

Thousands Have Kidney

Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.
 Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Birmingham, N. Y.

What We Saw Abroad.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

We have very near lived to see forty-seven winters of our life, and we venture to say through this period of time we have never traveled a distance of forty miles north, south, east or west from our old homestead up to six or seven months ago. Now, Mr. Editor, if you and the dear readers of the Dispatch will excuse us this time. We will promise to do better in the future. The first thing in which we shall mention is why don't the city of Columbia take lessons under the city of Augusta, Ga., and make Congaree and Broad river bridges toll free. The people who live on the South Carolina side of the Savannah river seems to be privileged characters so far as crossing the two bridges which span across the river over into the city of Augusta for every five cents for a footman, ten cents for a buggy, forty-cents for a two-horse wagon, is left over in the city of Augusta. Wake up Columbia.

The old State of Georgia has her portions of railroads. Her fruit industry is wonderful. Thousands of dollars worth of fruit is shipped out of the State every year. We were very much surprised to know the interest in which are taken in fruit growing in Georgia and Alabama. In Gadsden, Ala., a Mr. Elliotte, an extensive fruit grower, who was hauling with five wagons day and night for two weeks, Sunday not excepted, realized, after all expenses was paid, $3,000 for his crop. Now, my good people, how much cotton would you have had to raised to have brought this amount of money, not counting the work from Xmas to Xmas. Open your eyes, good people. Well, we would like to ask our solicitor and lawyers a question. Is it customary for them to sit on a chair with their legs crossed and one arm thrown back of chair to question a witness while on the stand? Now, we experienced this sight in an Alabama town.

Well, we want to tell you something else. We had occasion to stop over in Chattanooga, Tenn., last Friday, and who do you suppose we saw there with a bee-gum-hat on. His excellency Governor Heyward and his staff, and we found them chatting with three nice young ladies, too. That was all right governor. We were proud to see you with the young ladies. We had the pleasure of seeing the governors of Georgia and Alabama, and according to our judgement, so far as looks and intelligence, Governor Heyward would certainly take the red ribbon. One more sight to relate, and that is Lookout Mountain at Chattanooga. The street cars run to the foot of this mountain, a cable wire is used to pull us on top, from which we can see over into seven different States—North and South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Tennessee, Kentucky and Virginia.

Advise for the Newly Married.

If it were possible for the young husband to take up life where some prosperous business man has laid it down there might be spared him the self denial and long years of labor that otherwise lay the foundation for his future success says Aunt Jane in Wallace's Farmer. Most young people must begin life with very little money or experience, and it is to them I wish to preach.
 Perhaps the income may be sufficient to provide a nicely furnished home in a rented house, plenty of rich food expensive clothing, but there is nothing left. "In the beginning." Those are wonderful words. A new life is opening before you; old things have passed away. You have cut asunder the chains that bound you to the old home. You have embarked together alone on life's sea. Look well how you steer the bark, lest you become wrecked on the shoals or reefs of expensive living and wastefulness.
 Begin with economy as your watchword. Begin by giving up all useless expenses. Begin by being contented with living sufficiently within your income that you may lay by something from your income each month.

"In the beginning" it is so much easier to start right than it is to get right after the habits of living have been formed. "In the beginning" the foundation is laid for successful ending. Begin right, end well.
 After a while sickness will be sure to come to one or both of you: added expenses constantly arise, and unless you begin to save from the start you will find it difficult to save at all.
 Don't deny yourself every comfort in life and become mere "money grubbers." Enjoy necessary comforts but beware of unnecessary luxuries. Learn to be contented with what you can afford, and don't worry because some neighbor or friend has more expensive things than you. Look well to the little expenses—Ex.

Galveston's Sea Wall
 makes life now as safe in that city as on the highest uplands. E. W. Goodloe, who resides on Dutton St., Waco, Tex., needs no sea wall for safety. He writes: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption the past five years and it keeps me well and safe. Before that time I had a cough which for years had been growing worse. Now its gone." Cures chronic coughs, la grippe, croup, whooping cough and prevents pneumonia. Pleasant to take. Every bottle guaranteed at The Kaufmann Drug Co's., drug store. Price 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Mills Seek Help in Foreign Lands.

On account of the great scarcity of mill help in this it has been necessary for one of the neighboring Carolina cotton mills to get foreign help, and it is learned that there will be five Belgian families and about 15 English-speaking immigrants brought to this section in a few weeks to work in the mill. The Belgian help has been secured through the aid of Immigration Agent Watson, of South Carolina, who is in the east now looking for suitable immigrants for the people whom he represents.

The bureau proposed for the State of Georgia was for a similar purpose, but on account of a large number of bills having priority it had to be carried over until next year, at which time it will most likely be taken up and passed.
 All of the mills in this section of the country are needing labor, and it is believed that they will eventually have to resort to the eastern fields to get the people to work in the mills.
 Through the efforts of Immigration Agent Watson, of South Carolina, there have been a large number of immigrants brought into that State, and it is believed with the proper efforts exercised in this State that the situation in regard to labor could be relieved to a great extent.—Augusta Chronicle.

Charleston Convicts.

Three convicts on the Charleston chain gang pretended to be sick and were left in the stockade last Thursday. About 3 o'clock, p. m., they called for water and Herman G. Stello, the guard in charge went to the pen to carry them some. They attacked him, capturing his pistol and beat him so severely that he died. They opened the guards' trunks, put on citizens clothes and escaped to the swamps. One was captured Sunday. The others are at large.

"Make Hay While the Sun Shines."

There is a lesson in the work of the thrifty farmer. He knows that the bright sunshine may last but a day and he prepares for the showers which are so liable to follow. So it should be with every household. Dysentery, diarrhoea and cholera morbus may attack some member of the home without warning. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which is the best known medicine for these diseases, should always be kept at hand, as immediate treatment is necessary, and delay may prove fatal. For sale by Kaufmann Drug Co.

The Japanese Not Satisfied.

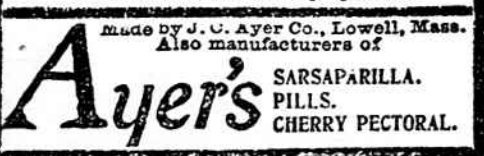

London, Aug. 24.—The Daily Telegraph's Tokio correspondent says that the Japanese consul at Vancouver, having reported that it is impossible for him to obtain a satisfactory or full report of the killing of the Japanese poachers by Americans in the Aleutian Islands, the Japanese government has decided to carry out its investigation of the affair and may send its consul to the Prihlof Islands.

First Columbia Bale.

The first bale of cotton for this year was received in Columbia today by Messrs. Daniel Crawford & Sons, the consignee being Mr. John Sumter of Gadsden. The bale weighed 582 pounds and graded easily as good middling, bringing 9 1/4 cents, or $56.75.—Columbia Record.

Buy Hair at Auction?

At any rate, you seem to be getting rid of it on auction-sale principles: "going, going, g-o-n-e!" Stop the auction with Ayer's Hair Vigor. It certainly checks falling hair; no mistake about this. It acts as a regular medicine; makes the scalp healthy. Then you must have healthy hair, for it's nature's way.

No Wonder He Moved.

The following notice was found posted on a deserted homestead in the arid regions of Kansas: "Four miles from a neighbor, sixteen miles from a postoffice, twenty-five miles from a railroad, fourteen miles from a school house, forty-one miles from a church, 180 miles to town, 600 miles to a democrat, half a mile to hell and the same distance to a republican. Gone to South Carolina—God's country—to get a fresh start."

When applied and covered with a hot cloth Pinesalve acts like a poultice. Best for burns, bruises, boils, eczema, skin diseases, etc.—Sold by Kaufmann Drug Co.

Mother and Child Drown.

While fording Kutman creek, about twelve miles from Walhalla, Mr. John Watkins, a prominent farmer, his wife and three children were swept from their wagon by the severe swollen stream. The mother and infant child were drowned, the father and other two children were rescued.

Every form of distressing ailment known as piles originates internally. The real cause of the trouble is inside. Manzan is put up in collapsible tubes with nozzle, so the medicine can be applied where it will do the most good, and do it quickly. If you are suffering with piles you owe yourself the duty of trying Manzan.—Sold by Kaufmann Drug Co.

Hoke Smith Wins.

The primary election for governor of Georgia on Wednesday resulted in a sweeping victory for Hoke Smith, he carrying 110 out of 145 counties. He will have 294 votes in the State convention out of 386.

The intense itching characteristic of salt rheum and eczema is instantly allayed by applying Chamberlain's Salve. As a cure for skin diseases this salve is unequalled. For sale by Kaufmann Drug Co.
