Bantams for Sale.
I have a yard of thoroughbred white Japanese bantams for sale at a reasonable price. Apply to E. M. Shull, New Brookland, S. C., R. F. D. 1.

Protracted Services.
Preparatory services at Nazareth on Saturday, August 4th, at 4 p. m. Two sermons will be preached and the holy communion administered on Sunday. In all probability the services will be concluded on Wednesday.

Leesville is Coming.
Lexington county people who are in Columbia today say that a proposition to establish a large mattress factory in Leesville is very likely soon to take tangible shape. This will be one of several important industries lately to be acquired by this town, one of the most promising in the State.—Columbia Record, July 20.

Call and See Us.
If your name is not on our books, we will be pleased to see it there before the close of 1906. We want you to call The Home Bank "Your Bank," to have you feel interested in its growth and worth in the community.
ALFRED J. FOX, Cashier.

Lecture Tonight.
Prof. Patterson Wardlaw of the University of South Carolina will address the teachers of the County Summer School and all persons interested in the cause of education, this evening, Wednesday, at 8:15 o'clock. The lecture will be held in the court house. All persons are invited and are urged to attend. Prof. Wardlaw is a forceful and interesting speaker and it will be well worth any one's while to be present this evening.

Two Hearts That Beat As One.
Mr. W. A. Cooner and Miss Ola Thompson were happily married at Pendleton, Anderson county, the home of the bride, on July 25th, 1906.
Mr. Cooner is one of Batesburg's prominent young business men, and the bride is a popular young lady of her town. She has been one of the accomplished teachers of the Batesburg Graded school for several terms and is very popular there.

Something for Every Household.
Everybody wants to see something they have never seen before, and that is just the reason we propose to cite you to something new, something to your advantage and something that is bound to please you. When you are in Columbia just walk down stairs in the basement, where you will find displayed an elegant line of useful and ornamental household and kitchen furnishings. No housekeeper should miss it. The clerks will show you all of this enormous display of goods. The prices will do the rest and Minnaugh's is the place.

Statement Ask to be Published

To the Editor of the Dispatch:
Two years ago at the adjournment of the last meeting of the Executive Committee it was understood, and the secretary and treasurer agreed to publish in the Dispatch an itemized statement of all the receipts and disbursements of the money handled by the committee. I was not a regular reader of the paper and never heard that such itemized statement ever appeared. If it did, it will be interesting enough to publish it again. If it did not, then several interested parties insist that it be published.
Respectfully,
Ex-Executiveman.
Lexington, S. C., July 30, 1906.

Barbecue at Rishton.

Saturday was the day fixed for the barbecue at Rishton and Messrs. Gantt and Spradley certainly served a first class dinner. The people of that community were out and all enjoyed the day with the candidates. Present were: E. J. Etheredge, Paul E. Hutto, J. Brooks Wingard, W. H. Sharpe, for the House; A. D. Martin, Esq., for Judge of Probate; Frank W. Shealy, H. L. Oswald for County Treasurer; Geo. A. Shealy for County Supervisor, and Sam'l. J. Derrick for County Auditor, most of whom spoke and were well received.

Gamblers Caught.

Sheriff P. H. Corley having been notified of a party of gamblers from Columbia and the town of Brookland habitually violating the Sabbath in gambling on the banks of the river on the Lexington side, and he always alert as to performance of duty, made all arrangements and on Sunday, accompanied by Messrs. Rion Graham, of our town, and State Constables Eison, Harling, Kibler and Brunson, and Willie Smoak, of Columbia, went over in the afternoon, and going up the river deployed forces and at a proper signal they swooped down on the party of gamblers. Nine in number, all white, who were caught in the act, were arrested. The sheriff and assistants brought them over to jail. The majority of them have given bond for their appearance at court, others are still in jail.

The Teachers' Summer School.

The Lexington County Summer School for Teachers opened Monday with a very good attendance despite the fact that it was raining all the morning. The teachers are comfortably located, and both they and the instructors are hard at work. Prof. Allen giving courses in physiology and arithmetic and Prof. Major, in pedagogy and civil government.
Those in attendance up to Tuesday are: Misses Sue Corley, Anice Bouknight, Bertha Kleckley, Emma Koon, Lizzie Seay, Ellen Hendrix, Rosa Belle Fallaw, Annie Estelle Harman, Lella Hendrix, Eppie Roof, Kezie George, Hattie Cromer, Annie Harsey, Mincey Pound, Ella Harman, Hessie Harman, Blanche Roof, Mary C. Wingard, Marcella Jeffcoat, Carrie Corley, Dora Shirey and Messrs W. D. Hill, J. Olin Crout, F. W. Rauch. This number will be increased in the progress of the school.
We are pleased to have with us Profs. Major and Allen. They are gentlemen of culture and ability and thoroughly imbued with their work.

Hayes 'Cue—4th August.

Don't fail to attend the big barbecue at Ioor Hayes' on August 4th. This will be one of the best 'cues of the season. There will be plenty to feed the crowd; the dinner will be served in a nice, cool, dry place. The Hon. A. F. Lever and several of the State candidates will be present to address you. The Ladies String Band of Ethan will furnish music for the entire day; the photographer will be present to serve you. Refreshments of all kinds will be served and the trains stop both ways for passengers. Come and enjoy the best barbecue dinner you ever ate. A pleasant day and a good time is promised to all who attend. August 4.
Ask your dealer for T. X. L.

County Commissioners Must Go Into the Primary.

My attention has been called to the fact that the proviso to the general act of 1900, providing for the election of County Commissioners in Lexington and some other counties by the qualified electors has not been repealed by subsequent acts, as it was at first supposed. Hence the commissioners for Lexington county cannot be appointed under the general law, but must be voted for in the general election and must go into the primary.
It is now too late to call the executive committee to meet and fix the assessment, and I will assume the responsibility of fixing the assessment at $2.00, successful candidates to pay $1.00 more, subject to approval of the committee at its next meeting. Pledges must be filed and assessments paid by August 7th, to myself or F. H. Hendrix, Leesville, but announcements in papers may be made any time afterward.
This notice supercedes information given out by me to individuals that county commissioners would not go into primaries.
C. M. EFRID,
Co. Chairman.
