USED A

MCCORMICK

My son, hear the instructions of thy grandfather and forsake not his ways nor the ways of thine own father, for their way has been that of the McCormick.

Use McCormick machines, for they will be instruments of great good on thy farm.

Gregory-Conder Mule Co.
AGENTS,
1115 Plain Street, Columbia, S. C.

MOWERS, RAKES, REAPERS.

Its knives start instantly when the team starts. It does not clog.

Its gears are enclosed like the works of a watch. This means long wear.

Its pitman is protected completely.

Its bar follows the ground, cutting all the hay.

It draws easily, having roller bearings. It has a good foot lift.

It draws easily and has no neck weight.

A boy can handle the Osborne.

THE OSBORNE COLUMBIA MOWER.

OSBORNE

Works all the ground. STRONG. LASTING.

THE OSBORNE SULKY HARROW.

Does the Work of Two Harrows.

THE OSBORNE COMBINATION HARROW.

Strong and Rigid. Levers Handy. Handles Strong. Points Reversible. Buy "Osborne."

Each tooth has the strength of all Five Bars. Teeth can't lose.

THE OSBORNE COLUMBIA PEB HARROW.

FOR SALE BY W. P. ROOF, S. C.

LEXINGTON, S. C.

Barbecue.

ON JULY 4TH I WILL FURNISH at my turpentine still, on the Southern road, a first class 'cue and refreshments. Everything will be up-to-date. I have decided to have two tables; one for the ladies and children, the other for young ladies and men and boys too. I will guarantee satisfaction with all reasonable people. So come and bring your children and enjoy the day. There will be speaking, and music by a string band that will tickle your heart.

4w34 H. STEELE, Ethan, S. C.

T. X. L. cures neuralgia.

The Orangeburg Collegiate Institute

Has recently closed what has been by far the most prosperous session in its history. It is a fine place to educate your boys and girls. Our new catalogue tells all about the school and is free for the asking. Drop us a card and we will be pleased to send you a copy.

W. S. PATTERSON, President,
Orangeburg, S. C.

THE STORE OF BIG BARGAINS

COLUMBIA'S QUICK SALE AND SMALL PROFIT EMPORIUM

We buy and sell for Cash only. Your dollar here always captures

BIGGEST AND BEST BARGAINS

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO KEEP YOUR EYE ON OUR COUNTERS

Your Dollar Here "Is a Mighty Thing."

J. C. MOORE & SON,

Main and Blanding Streets. Columbia, S. C.