

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Johnson and Thompson And the Barking Dog

JOHNSON and Thompson were next door neighbors. Johnson had a dog that barked a considerable part of every night. Finally Thompson said to Johnson:
"Look here, Johnson, we have always been friends, and I hope you won't take offense if I tell you that the barking of your dog is driving me and my family mad for want of sleep."
"Dear me," said Johnson. "That's queer. I hadn't noticed that Leo ever barked any to speak of."
Two or three evenings afterward Thompson came home leading a dog—the dog—by a string.
"Now, then," said he to Mrs. Thompson, "we will soon have a chance to sleep. I didn't like to shoot the beast while he belonged to Johnson, so I have bought him. Nobody can blame us for killing our own dog. I'll get some chloroform tomorrow."
A month passed, and Johnson and Thompson met.
"Well, Thompson, you haven't chloroformed the dog yet?"
"No," said Thompson. "The truth is we have become rather fond of the fellow. He is so lively and playful."
"But doesn't his barking at night annoy you?"
"I haven't noticed it."
"H'm!" said Johnson. "The brute keeps us awake half the night. I don't see how you can put up with it."—Chicago News.

A Sale.
Old Salt—Do you care for a sale, miss?
She—Yes, if it's a bargain sale.—Illustrated Bits.

Cured Hay Fever and Summer Cold.
A. J. Nusbaum, Batesville, Indiana, writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed to only aggravate my case. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar and it quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." The Kaufmann Drug Co.

The Moon's Phases.
The phases of the moon are caused by its relative position to the earth and the sun, so that when it is full moon in one part of the earth it is full moon in all parts of the earth, and so for all its other phases. The moon revolves around the earth once in twenty-seven days, though on account of the earth's revolution around the sun the mean duration of the lunar month—that is, the time from new moon to that moon—is twenty-nine days, twelve hours and forty-four minutes. The "dark of the moon" is that half of the lunar month during which the moon shines least at night.

A Cold, Hard Snub.
"Excuse me, madam," he said, "but—ah—you remember, in the restaurant after the theater the other night you were kind enough to notice me. I hope I am not mistaken in supposing that your interest was—ah—not altogether?"
"Oh, not at all. I remember now. I thought for a moment that you were the coachman my husband discharged a few weeks ago for trying to make love to the cook, and I wondered how you could afford to eat in such an expensive place."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Reminiscent.
The author had written one successful story, and he never grew tired talking of it.
"Don't you know," said one of his friends to another one day, "Biter always reminds me of a pleased dog."
"That's odd. How does he?"
"He's always wagging his tale."

Summer Diarrhoea in Children.
During the hot weather of the summer months the first unnatural looseness of a child's bowels should have immediate attention, so as to check the disease before it becomes serious. All that is necessary is a few doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy followed by a dose of castor oil to cleanse the system. Rev. M. O. Stockland, Pastor of the first M. E. church, Little Falls, Minn., writes: "We have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for several years and find it a very valuable remedy, especially for summer disorders in children." Sold by Kaufmann Drug Co.

The Terrible Infant.

"Kiss me, Toto."
"I won't. I'm afraid. Mamma said yesterday you had the tongue of a snake."—Soleil du Dimanche.
Setting Him Right.
Boroughs (angrily)—When Markley lent me that $10 I think I overheard you remark that you wondered when I would pay him back.
Kandor—No, you're mistaken.
Boroughs—Oh, I guess not!
Kandor—Yes, you are. I didn't say "when," but "if."—Philadelphia Press.

Her Love.
Clara—Is your love for him growing any less?
Maud—Oh, no.
"But he complains that you are colder."
"Well, you see, I now love him so much more than I did that I have to conceal it."—New York Life.

"Make Hay While the Sun Shines."
There is a lesson in the work of the thrifty farmer. He knows that the bright sunshine may last but a day and he prepares for the showers which are so liable to follow. So it should be with every household. Dysentery, diarrhoea and cholera morbus may attack some member of the home without warning. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which is the best known medicine for these diseases, should always be kept at hand, as immediate treatment is necessary, and delay may prove fatal. For sale by Kaufmann Drug Co.

Menagerie at Home.
Jones declined to visit the zoo with his friend, says London Health.
"I don't have to go to the zoo," he said, "because my eldest daughter does the kangaroo walk, my second daughter talks like a parrot, my son laughs like a hyena, my cook is as cross as a bear, and my mother-in-law says I'm an old gorilla."—New York Press.

Not Like Him.
Hubley—I've had a couple of drinks, yes.
Mrs. Hubley—The idea! Why do you tell me that?
Hubley—Why, it's the truth.
Mrs. Hubley—I know. That's why I can't understand your telling me.—Philadelphia Ledger.

A Serious Doubt.
"Bliggins says he sometimes finds he forgets to pay his debts."
"I never could be quite sure," answered the suspicious person, "whether he finds he forgets to pay 'em or whether he finds it pays to forget 'em."—Washington Star.

If the Baby is Cutting Teeth,
Be sure and use that old and well-tried remedy, Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.
It is the best of all.

Simple Spelling.
The simple spelling days have come, When all can spell who wish, And none will be considered dumb Who can spell it phish for fish. But let the styles of spelling change—What dif to such as I. Who know that through all spelling's range They still must spell it p-l-e! —Baltimore Sun.

My Hair is Scraggly
Do you like it? Then why be contented with it? Have to be? Oh, no! Just put on Ayer's Hair Vigor and have long, thick hair; soft, even hair. But first of all, stop your hair from coming out. Save what you have. Ayer's Hair Vigor will not disappoint you. It feeds the hair-bulbs; makes weak hair strong.

Right.
Irate Wife—I want to know, sir, what time it was when you got home last night!
Husband (meekly)—A quarter of 12, my dear.
Irate Wife—Twelve nothing! The clock had just struck 3, and—
Husband (triumphantly)—Well, ain't that a quarter of 12?—Judge.

The Modern Method.
They're initiating William. You can hear him yell and shout. They will soon proceed to take his Vermiform appendix out. You can hear their yells of triumph. And it makes your blood tingle. They're initiating William in the good old fashioned way.
They'll tie him with a clothesline To the track and then collect All the microscopic pieces For the corner to inspect. Don't be hasty in your judgment. Do not interrupt their play. They're initiating William in the strictly modern way.
—Charles E. Nettleton in Brooklyn Life.

Another Good Man Gone Wrong
He neglected to take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first signs of kidney trouble, hoping it would wear away, and he was soon a victim of Bright's disease. There is danger in delay, but if Foley's Kidney Cure is taken at once the symptoms will disappear, the kidneys are strengthened and you are sound and well. A. R. Bass, of Morganton, Ind., had to get up ten or twelve times in the night, and had a severe backache and pains in the kidneys, and was cured by Foley's Kidney Cure. The Kaufmann Drug Co.

A Man of Nerve.
He—I called to see you last evening. She—Yes? He—Yes, the servant told me you were not in. She—Yes, I was so sorry to have missed you. He—I thought you must be. I heard you laughing upstairs in such grief stricken tones that I almost wept myself out of sympathy.

The Reason.
Teacher—You've been a very good boy for the last day or two, Bobbie. I haven't seen you fighting with the other boys or romping in the school-room. Bobbie—Yes, I got a stiff neck.—Cleveland Leader.

How to Avoid Appendicitis.
Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels and restores the natural action of the bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. The Kaufmann Drug Co.
