

MIMNAUGH'S :: GREAT :: DEPARTMENT :: STORE

Is running over with New Goods and Special Bargains. Hundreds of cases are coming in bringing a great assortment of Dress Goods and Silk, Laces and Ribbons, Hosiery and Gloves, Shoes, Millinery, Cloaks, Suits, Carpets, Oil Cloths, Curtains, and Drapery, Men's Furnishings and Clothing, Linens and Housefurnishings, Crockery, Glass and Chinaware. . . . .

Our Lexington friends should see the goods. You must call and look through and you will learn something of interest to you. Make our store your headquarters while in the city.

J. L. MIMNAUGH & CO., Columbia's Great Department Store.

PENCIL AND SCISSORS.

Wayside Notes Gathered Here and There by a Dispatch Man.

Meet at the County Fair from every section of the county.

SCHOOL BOOKS is positively sold for cash. Harman's Bazaar.

Fort Graham left yesterday to enter the South Carolina University.

Leggett's fresh mackerel, two for 15 cents, at Roof's Store.

Subscribers receiving the Dispatch in single wrappers will please notice their labels and remit.

Brooks J. Wingard left yesterday to resume studies at the South Carolina University.

For Sale—A good milk cow and calf. Calf one week old. Apply to W. J. Price, Route No. 3, Gilbert, S. C. 3447

Mr. Jesse Taylor's hand is improving fast and ere long he will be at his work again.

School books and stationery, all kinds, at depository.

Wessinger's Store, Chapin, S. C.

Mrs. Ethel Snyder's little daughter, Freda, has been very sick, but we are glad to say is better.

Call and see the line of beautiful infants ready made cloaks, sacks, bonnets, caps, etc., at Roof's Store.

Mrs. Edwin King, who is living with her brother, Mr. B. D. Clark, in town, has been and is still very sick.

Miss Ernestine Graichen left last week for Elizabeth college at Charlotte, N. C.

Miss Sadie Leslie left Tuesday a week to resume her studies at Winthrop.

Buy your dry goods and notions from the Lexington Department Store.

Mrs. Mamie Muller spent Saturday and Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Thomas Caughman at the depot.

Purchasers of school books will please not ask for credit. Bazaar.

Col. G. T. Graham Monday night had quite a severe attack of colic, but is out on the streets again.

Col. Ed. L. Asbill, of Leesville, was in town Monday on legal business. He is attorney for Paul Rowe.

Do you need anything in furniture? If so, you can be pleased with the large stock at Scott Hendrix's Furniture Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Lorick have been very uneasy for their little sick baby boy, but we are pleased to know it is better.

Messrs. Thos. L. Harman and C. W. Caughman have just returned from the west with a car load of horses and mules. See them before you buy.

Misses Stella and Isola Caughman, of Columbia, after a week's visit to Miss May Boozer, have returned home.

Supervisor L. J. Langford was here Monday to meet the special committee to show up the work of the County Commissioners.

When you want a nice felt hat cheap, or gents underwear of any kind, call and see H. M. Wingard.

The County Fair will be held on the 16, 17 and 18 of October. The State Fair will open on 22nd, the week following.

Mrs. Helen Allison and her son, Darold, of Statesville, N. C., are visiting Col. G. T. Graham's family here.

Misses May Meetze and Merideth Muller, of Columbia, visited their aunt, Mrs. Thos. H. Caughman, Sunday.

Remember the County Fair will be what you make it. Everyone should feel interested in its success. It is your fair.

You can get almost any article you may be in need of from the Lexington Department Store, and at the right price.

Mrs. Alma Geiger and son, Norman, have returned from Leesville, after a pleasant visit to Mrs. Jessie Hendrix and other relatives there.

We want to give positive notice that the Dispatch will only be sent to prompt paying subscribers. If you are in arrears call or send and settle.

An elegant line of the latest style ladies walking jackets and skirts to please the most fastidious at, Roof's Store.

Misses Burriss and Blossie Krepes, of Columbia, after a few days spent pleasantly with their cousins, the Misses Efrid, returned home last week.

Cyrus L. Shealy, our correspondent during the campaign, left Monday to resume his studies at the South Carolina University.

Ladies, don't forget to prepare some articles for the County Fair. Your jellies, jams, preserves, pickles, fancy needle work, etc.

The best place to buy your shoes, hats, clothing and furnishings is at the Lexington Department Store.

Mr. Albert M. Boozer and Dr. Earl Boozer came over yesterday morning to see Mrs. G. M. Harman, who was taken sick suddenly Monday morning and is still very sick.

Our young friend, Carl Roof, has accepted a school at Hymon, Florence county. Carl is a fine young man and a close student and will give satisfaction to his patrons.

Even if you wish to keep only a small account with THE HOME BANK, you may be assured of courteous attention and the best service that the bank has to offer.

We have just learned that Mrs. J. W. Kleckley on Rout 1, is very sick, at her home, but hope that she will soon be restored to her usual health.

School teachers by calling at the Supt. of Education's office can get the "Bulletin" containing text books, library lists and teachers' reading circle course, etc.

The family picnic proposed for Saturday, September 29th, at Clark's mills, will be postponed on account of the extreme illness of Mrs. Amanda King.

Supt. J. E. R. Kyzer requests us to state that he will not be in his office Saturday in consequence of his attending the conference at the Blue church in the Fork.

The Lexington Department Store's people have the nicest line of goods to be found anywhere and they will treat you right.

WANTED—Traveler for established house. Twelve dollars weekly to start. Expenses paid. References. Address George G. Clows, Lexington, S. C.

Dr. Blue Mountain Joe was up from Black creek last Thursday and like a good fellow he always, brings us something. This trip he brought us a mess of nice yellow crowder peas.

Mr. Walter Caughman, who has been very sick for some time in Columbia and who was operated on at the hospital for appendicitis, we are glad to say is improving as rapidly as possible.

WANTED.—An apprentice to learn the art of printing. Must read and spell well and have some knowledge of manuscript. No cigarett or bad habits. Apply at the Dispatch office.

While you are looking for bargains in shoes you should not miss calling at H. M. Wingard's Store. He has a substantial line for men, women and children. All marked at prices that will please you.

In remitting for his paper our friend, John K. Hayes, who is in best of health and enjoying life at Birmingham, Ala., where he holds a responsible position in Avondale mills, says: "This is to pay for my weekly letter from home—The Dispatch."

SHINGLE MILL—For sale, nearly new, of the Gibbes make, with an 8-inch belt, 70 feet long, four-ply, and a saw set. Apply to T. P. Meetze, Lexington, S. C.

Capt. Joe S. Hook, of Eastover, S. C., enclosing a dollar, says: "It is for your valuable paper for one year. Can't be without its news." Captain Joe is one of our war chums and it is always a pleasure to see him or receive a kind word from him.

Try an Oliver Chilled or Chattanooga turn plow, middle busters and subsoilers. This is the season to plow deep. Every plow guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded.

J. S. Wessinger, Chapin, S. C.

Mr. Chas. H. Drafts has accepted a position as clerk with the Albion Hotel, Augusta, Ga., where he will be pleased to have his numerous friends call and see him. The hotel is first class in every respect and it is always the delight of the proprietors to please guests and make them feel at home.

There is a lot of nice articles in furniture and house furnishings at Scott Hendrix's Furniture Store. If you will call and look through the stock you will find something you need which will please you, and the prices are right.

The rush is on.

Fall is here and with it all the new style Lace and Button shoes for Ladies and at prices that are surprisingly low.

We have the agency of one of the greatest manufacturers of Ladies shoes in the world.

This factory makes over ten thousand pairs of Ladies shoes every day at prices that retail from $2.00 to 3.50.

Every pair of shoes made for us at this factory are stamped Ehrlich's.

Its remarkable how fine the kid is in the uppers of these shoes—the soles are very flexible and made of the best white oak leather.

There is Style, Fit and Satisfaction in every pair. These shoes at $2.00, $2.50, $3.00 and $3.50 are worthy of your consideration.

They will prove money savers for you.

EHRlich's,

1648 Main St., COLUMBIA, S. C.
1627 Main St.,

Wells! Wells!! BERLEY & KYZER, THE - WELL - MEN.

If you want to do well, be well and look well, get Berley & Kyzer, Lexington, S. C., to put you in a Terra Cotta Well which will give you pure water. Our prices are right, our work is right. Give us a trial and be convinced.

EXPERIENCE.

Years of Experience are at Your COMMAND.

Successful experience has been ours and we want everybody who has cause to feel that there is anything the matter with their eyes at all, to call and have us give them proper tests.

THERE ARE NO CHARGES FOR EXAMINATIONS.

CHARLES F. SENTZ,

OPTICIAN,
JEWELER,

1439 Main St., Columbia, S. C.

A REGULAR COMMUNICATION of Lexington Lodge No. 152, A. F. M., will be held Saturday, 29th October, at 7:30 p. m. Brethren are earnestly requested to attend promptly.
By order of the W. M.
GODFREY M. HARMAN, Sec.

Horse, Mare and Buggy Sale

We closed out a car load of Horses and Mares last week at low prices. Quick sales and very small profits are all the go with us now. We make a leap for the cash every time. . . . .

WE ARE OFFERING FOR THIS WEEK

One full car load good Blockey Horses and Mares which have just arrived. Must all be sold this week to clean up for another shipment. Now is your time. You know they are always cheaper this time of the year and if you expect to buy in the near future don't wait.

Mule Company, One or a car load COLUMBIA, S. C.

CASH BUGGY SALE:

Open Buggies - - - $35.00.
Top Buggies - - - $41.00.

No such prices ever heard of in this country before. We want your money, you want the buggy. Cotton is off in price and the crops very short. We realize the situation. Have just received two car loads buggies and have orders unfilled for one more to come as soon as ready. Hence the prices as quoted.

GREGORY-CONDER MULE COMPANY.

From the Cheapest to the Highest.

1892. 1906.

Lexington Savings Bank.

LEXINGTON, S. C.

Oldest Bank in Lexington County.

Capital and Surplus $20,000.

DOES - A - GENERAL - BANKING - BUSINESS.

Accounts Invited on Favorable Terms. Interest at the Rate of 5 Per Cent Allowed in the Savings Department.

W. P. ROOF, Cashier.

THE UNDERSELLING STORE.

COLUMBIA'S SMALL PROFIT EMPORIUM.

Always Visit

COURTEOUS TREATMENT.

MOORE'S.

PROMPT ATTENTION.

MAIN AND BLANDING STREETS.

DRY GOODS, NOTIONS, CLOAKS, SUITS and SKIRTS.

BIGGEST AND BEST BARGAINS.

THE STORE OF LITTLE PRICES.