The Summer School.
Our summer school will open here on Monday, July 30, when we expect to see in attendance a number of our young lady and gentleman teachers from all sections of the county. It will be not only interesting to them but beneficial.

No Humbug.
It will be noticed that Mimnaugh & Co., Columbia, will in the next few weeks sell at reduced prices all summer goods. They need the room for fall stock and the goods must go. There is no humbug about it. Our people should call and secure the reductions in this clearance sale.

Baptist Union Meeting.
The Upper Division of the Lexington Baptist Association will meet at Providence church on Saturday before the fifth Sunday in July, 1906. There will be interesting discussions pertaining to the Church and Sunday School and a pleasant time for the members of the Association.

Fine Cabbage.
We are obliged to Mrs. Martha E. Derrick, who is keeping house for Mr. W. B. Frick, for some of the finest hard-head cabbage we ever saw raised in this section. She is in her 76th year of age and is as devoted to domestic duties as if she was just in the prime of life.

Pleasure Trips.
A number of our people are taking advantage of the cheap rates on the railroads and are visiting the several places of pleasure and sights to be seen. Among whom we know of visited Savannah and Tybe Sunday were: F. E. Dreher, Esq., S. J. Leaphart, Sam P. Roof and R. D. Smith, of this place.

Post Graduate Course.
Dr. D. M. Crosson, of Leesville, is in New York where he will spend some time attending lectures and doing post graduate work, surgery, &c., in the hospitals, and paying special attention to the diseases of women and children, that he may keep abreast in his profession, and render his patients on return home such service as he may gain in this course of instruction.

Crops.
The crops, judging from our exchanges, are a failure in various parts of the State. This is especially true of the lower part of the State where the sand lands have been unable to stand the heavy and continuous rains. The crops in this county do not compare favorably with those of last year. The West is said to have fine prospects.

STUCK TO HUSBAND.

Abducted Girl Didn't Want to Leave Him.
Spartanburg, S. C., July 13.—Pearl Shaver raised a scene in Judge Hydrick's office this morning when she persisted in the determination to go with her husband after the verdict in the habeas corpus proceedings which returned her to her father.
She finally reluctantly agreed to return with her people after having been advised to do so by every one in the room, including Shaver's counsel.
Spartanburg, July 13.—Geo. Shaver, who was yesterday convicted upon a combined charge of perjury and marrying a girl under age, was sentenced this morning by Judge George E. Prince. For perjury Shaver received imprisonment of one year and a fine of $100. For marrying a girl under age the sentence was five years or $400.

The Delineator for August.
A wealth of suggestions for the newest Summer gowns is to be found in the August Delineator, which is interesting, not only from the standpoint of fashion, but for its reading as well. There are numerous articles devoted to the interests of the home:—The Kitchen, House Furnishing, Needlework and Dressmaking, and the children's pages include a variety of features having for their purpose the entertainment of young folks.—Published by The Butterick Pub. Co., New York, at $1 per annum.
