Ladies
In selecting your summer apparel and other dry goods and notions, never buy until you have examined the stock at Wm. Platt's, Columbia. There you will find a nice line to select from and the prices are always reasonable.

An Able Institution.
In this issue you will find the advertisement of the Welch Neck High school, Hartsville, S. C. It is an able co-educational institution having a full faculty in all branches with reasonable rates of tuition. Write Robt. W. Durrett, Hartsville, S. C.

Lever at Columbia.
Congressman Lever spoke first tonight. He is popular here and spoke well, and was well received. He outlined what practical work he had done for his district. He said if kept in congress long enough he and Tillman would get a half million dollar building here. Tillman would do the cussing and he the praying.

Divine Services.
Rev. J. H. Wilson, of Salem, Va., delivered a very able and interesting sermon in St. Stephen's church, Sunday, to an appreciative audience. His mission here was in the interest of the Lutheran Orphan Home at Salem, Va., a noble and worthy institution of the United Synod, to which a portion of his sermon was directed, giving interesting facts of the church and its work. At night Mr. Wilson again preached a sermon which our people were glad to hear.

Old Chronic Sores.
As a dressing for old chronic sores there is nothing so good as Chamberlain's Salve. While it is not advisable to heal old sores entirely, they should be kept in a good condition for which this salve is especially valuable. For sale by the Kaufmann Drug Co.

Citadel Scholarship.
We are requested by J. E. Rawl Kyzer, superintendent of education, to state that young men wishing to apply for the Citadel Military scholarship, Charleston, S. C., will call on him for application blanks and instructions. Applications must go in to the chairman of the board of visitors before the first day of August.

Millinery at Reduced Prices.
I have in stock a beautiful line of hats and trimmings which I will sell at reduced prices to make room for fall and winter stock. Call and see what I have. Mrs. Annie Clark.

A Card of Thanks.
The family of Mr. R. M. Senn, return their thanks to the many friends and neighbors for their kindness and help during his sickness and death.
MRS. MARY SENN.

Death of an Aged Lady.
In the death of Mrs. Ann Delilah Drennan, which occurred last night, there passed away probably the oldest resident of the city of Columbia. She was 91 years of age and for nearly all of her life has been living in this city. She was born at Platt Springs, in Lexington county, but moved to Columbia with her parents while yet a girl.—State, July 8.

Killing at Gilbert.
Jerry hope shot and killed John Carter, both colored, at Gilbert, Sunday morning. Jerry came down and gave himself up and was locked up in jail. It is said a woman was the cause and that Jerry claims self-defense.
Corner Wilson went up and held an inquest. The jury returned a verdict "That John Carter came to his death from pistol shot wounds at the hands of Jerry Hope."

Reunion--Newberry College.
The Little Mountain Reunion will be held at Little Mountain on the 1st Friday in August. The programme will appear later. Thanking you for this favor. I am, yours truly,
J. H. Shealy,
Pres. of the Reunion.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church, will give an ice cream supper on next Saturday night the 14th instant, at the home of Mrs. R. M. Gibbs. Come and bring your friend. We will assure you a nice time.

Lawn Party.
Messrs. Essie and Lucile Efrid delightfully entertained their friends and school mates, Miss Hannah Wilson, of Salisbury, N. C., last Thursday evening at a lawn party. The lawn was beautifully arranged and decorated. The trees and piazza were hung with Japanese lanterns. At a very cozy little corner Misses Cora and Ruth Efrid presided over the punch bowl. Later in the evening refreshments were served. It was one of the pleasantest occasions enjoyed by the young people of the town for some time, and will long be remembered. The Misses Efrid's proved themselves to be versed in the art of entertaining. The following are those who were present:
Misses Lula Kaminer, Beulah Fox, Hannah Wilson, of Salisbury, N. C., Isoline Harman, Mary Graham, Ruth Graham, Saidie Leslie, Pearl Oswald and Mrs. Sarah Shuler, of Batesburg. Messrs. S. J.
