Priceville News.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:
Copious showers continue to fall, and the farmers are still hustling. Cotton on red land is fairly good, but poor on sandy soil. Generally, the corn crops on uplands are good, where properly cultivated and fertilized. The season has been two wet for corn on bottom lands and in many cases the crop is lost. The 'cue at Poplar Spring passed off very nicely. Everybody seemed to enjoy themselves, though many had to go away hungry as there was not enough to feed the large crowd. Mr. Joe A. Koon, who is a candidate for the office of County Treasurer, said that he believed in putting new blood into the office at least every six years. He says he is running strictly on merit, and if elected, will carry out the work of the office according to the law. We are glad to have Dr. Price with us again. Peas have been extensively planted and are coming to the very best stand with enough grass to make excellent hay. Old Joe.

Delmar Locals.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:
We have had rain almost daily during the past week. Cotton is growing nicely. Corn is pale in many places, and the yields will not be up to the average. Peas are growing rapidly, and with continued favorable weather will make a good crop. On account of unfavorable weather the missionary meeting at Mt. Hebron was not very largely attended. The exercises in the morning consisted of songs and recitations, by the societies and an address by Mrs. D. B. Groseclose, of Leesville, to the Children's society. After partaking of a sumptuous dinner the congregation returned to the church to listen to a very interesting and well prepared speech by Rev. W. H. Greever, of Columbia, on missions. Our annual barbecue was held last Thursday. The crowd was estimated at from 800 to 1,000. A number of speeches were made by the candidates of Lexington and Saluda counties, and everybody seemed to have had a nice time. Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Hare, of Summit, attended the barbecue and spent Thursday night at Mr. W. H. Hare's. Mr. J. O. Eargle, of Leesville, attended the 'cue and spent the night with his sister, Mrs. A. V. Hite. Miss Jessie Oxner and sister, of Brookland, are visiting their uncle, Mr. J. L. B. Oxner. Mr. J. Henry Snelgrove returned to his home at Garfield, Ga., Saturday. Mrs. Snelgrove and little son will extend their visit for some time. At the Lutheran parsonage, Delmar, S. C., on Wednesday evening, July 25th, Mr. Rafor Taylor and Miss Annie Miller were united in marriage, Rev. J. D. Shealey officiating. Rev. J. D. Shealy, Mr. J. Luther Moore and Miss Jessie Caughman represented Mt. Hebron at the Sunday school convention at Lexington. Prof. Kibler, of Newberry, and Miss Jessie Caughman have been elected as teachers for the Delmar Collegiate Institute for the next term. Mrs. J. L. B. Oxner was carried to Columbia Friday and placed in the State Asylum hospital for treatment. Mrs. Oxner has been in declining health for some time, and by her actions it was feared that her mind might become impaired. Lloyd.

County Commissioners Must Be Elected.

It will be seen by notice of County Chairman Efrid elsewhere that the county commissioners must be elected in the general election, also in the primary. This fact was over looked by the county convention, and consequently by the executive committee, caused no doubt, by the change of the recent act which provides for a county supervisor at a salary of $750 and two county commissioners at $3 per day for actual service not to exceed twenty-five days in the year. Thus giving the commissioners $75 per annum each, provided the time is occupied in performance of the duties of the office. The office is very important, as these commissioners are required to meet with the county supervisor at all business meetings and assist in the adjusting of claims and payment of all bills against the county—virtually having equal responsibility of the county's finances. The salary is small but ample for the work to be performed by said officers.

Compliments Well Deserved.

Messrs. R. F. Coble, general superintendent, and T. P. Moore, boss spinner, of the Odell Manufacturing company, Bessimer City, N. C., embracing six mills, on a general tour of inspection of the various cotton mills, stopped over here Thursday evening and Friday morning and inspected the Lexington mill. Their object, while off on a little rest, is to take a view of the mills and to learn of any new ideas in the manufacture of goods, the working of machinery, etc. They are very clever gentlemen, and we were glad to have met them. They were pleased with our little mill and spoke in highest terms of its management, saying it was the most up-to-date mill they had seen. This should be gratifying to Capt. L. W. Redd and his able assistants, who should feel this a high compliment, coming from competent and experienced mill men. It should also be pleasing to the company. Capt. Redd has under his supervision, not only the mill here, but the Batesburg mill as well.

Joint Conference Sunday School Convention.

The convention which has been looked forward to with a great deal of pleasure by our people, was held in St. Stephen's Lutheran church, Lexington, S. C., Friday, July 27 to 29, 1906. Rev. C. P. Boozer, President of the Joint Council, presided and in the absence of the secretary, Rev. E. J. Sox, acted as secretary, assisted by Rev. J. B. Harman. The address of welcome was delivered by Mr. Jas. E. Hendrix, Supt. of St. Stephen's Sunday school, and was responded to by the president of the convention. The attendance of the ministers and delegates was large, very few being absent. Among the ministers present were Revs. C. P. Boozer, E. J. Sox, J. B. Haigler, J. D. Shealy, W. H. Greever, D. B. Groseclose, Enoch Hite, J. W. Nease, E. L. Lybrand, B. D. Wessinger, V. C. Ridenhour, J. B. Harman, C. E. Weltner, P. D. Risinger, J. A. Cromer, C. A. Freed, R. E. Livingston, S. P. Shumpert, A. R. Taylor and J. G. Graichen. Visiting ministers were Revs. Boiling and Yonce, and several ministers of other denominations.

Swansea News.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:
Mr. Will Hutto, of Leesville, is visiting his brother, Mr. P. E. Hutto. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hodge, formerly of Swansea but now of Virginia, are here for a month with relatives. Miss Allie Rucker, of Bakersville, spent last week with Mrs. J. R. Langford. Mr. Clarence Gantt and sister, Mrs. Callie Jordan, of Wagener, were with relatives here last Wednesday and Thursday. Miss Blanche Brooker spent last week in North. Mr. B. E. Williams is away on a visit to his parents in Aiken county. Misses Lessie and Louise Tillar, of Columbia, are visiting relatives in town. Mr. Charles L. Rast has gone to Orangeburg for a visit to his home folks. Mr. John Younginer, who is a substantial citizen of this section, returned last Tuesday much improved in health after a sojourn of five weeks in Hot Springs, Ark. Miss Lila Hook and Sallie Rast spent several days of last week with Mrs. W. H. Wannamaker, near here. Mrs. Weeks and baby, of Elloree, are visiting Mrs. S. J. Derrick. Mrs. G. W. Dukes and children have gone to Rowesville and Branchville on an extended visit. Mrs. Davis L. Hildebrand left Tuesday for College Park, Ga., where she will be for some time with her mother. Miss Isabel Brooker is in Columbia with her brother, L. C. Brooker, who is ill at the Columbia hospital. Miss Minnie Johnson is visiting her cousin, Miss Lula Jefcoat, near here. Mr. R. L. Lybrand spent several days in Perry last week. Mrs. W. H. Johnson returned to her home in Scotia last week after a short visit here. She was accompanied by Miss Annie Johnson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Rogers went to River Junction, Fla., Thursday, after visiting the latter's parents here. A large number of our towns-people attended the dedicatory services of Cross Roads Methodist church five miles west of here Sunday. The dedication sermon was ably preached by presiding elder Dargan, and the congregation of Cross Roads is to be congratulated upon their new and very attractive house of worship. A protracted meeting is in progress there this week, being conducted by Rev. M. F. Dukes, of Woodford. Rev. J. F. McGill is away this week in a meeting at Gaston. Mrs. Sarah Rast is real sick at this writing. Mr. C. H. Corbitt was called to the bed side of his aged mother at Salley last week, and his many friends sympathize with him in his anxiety and sorrow over her critical condition. July 30, 1906. C.

A Good Man Is No More.

Mr. Henry Hendrix, who lived up on Saluda, and who has been very feeble for some time, died at his home last Friday and his remains were buried in the family cemetery the following day. Mr. Hendrix was a good neighbor and citizen, and was a faithful Confederate soldier in Co. K, 20th Regiment, S. C. V., and his old comrades will receive this sad news with regrets. But he now rests in peace. Always use T. X. L. for pains.
