Congressman Lever's Work.

Washington, Sept. 21.—Representative Lever, who has been here for the past two days looking after departmental matters of interest to his constituents, returned to Columbia tonight. He received assurances from the postoffice department that a regular mail service will be inaugurated on the Atlantic Coast Line train between Fayetteville, N. C., and Columbia, S. C.

Cotton Seed Wanted.

I will pay highest market price for cotton seed delivered at Meetze & Sons warehouse. P. H. Corley.

For Sale,

One moving picture machine and stereopticon combined, 700 feet new films, 40 or 50 stereopticon slides and other things belonging to machine. All at a bargain. Call or write SAMUEL STEELE, Lexington, S. C.

Gamblers Caught.

Eight of the party of gamblers caught last Sunday near Mr. Henry Adams place, by Deputy Sheriff Little, accompanied by Messrs. Henry Adams, Job Swygert and others, gave bond before Magistrate Mack, at Leesville for their appearance at court, namely: Cape Barr, Oscar Carter, Ben Devenport, John Gortman, Frank Gortman, Fred Watson, George Rawl, Arthur Lites and Jess Devenport—all colored.

STIEGLITZ GUN STORE,
Columbia, S. C.

This store was established in 1876 and has always maintained a high standard for fair dealing and right prices. This season you will find a full line of the best makes of guns, rifles and ammunition at the lowest prices. Phonographs and records at factory prices. Hunting coats, caps, leggings, shell bags and belts. Mail orders receive prompt attention.

Teachers' Examination.

At the examination of teachers last Friday there were eighteen applicants, sixteen white and two colored. Out of the number eight passed for second grade, none for the first. The two colored failed entirely. The board passed upon several diplomas and issued first grade certificates to the holders thereof. The board by petition consolidated school districts numbers 21 and 22, located near Edmund.

New Fall Millinery.

I will open on the 6th and 7th of October my new and up-to-date millinery including hats and trimmings of the latest styles for the season. This stock was selected with care and is all new and beautiful. We can please the most fastidious, and the prices are reasonable. Every lady, young or old, is invited to call and inspect this new line. Miss Nell Edwards will take pleasure in showing you the different styles and the pleasing effect they have on the person.
Mrs. Nannie L. Clark.

Mrs. Alice Summer, of Newberry visited her sick mother, at Mr. C. M. Efrid's, last week. Her daughter, Miss Rosalin, was also here for a few days but both have returned home.

Joint Council Meeting.

Meeting of Joint Council of Bethel charge will be held at White Rock, at 10 o'clock a. m. sharp, on Saturday in October before second Sunday. Members of this council are requested to be prompt in attendance, as matters of importance will come before this meeting. Chairman of each committee will please have their reports ready for business, and each local treasurer should send statement to Joint Council treasurer so that he may be able to make report on finance, pastor's salary, etc.

JNO. C. SWYGERT,
Chairman Joint Council.

Notice, Candidates!

I beg to remind the successful candidates of the recent primary of their dues to the executive committee of one-half of their original assessment. Some have paid, others, presumably from oversight, have not. The secretary is very anxious to close the affairs of this campaign and begs prompt attention.

F. HAMPTON HENDRIX,
Leesville, S. C.,
Sec. and Treas. Ex. Com. Lex. Co.

Send your order or write and get prices.

Card of Thanks.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:
Mr. Editor, please allow me space in your valuable columns to thank my many friends who so liberally turned out and supported me in the past primary elections. I am truly grateful to the Democratic voters of Lexington county for the vote I received and take this opportunity of thanking them for their great confidence. While I have been defeated, I feel proud that I can say that I have all reasons to believe that it was done by a good man and a gentleman, and as I retire to my farm duties I also feel proud to say that I can do so feeling that I have a host of friends all over the county. Respectfully,
W. T. Craps.

Will Start Life Over Again.

On receiving notice of the arrest of young Robert C. Brockington in Jacksonville, Fla., Saturday, Detective J. W. Dunning, of the Columbia police department, accompanied by J. T. Melton, cashier of the State bank, proceeded to Jacksonville for the purpose of bringing back young Brockington. On their arrival there they called at police headquarters where the young man was delivered into their keeping.
The money which was taken from the young man at the time of his arrest, $1,910, was turned over to the bank official, who paid a reward of $100 to Officer Johnson, who made the arrest. Mr. Melton speaks very highly of Brockington, and says that during the two years that he had been in the employment of the bank he had proved a most excellent clerk and that he would not be prosecuted, but would be sent to his relatives at Winstboro, S. C. Arrangements were made by his friends to pay up his shortage. He is thoroughly penitent and will start life over again and feels over grateful to the bank and his friends.
